Ralph Hauptly missing in raid over Austria

Word was received last week that 2nd Lt. Ralph Hauptly of Mt. Prospect has been missing since March 23 when he piloted his bomber over Austria. Ralph is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hauptly of Mt. Prospect. His wife is the former Marilyn Framberg of Arlington Heights.

Lt. Hauptly had arrived in Italy in January of this year, joining a veteran B-24 group. He had flown several missions before his last flight, and was just recently awarded the Air Medal.

Lt. Hauptly signed up for the Air Corps November 26 of 1942. He reported January 30, 1943, at Miami Beach, Florida, to begin training. In March Ralph was transferred to Whittenburg college at Springfield, Ohio.

Lt. Hauptly completed his training at Whittenburg in June, and was transferred to San Antonio, Texas, for the second part of his training. He was later transferred to Lubbock, Texas, where he was awarded his wings May 26 of 1944.

Ralph then reported to Dodge City, Kansas June 4, later going on to Liberal, Kansas. He came home the end of August, where on August 27 he married Miss Marilyn Framberg of Arlington Heights. He then reported to Lincoln, Nebraska. His wife joined him at Mountain Home, Idaho.

After another furlough in December Lt Hauptly reported to Topeka, Kansas, Christmas Eve of '44. He immediately went overseas to Italy.

Elections will close taverns

In accordance with the state law taverns and liquor stores will be closed Saturday afternoon from noon to seven o'clock and next Tuesday until five o'clock on account of the school and village elections.

Bataan nurse tells of life in Jap hands

Public may hear Lt. Breese Friday

Lt. Minnie Breese of Arlington Heights has returned home after being released from Santo Thomas, Jap prison camp in Manila in the Philippines. In an interview this week, With Uncle Sam presents many of her experiences as told by her.

The story tells of the starvation diet supplied the prisoners, of the many indignities suffered by them, and of life in general in Jap hands. Lt. Breese emphatically states that her life among civilian internees was nothing compared to treatment accorded U. S. soldiers in other camps, but her story certainly will attract no one to Japan. It can be found on page one of the second section.

An opportunity to the general public to hear, first hand, of the experiences of Lt. Minnie Breese in the Jap prison camp in Manila this Friday is offered by Arlington Heights high school. A school assembably will be held at 2:30 p. m. in the high school auditorium where Lt. Breese will speak.

PTA speaker practices, talks democratic life

At its next to the last meeting of the school year on Tuesday, Apr. 17, the Arlington Heights PTA will hear a talk by Mr. Viggo Bovjerg of the National College of Education—a man who believes in democratic living and puts his belief into practice.

Mr. Bovjerg, besides being on the staff of a progressive school, conducts a summer camp for boys—the Bo-Family Farm camp in Greenville, Michigan, about 35 miles from Grand Rapids. Activity on the 100 acre farm centers around its actual management. If a dam is needed the boys help to build it. Mr. Bovjerg's own family goes each summer to the camp.

The educator has written numerous books and is also receiving wide recognition for his invention and production of toys—among them large and fascinating jointed animals.

"A Philosophy for Democratic Living" will be a highly meaningful talk coming from Mr. Bovjerg. Parents and teachers are looking forward to hearing him. The meeting will be at North school.

Many scouts to qualify for Eisenhower medals

Scout masters of Arlington Heights troops report that a number of the local scouts will soon be wearing a war medal, the Eisenhower waste paper award medal. To qualify for the award a boy must collect a thousand pounds of waste paper. 14 of the boys in one troop have their collection ready for weighing. They are now helping some of the other members of their troops in order that the troop itself can qualify for a shell case.

Similar interest on the part of other troops will mean that the youth of Arlington is doing its part to "lick the waste paper crisis", which is the campaign motto for the Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts throughout the nation.

Stanley H. Huntington, scout executive, has been advised that he will receive 180 of the Eisenhower medals, based on ten per cent of the scout membership in the Northern district. He has sent for an additional supply because, as he says, "more than ten per cent of our boys are going to be eligible for the award."

Frank Havranek and Kenneth Gregory, in charge of waste paper collection in Arlington think that the April, 1945 waste paper collection will surpass all previous months. Since November, 1943, Arlington scouts have collected 172,370 pounds.

Many of the scouts have been personally collecting the paper and have gathered it at their homes. The general public, who have waste paper on hand, is asked to have it placed on the curb early Saturday morning.

In addition to the personal award to be received by every boy who collects 1,000 pounds, a genuine shell case that carried a 75-mm. shell or larger and that has been returned from a European battlefield after use, will be awarded to each Cub Pack, Boy Scout Troop or Senior Scout Unit which has collected waste paper equivalent to 1,000 pounds per boy member. Each will bear a printed citation by General Eisenhower.

Eisenhower Medal For Boy Scouts

"Lick the Waste Paper Crisis" has become the campaign motto of the nation's 1,866,356 Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts as they swing into the WPB's urgently-requested waste paper salvage drive during the rest of the month. To every Cub Scout and Boy Scout collecting 1,000 pounds of paper will go a bronze medal—the Boy Scout-General Eisenhower Waste Paper Campaign award pictured above—attached to a red and white service bar.

On the reverse of the medal is the inscription, "Awarded for extraordinary patriotic achievement in the Boy Scout Gen. Eisenhower Campaign, March-April, 1945".

Bars to close on V-E day

By virtue of an ordinance passed by the Palatine Village board Monday night, all taverns within the Village limits will be closed for 24 hours when the official announcement comes of the end of the war in Europe.

Chicago taverns agreed to such a regulation some time ago and it is expected that the action will be universal.

Lions to hear expert on GI bill Tuesday

LeRoy Listug will speak on the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944 at the Arlington Heights Lions Club meeting Tuesday evening, April 17, at 7:30 o'clock. All who are interested are welcome to come and hear him.

Mr. Listug is Executive Vice President of the Central National Bank of Chicago and has made a special study of this bill which is commonly known as the G. I. Bill. As a result his services have been in constant demand throughout the Chicago Metropolitan area, and we are fortunate in having him come to Arlington Heights.

The G. I. Bill has many features that the home folks should know about so that when G. I. Joe steps off the train his or her church, his club, his nighbors, and his parents can help serve his needs, wants and desires with well informed and helpful suggestions. Mr. Listug has hinted that many boys have already returned and are not taking full advantage of opportunities provided in this bill. He will also call attention to some false information that has been given in regard to it.

A committee meeting is being called this week represented by as many organizations as possible in the Arlington Heights area as a preview to the meeting next Tuesday evening. The Veteran's Guide will be supplied on request to each organization or returned veteran.

Our American Legion is actively engaged in digesting the bill and has its committee working diligently. Every case will require special analysis and treatment.

May we all lend our support in this major post war objective. Let's see to it that the Vets receive every benefit that they are rightfully entitled to.

You are cordially invited to come and hear Mr. Listug speak on this important topic at the Lutheran school at 7:30 o'clock next Tuesday evening.

Ask women to hasten clothes collection

This week, Thursday and Friday, are the dates when Arlington Heights school pupils are asked to bring used clothing to the school houses. This clothing is greatly needed by the needy in Europe, and Arlington Heights is joining other communities throughout the nation this month in supplying the need.

There is still a lot of unused clothing in the closets, wardrobes and attics of Arlington Heights homes. A hasty trip about the clothing depots Wednesday morning indicates that a lot of housewives have delayed in collecting their clothing.

Mrs. Coleman and Mayor Goedke who are in charge of the clothing drive in Arlington Heights, are optimistic and are confident that with this reminder residents who have not yet taken time to make the collection will do so. It was originally hoped that the collection could be completed by the 15th. That date can still be met if the housewives will respond this week end. The clothing depots are church basements of the Presbyterian, Methodist and St. John churches, St. James school basement, St. Peter parish house, Christian Science church, and the public schools (Thursday and Friday of this week).

The village truck will make collections for those who can not take their clothing to the churches or schools. Phone No. 6 and the truck will call.

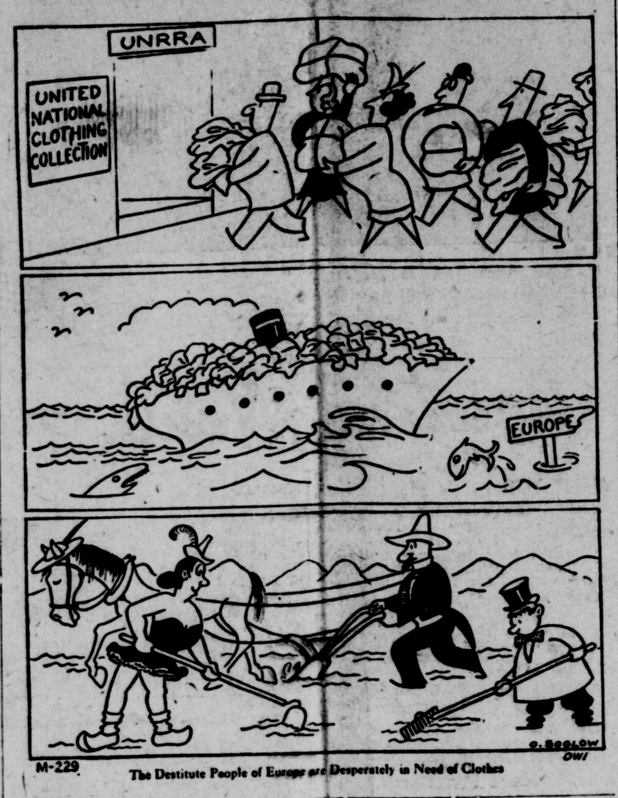

Mrs. Coleman reports that she has received so much assurance of cooperation from all those with whom she has been in contact, she thinks that all goals will be met, but she urges DO IT NOW—TODAY. Get the package ready, phone the village hall if you can not make a personal delivery.

Gets a real priority

Chas. Close of Arlington Seating Co., has asked for many priorities and he does not always get them, but it was different Wednesday. He had placed his order with Babyland for a son. In asking for the required priority rating that a first son requires, he made a lot of promises to Mrs. Close. Well, Charley is now the daddy of as fine a son as ever came out of babyland, says he.

The only fly in the ointment for daddy is a realization that those priority promises will take a lot of his time, such as putting the youngster asleep one night a week, answering all night calls that he may make and forgetting some of his expressive vocabulary about the house. "But it's worth it," says Charley.

Well done

The retirement of two veterans from the Arlington Heights Park Board last week recalls memories of 1937-39 when the present Recreation Park came into being. The construction of the field house and swimming pool, together with the ball diamond, recreation house and other facilities of the park did not just come out of the sky. It is true that the tax payers authorized bond issues and Uncle Sam dug down in his jeans for part of the costs, but the park board was the engineer on the job—and a good job they did.

Messrs. Geo. K. Volz and Paul Taege, who became members of the board in 1933, remained at the helm of state through the construction period, through the experimental period when it was nip and tuck whether the swimming pool could be kept in operation and they were the ones who had a lot of worrying to do to make ends meet.

Their judgment was so well accepted by the voters that when a boost in the authorized tax rate was recommended by the park board, the electors voted their O. K. That extra bit of tax money is what pushed the park over the hump. It will take careful handling to make the present tax dollar stretch to meet present demands, but the two veterans, Geo. K. Volze and Paul Taege, after serving twelve years, can retire with the realization that they have placed our Park District on a sound financial foundation.

This service of twelve years of gratis service (they receive no pay) merits recognition on the part of the citizens of Arlington Heights and it is in behalf of Arlington that the Herald says "thank you" to Mr. Volz and Mr. Taege. You have done a great job. The Herald has confidence that the men who have taken their place will keep up the good work and maintain the service that has won the praise and admiration of strangers and neighboring towns the past few years.

Village election next Tuesday

Next Tuesday is the date for the village election. It promises to be a quiet election. There is no opposition for any of the village offices and the public has placed its stamp of approval on the four year administration of Albert W. Goedke.

During the past four years of war and skyrocketing prices the village administration has held an even keel; it has kept expenditures at a minimum and consequently its tax levy down to what was actually needed.

Aided by better times and higher percentage of tax collections and by the exercise of economy the municipality is in a better financial condition today than at any time in recent years. The village administration has taken an active part in all war activities, civilian defense war fund drives, victory bond drives and aided the many projects that are helping to win this war.

The ticket which is running unopposed at Tuesday's election under the name of Service Party includes the following candidates:

Albert W. Goedke for village president.

Forrest F. Davis for village clerk.

William G. Franke, Fred H. Kehe, Rudolph J. Rizzi for members of the board of trustees.

Candidates for the library board are C. H. Mills and Irma Grose.

The above candidates have easy sailing with no opposition, but they deserve more than just a complimentary vote next Tuesday. The voters should take enough interest in the service they are giving to go to the polls that day.

Three more teachers are dismissed

On Thursday, April 5, three more high school teachers, John L. Grose, Earle L. Joyner and Miss Carey Clark, were handed notices of dismissal, to take effect June 7, 1945.

Miss Carey Clark has been associated with the school for a number of years as a teacher of Home Economics, English, and History. Many of the homes in Arlington Heights have benefitted by her suggestions in the household arts. Miss Clark is a well qualified teacher, having a Master of Arts degree in home economics from the University of Colorado.

John L. Grose has been with the local school for many years. He has served as coach and teacher in mathematics, and shop. He has served as assistant principal for the past six years. Mr. Grose holds a Masters degree from Northwestern University.

Earl L. Joyner became a member of the high school faculty four years ago. He has taught science and has been a very successful coach of basketball and baseball. Mr. Joyner also holds a Masters degree from Northwestern University.

With the dismissal of Mr. Grose and Mr. Joyner the entire coaching staff has been changed this year.

All of these teachers have had a sincere interest in the school and have helped materially in its de-

This makes a total of seven teachers who have been dismissed in the past four weeks.

MANY CHILDREN ARE BITTEN BY DOGS

The police department reports that a number of Arlington Heights children have been bitten by dogs recently. In some cases the dogs belonged to the family of the person bitten. Chief Skoog urges parents to warn their children not to play with dogs or to tease them.

New members take over the park board

Pay tribute to service of three retiring members

Last Wednesday evening, with the inauguration of the newly elected Arlington Heights Park Commissioners, three members of the previous board, two of whom had served since the formation of the Park District, retired from their duties.

Commissioners George Volz and Paul Taege, both of whom were instrumental in the founding of our present Park System and the construction of the swimming pool, field house, tennis courts, and other facilities, gave much of their personal time during their terms in office to give Arlington Heights one of the best parks in the suburban territory.

The third member leaving office is Marion Hogate, who had been appointed several years ago to fill a vacancy existing on the Board of Commissioners. Although Hogate's term of service was short, his work in trying to establish a supervised recreational program will be used as the basis for formulating future supervised play activities.

After the new board assumed office, electing Robert Beatty, senior member of the Board, president, and Elroy Harris, the only other member to hold over vice-president, the first business was the adoption of the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED: That the Commissioners of the Arlington Heights Park District extend, in behalf of the Residents of Arlington Heights, most sincere thanks and appreciation of the many years of faithful, dutiful and intelligent services performed by George K. Volz and Paul C. Taege, now retiring members of the Park District.

BE IT RESOLVED: That special recognition be given to these two members for services rendered and diligent guidance of the construction of the Field House, swimming Pool and many other park facilities which the Village of Arlington Heights now so proudly boast.

BE IT RESOLVED: The devotion displayed to Park District affairs by George K. Volz and Paul C. Taege will be a high example to all present and future generation residents of Arlington Heights.

BE IT RESOLVED: That the Board extend to Marion C. Hogate, retiring member, the sincere thanks of the Community for his interest and work as a Park Commissioner. His attention to Recreational work prior to being a board member and thereafter was commendable.

Committees to carry out the operation of the Park District were appointed by President Beatty as follows: building and grounds, Walter Kroeber and Nat Burfeind; recreation, Eddie Wahl and Elroy Harris; finance, Nat Burfeind and Walter Kroeber; publicity, Elroy Harris and Eddie Wahl. The first party named is the chairman of each committee. Superintendent of the Park District, Alfred Blume, will continue in that capacity. Elmer Crane was appointed secretary and Glen Benson treasurer.

Need cooperation

Although real summer is many weeks away a general discussion regarding the problems of providing necessary facilities for supervised recreational activities occurred at the first meeting of the new Arlington Heights Park Board last week. The matter was discussed by the board members with a number of visitors who were present to witness the inauguration of the new members.

It was definitely pointed out that the Park Commissioners will endeavor to make available all necessary facilities needed to carry on a supervised recreational program, but that success of such a program will depend on an unlimited amount of backing by the organizations who are interested in seeing a supervised play program maintained, at least during the vacation period.

Early returns in boy scout drive look encouraging

Early returns of the Financial Drive of the Boy Scouts of America in Arlington Heights prove highly encouraging. Due to the Easter Holiday many of the men working on the Drive have not completed their work and final tabulations will be printed in next week's paper.

A splendid reception is being reported by the solicitors. Business men and residents alike are showing an active interest in the plans for this summer's scouting program for our rising generation. Vacations are in the making and again we acknowledge with thanks the generous support you are contributing to the welfare of our young people.

If for any reason you have not been contacted by a solicitor your contribution may be made at the local bank to be credited to the Boy Scouts of America.

High School board makes a statement

The Board of Education of the Arlington Heights Township High School District sincerely believes, that as a general policy, it should not enter into a public debate, either through the press or otherwise, on certain problems which have recently confronted the Board in the High School.

However, the Board believes that the residents of the High School District, to whom the Board, as their duly elected representatives, are responsible, are entitled to a general report and statement by the Board because of the many rumors and recent publicity given by others to the present situation.

In selecting a new principal for the High School, the Board believed it had a positive duty to solicit the applications of all qualified educators who might be interested in the position, regardless of where they might live or whom they might be. The Board further believed it had a positive duty to select from these applicants the one they believed to be best qualified to assume the responsibility of educat.onal leadership for the High School in the community. As a result of this policy the Board received and carefully examined and considered credentials from in excess of 100 applicants, and had personal interviews with 8 applicants. After further checking with educational institutions, and interviewing citizens and Board members from the applicant's community, as to the character, integrity and ability of the applicant, and visiting his former school, the Board of Education was unanimous in the selection of the present principal.

The Board expected any new principal to have new ideas that he might wish to put into effect. They further expected any new principal to cooperate with other schools in the community, make suggestions of possible educational advancements for the school, suggest possible curriculum changes wherever it might be for the best interest of the pupils and in general to assume leadership of the High School in the educational program of the community. The Board fully expected that any new principal coming into the school might make minor errors, due to his unfamiliarity with the school.

The Board believed that to have a successful school program, all of the staff members of the school would have to cooperate, and to that end, expected the faculty to welcome any new principal selected by the Board and join with him in studying, discussing, at proper times and places, and supporting, such new ideas for the improvement of the school as might be placed in effect. The Board further expected the faculty through frank and sincere discussions with the new principal of educational problems, to develop a program for the educational advancement of the school. They further expected, that if personal differences arose between the faculty members and the new principal, that they would be discussed at the proper times and places, and after a decision had been reached, all members of the school staff would support the decision even though it might be different than their personal desires or opinions. The Board further expected from all staff members a spirit of loyalty to each other, to the students, the community and to the Board and the centering of attention on an educational program for the school rather than upon personal grievances.

While no official request was ever made to the Board, because of rumors, gossip and mistaken impressions circulating through the community, the Board was required to call all faculty members to a meeting. Considerable time was spent in listening to, investigating and considering complaints of certain faculty members. It should be noted that the statement has been made in a meeting attended by all of the school staff and Board members, and has been unchallenged, that the Board had gone farther in listening to and considering complaints from the faculty than any other Board in Illinois in recent times.

After thoroughly studying the complaints as disclosed in these meetings, conferring at length with Educational Leaders, and after careful and impartial consideration of all matters raised, the Board, at a meeting of all members of the Board, faculty and administrator, reported to the faculty that by far the majority of the criticisms were trivial or personal matters and had no bearing on the educational welfare of the school; that the remainder of the criticisms, including those attacking the honesty and integrity of the principal, had been carefully investigated by the Board and found to have no basis in fact; that the principal had the complete faith and confidence of the Board; that the criticisms having been discussed, there was no reason why a good working spirit should not be developed; that if, after careful consideration, a member or members of the faculty could not be satisfied and cooperate in their present position as teachers, the Board would accept their resignation effective at the end of the school year; that in the future the Board expected grievances to be presented to the principal by the groups and presenting implied demands to the Board.

Since that report was made by the Board many rumors and statements have persisted. The Board believes that care should be taken teachers before organizing into in weighing these, to see that all facts are known, and then that they should be examined in the light of whether they are matters of importance to the educational welfare of the pupils and school or whether they are personal opinions or grievances.

In conclusion, the Board respectfully states:

(1) That it has conscientiously endeavored to be absolutely fair and impartial in this situation to all members of the school staff.

(2) That the sole desire of the Board, and the individual members is to create a proper educational atmosphere and develop the best educational program possible for the boys and girls of the student body.

(3) That the lack of improvement in the general situation required the Board to take definite action to eventually remedy the present condition.

(4) That the Board sincerely believes that any similiar group of citizens of this community, in possession of all of the facts which the Board has, would have arrived at similar conclusions and have taken substantially the same actions as taken by the Board.

Respectfully submitted,
BOARD OF EDUCATION
ARLINGTON HEIGHTS
TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL
DISTRICT NO. 214.

Gets a real priority

Chas. Close of Arlington Seating Co., has asked for many priorities and he does not always get them, but it was different Wednesday. He had placed his order with Babyland for a son. In asking for the required priority rating that a first son requires, he made a lot of promises to Mrs. Close. Well, Charley is now the daddy of as fine a son as ever came out of babyland, says he.

The only fly in the ointment for daddy is a realization that those priority promises will take a lot of his time, such as putting the youngster asleep one night a week, answering all night calls that he may make and forgetting some of his expressive vocabulary about the house. "But it's worth it," says Charley.

The candidate is Otto Andersen of Wheeling.

Well done

The retirement of two veterans from the Arlington Heights Park Board last week recalls memories of 1937-39 when the present Recreation Park came into being. The construction of the field house and swimming pool, together with the ball diamond, recreation house and other facilities of the park did not just come out of the sky. It is true that the tax payers authorized bond issues and Uncle Sam dug down in his jeans for part of the costs, but the park board was the engineer on the job—and a good job they did.

Messrs. Geo. K. Volz and Paul Taege, who became members of the board in 1933, remained at the helm of state through the construction period, through the experimental period when it was nip and tuck whether the swimming pool could be kept in operation and they were the ones who had a lot of worrying to do to make ends meet.

Their judgment was so well accepted by the voters that when a boost in the authorized tax rate was recommended by the park board, the electors voted their O. K. That extra bit of tax money is what pushed the park over the hump. It will take careful handling to make the present tax dollar stretch to meet present demands, but the two veterans, Geo. K. Volze and Paul Taege, after serving twelve years, can retire with the realization that they have placed our Park District on a sound financial foundation.

This service of twelve years of gratis service (they receive no pay) merits recognition on the part of the citizens of Arlington Heights and it is in behalf of Arlington that the Herald says "thank you" to Mr. Volz and Mr. Taege. You have done a great job. The Herald has confidence that the men who have taken their place will keep up the good work and maintain the service that has won the praise and admiration of strangers and neighboring towns the past few years.

Village election next Tuesday

Next Tuesday is the date for the village election. It promises to be a quiet election. There is no opposition for any of the village offices and the public has placed its stamp of approval on the four year administration of Albert W. Goedke.

During the past four years of war and skyrocketing prices the village administration has held an even keel; it has kept expenditures at a minimum and consequently its tax levy down to what was actually needed.

Aided by better times and higher percentage of tax collections and by the exercise of economy the municipality is in a better financial condition today than at any time in recent years. The village administration has taken an active part in all war activities, civilian defense war fund drives, victory bond drives and aided the many projects that are helping to win this war.

The ticket which is running unopposed at Tuesday's election under the name of Service Party includes the following candidates:

Albert W. Goedke for village president.

Forrest F. Davis for village clerk.

William G. Franke, Fred H. Kehe, Rudolph J. Rizzi for members of the board of trustees.

Candidates for the library board are C. H. Mills and Irma Grose.

The above candidates have easy sailing with no opposition, but they deserve more than just a complimentary vote next Tuesday. The voters should take enough interest in the service they are giving to go to the polls that day.

Three more teachers are dismissed

On Thursday, April 5, three more high school teachers, John L. Grose, Earle L. Joyner and Miss Carey Clark, were handed notices of dismissal, to take effect June 7, 1945.

Miss Carey Clark has been associated with the school for a number of years as a teacher of Home Economics, English, and History. Many of the homes in Arlington Heights have benefitted by her suggestions in the household arts. Miss Clark is a well qualified teacher, having a Master of Arts degree in home economics from the University of Colorado.

John L. Grose has been with the local school for many years. He has served as coach and teacher in mathematics, and shop. He has served as assistant principal for the past six years. Mr. Grose holds a Masters degree from Northwestern University.

Earl L. Joyner became a member of the high school faculty four years ago. He has taught science and has been a very successful coach of basketball and baseball. Mr. Joyner also holds a Masters degree from Northwestern University.

With the dismissal of Mr. Grose and Mr. Joyner the entire coaching staff has been changed this year.

All of these teachers have had a sincere interest in the school and have helped materially in its development.

This makes a total of seven teachers who have been dismissed in the past four weeks.

MANY CHILDREN ARE BITTEN BY DOGS

The police department reports that a number of Arlington Heights children have been bitten by dogs recently. In some cases the dogs belonged to the family of the person bitten. Chief Skoog urges parents to warn their children not to play with dogs or to tease them.

New members take over the park board

Pay tribute to service of three retiring members

Last Wednesday evening, with the inauguration of the newly elected Arlington Heights Park Commissioners, three members of the previous board, two of whom had served since the formation of the Park District, retired from their duties.

Commissioners George Volz and Paul Taege, both of whom were instrumental in the founding of our present Park System and the construction of the swimming pool, field house, tennis courts, and other facilities, gave much of their personal time during their terms in office to give Arlington Heights one of the best parks in the suburban territory.

The third member leaving office is Marion Hogate, who had been appointed several years ago to fill a vacancy existing on the Board of Commissioners. Although Hogate's term of service was short, his work in trying to establish a supervised recreational program will be used as the basis for formulating future supervised play activities.

After the new board assumed office, electing Robert Beatty, senior member of the Board, president, and Elroy Harris, the only other member to hold over vice-president, the first business was the adoption of the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED: That the Commissioners of the Arlington Heights Park District extend, in behalf of the Residents of Arlington Heights, most sincere thanks and appreciation of the many years of faithful, dutiful and intelligent services performed by George K. Volz and Paul C. Taege, now retiring members of the Park District.

BE IT RESOLVED: That special recognition be given to these two members for services rendered and diligent guidance of the construction of the Field House, swimming Pool and many other park facilities which the Village of Arlington Heights now so proudly boast.

BE IT RESOLVED: The devotion displayed to Park District affairs by George K. Volz and Paul C. Taege will be a high example to all present and future generation residents of Arlington Heights.

BE IT RESOLVED: That the Board extend to Marion C. Hogate, retiring member, the sincere thanks of the Community for his interest and work as a Park Commissioner. His attention to Recreational work prior to being a board member and thereafter was commendable.

Committees to carry out the operation of the Park District were appointed by President Beatty as follows: building and grounds, Walter Kroeber and Nat Burfeind; recreation, Eddie Wahl and Elroy Harris; finance, Nat Burfeind and Walter Kroeber; publicity, Elroy Harris and Eddie Wahl. The first party named is the chairman of each committee. Superintendent of the Park District, Alfred Blume, will continue in that capacity. Elmer Crane was appointed secretary and Glen Benson treasurer.

Need cooperation

Although real summer is many weeks away a general discussion regarding the problems of providing necessary facilities for supervised recreational activities occurred at the first meeting of the new Arlington Heights Park Board last week. The matter was discussed by the board members with a number of visitors who were present to witness the inauguration of the new members.

It was definitely pointed out that the Park Commissioners will endeavor to make available all necessary facilities needed to carry on a supervised recreational program, but that success of such a program will depend on an unlimited amount of backing by the organizations who are interested in seeing a supervised play program maintained, at least during the vacation period.

Early returns in boy scout drive look encouraging

Early returns of the Financial Drive of the Boy Scouts of America in Arlington Heights prove highly encouraging. Due to the Easter Holiday many of the men working on the Drive have not completed their work and final tabulations will be printed in next week's paper.

A splendid reception is being reported by the solicitors. Business men and residents alike are showing an active interest in the plans for this summer's scouting program for our rising generation. Vacations are in the making and again we acknowledge with thanks the generous support you are contributing to the welfare of our young people.

If for any reason you have not been contacted by a solicitor your contribution may be made at the local bank to be credited to the Boy Scouts of America.

High School board makes a statement

The Board of Education of the Arlington Heights Township High School District sincerely believes, that as a general policy, it should not enter into a public debate, either through the press or otherwise, on certain problems which have recently confronted the Board in the High School.

However, the Board believes that the residents of the High School District, to whom the Board, as their duly elected representatives, are responsible, are entitled to a general report and statement by the Board because of the many rumors and recent publicity given by others to the present situation.

In selecting a new principal for the High School, the Board believed it had a positive duty to solicit the applications of all qualified educators who might be interested in the position, regardless of where they might live or whom they might be. The Board further believed it had a positive duty to select from these applicants the one they believed to be best qualified to assume the responsibility of educational leadership for the High School in the community. As a result of this policy the Board received and carefully examined and considered credentials from in excess of 100 applicants, and had personal interviews with 8 applicants. After further checking with educational institutions, and interviewing citizens and Board members from the applicant's community, as to the character, integrity and ability of the applicant, and visiting his former school, the Board of Education was unanimous in the selection of the present principal.

The Board expected any new principal to have new ideas that he might wish to put into effect. They further expected any new principal to cooperate with other schools in the community, make suggestions of possible educational advancements for the school, suggest possible curriculum changes wherever it might be for the best interest of the pupils and in general to assume leadership of the High School in the educational program of the community. The Board fully expected that any new principal coming into the school might make minor errors, due to his unfamiliarity with the school.

The Board believed that to have a successful school program, all of the staff members of the school would have to cooperate, and to that end, expected the faculty to welcome any new principal selected by the Board and join with him in studying, discussing, at proper times and places, and supporting, such new ideas for the improvement of the school as might be placed in effect. The Board further expected the faculty through frank and sincere discussions with the new principal of educational problems, to develop a program for the educational advancement of the school. They further expected, that if personal differences arose between the faculty members and the new principal, that they would be discussed at the proper times and places, and after a decision had been reached, all members of the school staff would support the decision even though it might be different than their personal desires or opinions. The Board further expected from all staff members a spirit of loyalty to each other, to the students, the community and to the Board and the centering of attention on an educational program for the school rather than upon personal grievances.

While no official request was ever made to the Board, because of rumors, gossip and mistaken impressions circulating through the community, the Board was required to call all faculty members to a meeting. Considerable time was spent in listening to, investigating and considering complaints of certain faculty members. It should be noted that the statement has been made in a meeting attended by all of the school staff and Board members, and has been unchallenged, that the Board had gone farther in listening to and considering complaints from the faculty than any other Board in Illinois in recent times.

After thoroughly studying the complaints as disclosed in these meetings, conferring at length with Educational Leaders, and after careful and impartial consideration of all matters raised, the Board, at a meeting of all members of the Board, faculty and administrator, reported to the faculty that by far the majority of the criticisms were trivial or personal matters and had no bearing on the educational welfare of the school; that the remainder of the criticisms, including those attacking the honesty and integrity of the principal, had been carefully investigated by the Board and found to have no basis in fact; that the principal had the complete faith and confidence of the Board; that the criticisms having been discussed, there was no reason why a good working spirit should not be developed; that if, after careful consideration, a member or members of the faculty could not be satisfied and cooperate in their present position as teachers, the Board would accept their resignation effective at the end of the school year; that in the future the Board expected grievances to be presented to the principal by the groups and presenting implied demands to the Board.

Since that report was made by the Board many rumors and statements have persisted. The Board believes that care should be taken teachers before organizing into in weighing these, to see that all facts are known, and then that they should be examined in the light of whether they are matters of importance to the educational welfare of the pupils and school or whether they are personal opinions or grievances.

In conclusion, the Board respectfully states:

(1) That it has conscientiously endeavored to be absolutely fair and impartial in this situation to all members of the school staff.

(2) That the sole desire of the Board, and the individual members is to create a proper educational atmosphere and develop the best educational program possible for the boys and girls of the student body.

(3) That the lack of improvement in the general situation required the Board to take definite action to eventually remedy the present condition.

(4) That the Board sincerely believes that any similiar group of citizens of this community, in possession of all of the facts which the Board has, would have arrived at similar conclusions and have taken substantially the same actions as taken by the Board.

Respectfully submitted,

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Lt. Phil Kaiser killed in England

Word was received Monday of the death in action March 25 of Lt. Phillip Kaiser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kaiser, 302 S. George St., Mt. Prospect. Lt Kaiser was a pilot of a B-24 Liberator bomber, stationed in England.

Details of his death are not known at present, but are expected later. Phil had previously suffered a broken leg when he parachuted from his plane the early part of January of this year. His parents had just received his membership card Monday for the Caterpillar Club, a unit composed of flyers who have parachuted to save their life.

Lt. Kaiser went into service in February of '43. He trained at numerous stations, first reporting to Kentucky State Teachers college at Bowling Green, Kentucky. He had been attending the University of Indiana at the time of his enlistment.

Nashville, Tennessee, was Lt. Kaiser's next stop in June of '43. Then on to Maxwell Field, Alabama, where he officially became an aviation cadet July 2.

Phil was then transferred to Shaw Field, Sumter, S. C., then to Seymour, Indiana, for further training. He was awarded his wings at Rantoul, Ill., March 12, 1944. Lt. Kaiser went overseas in October of last year, going directly to England.

Many scouts to qualify for Eisenhower medals

Scout masters of Arlington Heights troops report that a number of the local scouts will soon be wearing a war medal, the Eisenhower waste paper award medal. To qualify for the award a boy must collect a thousand pounds of waste paper. 14 of the boys in one troop have their collection ready for weighing. They are now helping some of the other members of their troops in order that the troop itself can qualify for a shell case.

Similar interest on the part of other troops will mean that the youth of Arlington is doing its part to "lick the waste paper crisis", which is the campaign motto for the Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts throughout the nation.

Stanley H. Huntington, scout executive, has been advised that he will receive 180 of the Eisenhower medals, based on ten per cent of the scout membership in the Northern district. He has sent for an additional supply because, as he says, "more than ten per cent of our boys are going to be eligible for the award."

Frank Havranek and Kenneth Gregory, in charge of waste paper collection in Arlington think that the April, 1945 waste paper collection will surpass all previous months. Since November, 1943, Arlington scouts have collected 172,370 pounds.

Many of the scouts have been personally collecting the paper and have gathered it at their homes. The general public, who have waste paper on hand, is asked to have it placed on the curb early Saturday morning.

In addition to the personal award to be received by every boy who collects 1,000 pounds, a genuine shell case that carried a 75-mm. shell or larger and that has been returned from a European battlefield after use, will be awarded to each Cub Pack, Boy Scout Troop or Senior Scout Unit which has collected waste paper equivalent to 1,000 pounds per boy member. Each will bear a printed citation by General Eisenhower.

Eisenhower Medal For Boy Scouts

"Lick the Waste Paper Crisis" has become the campaign motto of the nation's 1,866,356 Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts as they swing into the WPB's urgently-requested waste paper salvage drive during the rest of the month. To every Cub Scout and Boy Scout collecting 1,000 pounds of paper will go a bronze medal—the Boy Scout-General Eisenhower Waste Paper Campaign award pictured above — attached to a red and white service bar.

On the reverse of the medal is the inscription, "Awarded for extraordinary patriotic achievement in the Boy Scout Gen. Eisenhower Campaign, March-April, 1945".

Bars to close on V-E day

By virtue of an ordinance passed by the Palatine Village board Monday night, all taverns within the Village limits will be closed for 24 hours when the official announcement comes of the end of the war in Europe.

Chicago taverns agreed to such a regulation some time ago and it is expected that the action will be universal.

Voice of the people

Arlington Heights Herald
Arlington Heights, Illinois
Dear Sir:

I have just read in the Herald as inserted by the Teachers Union, that I left the Arlington Heights Township High School because of the fact I received little or no cooperation from the administration and Board of Education. I received the closest cooperation and effort from both. I left because of my inability to find living quarters for myself and family.

Very truly yours,
R. E. HALSTEAD.

Realtor group studies state slum clearance

The Northwest Suburban Board of Realtors met at Simon's Restaurant in Arlington Heights at 6:30 p. m. March 23rd for their regular monthly meeting and dinner.

President Harry A. Dooley turned the meeting over to Donald Florence of the firm of Willson & Florence, acting legislation chairman. He introduced Bernice Van der Vries, State Representative and Senator Arthur F. Bidwell, both of the 7th Illinois District, who spoke briefly on the how and why of legislative problems in Springfield affecting real estate.

Larry Holmes, executive-secretary of the Illinois Association of Real Estate Brokers, spoke on the following: (1) Real Estate License Law; (2) Price Control Law; (3) Rent Control Law; (4) Property Restriction and Zoning, including the Housing Authority bill for slum clearance. After discussing these problems Mr. Holmes conducted an interesting and instructive round table discussion about them.

The Realtors voted to send Mr. Florence to Springfield as their representative to attend the committee meetings of both the House and Senate.

Mr. Florence reports as follows:

The Realtors were opposed to Senate Bill No. 204 which proposes to set up Housing Authorities thru out the state with power to condemn slum property and acquire same through the right of eminent domain. The Realtors want slum clearance but feel that public housing that has proven to be costly in other sections of the country should be eliminated and that since the land is acquired by the State Housing Authority it should be sold to private builders and private builders should be given a chance to build these projects. The competitive spirit of our economic system has furnished about 98% of the homes of the past. Principal objection to the bill was the increase in taxes that will come about by taking large areas in Chicago off the tax rolls as the property is acquired by the Housing Authority.

The Realtors proposed a limit of two years on property so acquired so as to get it back on the tax rolls again. In short the Realtors don't think the government should go into the Real Estate business at the expense of the taxpayers.

Further legislation pending is to allow building and loans associations and insurance companies to acquire real estate equities up to 10% of their available funds. At the present time they are limited to mortgage loans.

The safety factor for example on an insurance loan is 33⅓%. The insurance company can loan 66⅔% of the appraised value.

The Realtors are opposed to insurance companies and building & loan associations who are acting in a fiduciary capacity with other people's money being allowed to speculate in real estate. True real estate from an individual owner's standpoint is a sound investment but there should be a margin of safety on investments using money that is entrusted for safe keeping.

The Realtors were in favor of legislation that relieves village officials from liability within their jurisdiction. If this legislation passes the eye-sores that dot our communities should be condemned and the tax paying owners of adjoining property will benefit by increased appraisals of property.

The Kelly-Green coalition in their anxiety to clean up the slums will no doubt pass the legislation without ammendment, however the organized Real Estate profession represented by the Real Estate Boards of Illinois are proud of their fight for conservative legislation.

Why taxes are higher

Many people are wondering this spring why their tax bills have taken such a jump.

Some seem to think they should protest their tax bills simply because they have gone up without looking carefully to see that their valuation is the same as last year.

The reason that taxes are higher this year is because the various taxing bodies needed more money to operate on than they have needed previously.

For instance, the county rate went up ten cents on each $100 of valuation.

This was caused by the larger budget passed by the county board in order to pay up a lot of debts accumulated back during the depression.

Likewise lots of school districts had to raise more money in order to hire extra teachers and to raise the salaries of those they did have if the schools weren't going to lose all their teachers to the high-salaried war plants.

As school officials point out, it costs more to run a school now than it did, the same as it costs more to eat, buy clothes and every other item of every day existence.

When it comes to protesting taxes simply because the rate has gone up, the proster has to prove that some part of the rate is illegal.

If a person desires to protest because of his valuation he should go to the county board of appeals.

The local collectors report many cases of people talking protest when they admit that the valuation set on their property is less than they paid for it or less than they would sell it for.

In such cases they are foolish to go before the board of appeals, and be forced to admit they paid more for the property than the assessor has it valued at and that they wouldn't take the assessor's figure for the property.

Such protests are a waste of time and when the protesters are shown the point they readily agree that they guess they have no protest coming.

Taxes are higher this year because the tax rates of some of the taxing bodies are higher.

If people want modern advantages of good schools and good municipal service, those things must be paid for the same as groceries and clothes.

In these days of high salaries and peak war production, everything is up and taxes are no exception to the general rule.

The great percentage of the tax money is raised by the local governments.

For instance, out of the Palatine combined rate in the village of $2.44 on each $100 of valuation, all of that is raised by the various home taxing bodies with the exception of 34 cents on each $100 valuation for the Cook county government and 4 cents for the county forest preserve district.

Out of Palatine's $2.44 rate, $2.06 goes entirely to the local taxing bodies and 38 cents goes to Cook county and the forest preserve district, so the great percentage of taxes is levied and used right at home.

Tax Increases

In the 75.4 per cent total increase between 1941 and 1944 of all taxes except individual income, corporation and excess profits taxes, liquor tax yields nearly doubled and tobacco tax revenues grew by 41.5 per cent. While revenue from the gasoline tax, the biggest of the manufacturers' excises, continues to decline, partially offset by the increase in the tax on lubricating oils, customs revenues increased 10 per cent above the 1941 level.

This is Important!

This picture shows the interior construction of the engine that drives your car - your truck - your tractor.

With ordinary gasoline no lubrication can reach the combustion chamber. That gives you hot dry metal, in the upper part of the piston, working against hot dry metal in the upper part of the cylinder wall. That develops friction. Friction consumes power—causes wear. Carbon deposits form on pistons, rings, valves, and in the combustion chamber. That reduces the area, causes burning and pitting of valves, loss of power, reduced mileage, and costly repair.

LUBRI-GAS

is a scientifically treated fuel. It corrects these mechanical deficiencies by lubricating the upper cylinder walls and piston rings. It eliminates the ruinous friction and wear, and the burning and pitting of valves. It removes carbon deposits and prevents their formation. It improves ignition. It gives you a smoother running engine, increased power, and

"Up to 25 percent EXTRA MILES PER GALLON"

Lubri-Gas will do this for any combustion engine using any kind of combustion fuel.

A RAILROAD? WHY, IT CAN'T BE DONE!

Some of Chicago's elite laughed at William B. Ogden when, in the late 1840s, he asked their support in building a railroad from Chicago to the West. They knew that the charter, granted in 1836, had been gathering dust for years. But Ogden, man of vision, was a determined soul, and by the end of 1848 the first ten miles of railroad were completed.

The Des Plaines river, near Maywood, Illinois, was the "end of the line," and on this 10-mile right-of-way chugged and swayed the first trains to operate west of Chicago. That same stretch is one of the busiest in the West today.

"North Western's" story has been one of steady progress during the past 97 years. Today, over its 10,000 miles of railway, has moved, and is moving, much of America's mighty war machine. Out of "North Western's" wealth of experience will come many new improvements and a finer trahsportation service—both freight and passenger—in America's postwar years.

Dear Sir:

I have just read in the Herald as inserted by the Teachers Union, that I left the Arlington Heights Township High School because of the fact I received little or no cooperation from the administration and Board of Education. I received the closest cooperation and effort from both. I left because of my inability to find living quarters for myself and family.

Very truly yours,

A large proportion of our people live in dread of that recurring season when hay fever is prevalent. They have reason to dread the pollen laden winds for they are chronic sufferers from hay fever.

The time to check with your doctor is now — well in advance of the time when you expect this malady to strike. Immunization is possible. This requires time for the doctor must check for allergies and discover what particular sensitivization is yours.

Medication must be the best obtainable and thus care should be exercised in the selection of a druggist to supply it.

Realtor group studies state slum clearance

The Northwest Suburban Board of Realtors met at Simon's Restaurant in Arlington Heights at 6:30 p. m. March 23rd for their regular monthly meeting and dinner.

President Harry A. Dooley turned the meeting over to Donald Florence of the firm of Willson & Florence, acting legislation chairman. He introduced Bernice Van der Vries, State Representative and Senator Arthur F. Bidwell, both of the 7th Illinois District, who spoke briefly on the how and why of legislative problems in Springfield affecting real estate.

Larry Holmes, executive-secretary of the Illinois Association of Real Estate Brokers, spoke on the following: (1) Real Estate License Law; (2) Price Control Law; (3) Rent Control Law; (4) Property Restriction and Zoning, including the Housing Authority bill for slum clearance. After discussing these problems Mr. Holmes conducted an interesting and instructive round table discussion about them.

The Realtors voted to send Mr. Florence to Springfield as their representative to attend the committee meetings of both the House and Senate.

Mr. Florence reports as follows:

The Realtors were opposed to Senate Bill No. 204 which proposes to set up Housing Authorities thru out the state with power to condemn slum property and acquire same through the right of eminent domain. The Realtors want slum clearance but feel that public housing that has proven to be costly in other sections of the country should be eliminated and that since the land is acquired by the State Housing Authority it should be sold to private builders and private builders should be given a chance to build these projects. The competitive spirit of our economic system has furnished about 98% of the homes of the past. Principal objection to the bill was the increase in taxes that will come about by taking large areas in Chicago off the tax rolls as the property is acquired by the Housing Authority.

The Realtors proposed a limit of two years on property so acquired so as to get it back on the tax rolls again. In short the Realtors don't think the government should go into the Real Estate business at the expense of the taxpayers.

Further legislation pending is to allow building and loans associations and insurance companies to acquire real estate equities up to 10% of their available funds. At the present time they are limited to mortgage loans.

The safety factor for example on an insurance loan is 33⅓%. The insurance company can loan 66⅔% of the appraised value.

The Realtors are opposed to insurance companies and building & loan associations who are acting in a fiduciary capacity with other people's money being allowed to speculate in real estate. True real estate from an individual owner's standpoint is a sound investment but there should be a margin of safety on investments using money that is entrusted for safe keeping.

The Realtors were in favor of legislation that relieves village officials from liability within their jurisdiction. If this legislation passes the eye-sores that dot our communities should be condemned and the tax paying owners of adjoining property will benefit by increased appraisals of property.

The Kelly-Green coalition in their anxiety to clean up the slums will no doubt pass the legislation without ammendment, however the organized Real Estate profession represented by the Real Estate Boards of Illinois are proud of their fight for conservative legislation.

Why taxes are higher

Many people are wondering this spring why their tax bills have taken such a jump.

Some seem to think they should protest their tax bills simply because they have gone up without looking carefully to see that their valuation is the same as last year.

The reason that taxes are higher this year is because the various taxing bodies needed more money to operate on than they have needed previously.

For instance, the county rate went up ten cents on each $100 of valuation.

This was caused by the larger budget passed by the county board in order to pay up a lot of debts accumulated back during the depression.

Likewise lots of school districts had to raise more money in order to hire extra teachers and to raise the salaries of those they did have if the schools weren't going to lose all their teachers to the high-salaried war plants.

As school officials point out, it costs more to run a school now than it did, the same as it costs more to eat, buy clothes and every other item of every day existence.

When it comes to protesting taxes simply because the rate has gone up, the proster has to prove that some part of the rate is illegal.

If a person desires to protest because of his valuation he should go to the county board of appeals.

The local collectors report many cases of people talking protest when they admit that the valuation set on their property is less than they paid for it or less than they would sell it for.

In such cases they are foolish to go before the board of appeals, and be forced to admit they paid more for the property than the assessor has it valued at and that they wouldn't take the assessor's figure for the property.

Such protests are a waste of time and when the protesters are shown the point they readily agree that they guess they have no protest coming.

Taxes are higher this year because the tax rates of some of the taxing bodies are higher.

If people want modern advantages of good schools and good municipal service, those things must be paid for the same as groceries and clothes.

In these days of high salaries and peak war production, everything is up and taxes are no exception to the general rule.

The great percentage of the tax money is raised by the local governments.

For instance, out of the Palatine combined rate in the village of $2.44 on each $100 of valuation, all of that is raised by the various home taxing bodies with the exception of 34 cents on each $100 valuation for the Cook county government and 4 cents for the county forest preserve district.

Out of Palatine's $2.44 rate, $2.06 goes entirely to the local taxing bodies and 38 cents goes to Cook county and the forest preserve district, so the great percentage of taxes is levied and used right at home.

The Corephelia Society met at the home of Mrs. Elmer Crane Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Mills have returned to Arlington Heights after spending several days at their Indiana farm.

Tax Increases

In the 75.4 per cent total increase between 1941 and 1944 of all taxes except individual income, corporation and excess profits taxes, liquor tax yields nearly doubled and tobacco tax revenues grew by 41.5 per cent. While revenue from the gasoline tax, the biggest of the manufacturers' excises, continues to decline, partially offset by the increase in the tax on lubricating oils, customs revenues increased 10 per cent above the 1941 level.

This is Important!

This picture shows the interior construction of the engine that drives your car - your truck - your tractor.

With ordinary gasoline no lubrication can reach the combustion chamber. That gives you hot dry metal, in the upper part of the piston, working against hot dry metal in the upper part of the cylinder wall. That develops friction. Friction consumes power—causes wear. Carbon deposits form on pistons, rings, valves, and in the combustion chamber. That reduces the area, causes burning and pitting of valves, loss of power, reduced mileage, and costly repair.

LUBRI-GAS

is a scientifically treated fuel. It corrects these mechanical deficiencies by lubricating the upper cylinder walls and piston rings. It eliminates the ruinous friction and wear, and the burning and pitting of valves. It removes carbon deposits and prevents their formation. It improves ignition. It gives you a smoother running engine, increased power, and

"Up to 25 percent EXTRA MILES PER GALLON"

Lubri-Gas will do this for any combustion engine using any kind of combustion fuel.

A RAILROAD? WHY, IT CAN'T BE DONE!

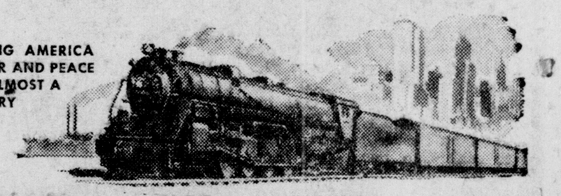

Some of Chicago's elite laughed at William B. Ogden when, in the late 1840s, he asked their support in building a railroad from Chicago to the West. They knew that the charter, granted in 1836, had been gathering dust for years. But Ogden, man of vision, was a determined soul, and by the end of 1848 the first ten miles of railroad were completed.

The Des Plaines river, near Maywood, Illinois, was the "end of the line," and on this 10-mile right-of-way chugged and swayed the first trains to operate west of Chicago. That same stretch is one of the busiest in the West today.

"North Western's" story has been one of steady progress during the past 97 years. Today, over its 10,000 miles of railway, has moved, and is moving, much of America's mighty war machine. Out of "North Western's" wealth of experience will come many new improvements and a finer transportation service—both freight and passenger—in America's postwar years.

Small ballot is important

Arlington Heights people by voting "yes" on the small ballot Tuesday, will be rewarding the present municipal employees for their faithful service of past years. A few of them may have been tempted to accept war jobs at high salaries. The fact they stayed on the jobs has meant a continuation of municipal service.

The new law providing a retirement fund for municipal employees after they reach a certain age gives these men a certain amount of future security which they do not now enjoy. They are entitled to it. A part of their salary will be deducted each pay day and the municipality will also pay a small amount into the state fund. The cost to the tax payer is negligible. It may mean a lot to the family of the public employee.

Mrs. Paul Gilson appointed Red Cross general chairman

Mrs. Paul Gibson of 1305 North Dunton ave., Arlington Heights, has been appointed Community General Chairman of the Arlington Heights Red Cross Committee for the balance of the calendar year 1945, Henry F. Tenney, Chairman of the Chicago Chapter has announced.

In her capacity as General Chairman of Arlington Heights Red Cross Committee, Mrs. Gilson will be the co-ordinator of all Red Cross activities in the town and the source of information and policy of the Chicago Chapter. Although Mrs. Gilson has only lived in Arlington Heights for the past two years she has made many friends among the group of Red Cross workers at the Field House where she works and also at the St. James Church, where she is an instructor in Surgical Dressings.

As Red Cross General Chairman Mrs. Gilson acts as the official contact between the Chapter administration and the local community. This type of Community Service is being carried out in nearly all of the 273 city and outlying communities in the Chicago Chapter area which covers Cook County, DuPage County and the Southern half of Lake County.

Norman Thomas at Libertyville

Norman Thomas, often a candidate for the Presidency of the United States, will speak before the Libertyville Sunday Evening club Tuesday, April 17, at the Libertyville Methodist church. Mr. Thomas is well-known in this country, and will speak of the coming peace. An interesting Forum will follow. The program starts at 8 p. m.

Church leadership trng. course opens April 16

20 suburban parishes at Arlington

Twenty Northwest Suburban Communities and their churches have been invited to participate in the Northwest Suburban Interdenominational Leadership Training School to be held at the Arlington Heights Methodist Meeting House, Arlington Heights. The school will be held on five consecutive Monday nights beginning April 16. The sessions begin at 7:30 p. m. and conclude at 9:30 p. m. The school is the outgrowth of the joint efforts of several churches of Barrington, Arlington Heights, Prospect Heights and Lake Zurich working cooperatively.

The planning committee spent a great deal of time securing the best leadership possible and drawing up a practical, down to earth curriculum. The brouchure advertising the school describes it as ". . . a grass roots school originating and growing out of the needs of Superintendents and Church School leaders who wanted life-centered courses to meet the everyday teaching situations of the average teacher."

The courses consist of a general hour, which is to be attended by all persons enrolled in the school, entitled "Religion in the Bible". This course will develop some of the basic religious ideas found in the bible such as "relationship between God and Man"; "Jesus as Saviour". The second hour will be devoted to departmental work. The courses offered are "teaching small children", "teaching juniors", "teaching youth" and a course on "supervision".

Leaders well known

The teachers or leaders are recognized nationally for their outstanding work in the field of religious instruction. Dr. Vartan Melconian, of the Presbyterian College of Christian Education of Chicago is a dynamic, forceful and scintillating speaker. He will lead the general hour. Mrs. A. M. Nelson of the First Congregational Church, Oak Park, will lead the course on "teaching small children."

Mrs. Nelson comes highly recommended as one who has had exceptional success in leadership of this age group. Miss Geraldine Gregg, director of Christian Education of the first Methodist church, Evanston, has had the rich experience of translating the religious ideals of her world into the language of the junior child.

Miss Louise Drew, director of Christian Education at the First Methodist church, Oak Park, has had a wealth of experience and directs the religious program of one of Methodism's largest churches. She will share the responsibility with Miss Gregg of teaching the juniors.

The International Council of Religious Education has loaned the school two of its staff to lead in the important field of "teaching youth". Dr. Isaac K. Beckes and Miss Helen F. Spaulding will be the leaders for this course.

Five men who are actively engaged as Church School superintendents will lead the course on supervision. There will be a different leader each Monday evening who will share his experiences. Dr. Melconian will be the first to guide the thinking of these administrative officers. Mr. Thomas West, prominent international lawyer and superintendent of the Wilmette Methodist church school will lead April 23; Dr. Willard Jackman, superintendent of the Public Schools of Elmhurst, will lead the officers the third Monday, April 30; Mr. Fred Duerr of the Christ Presbyterian church school of Chicago and a man who has had an outstanding school for 20 years will lead the fourth session, May 7, and Mr. Lou Schaeffer, a man of unusual selling ability and Christian leadership, will lead the fifth session May 14.

The school invites all workers with youth, whether in the church school or any other youth program such as scouting, Y-work or camp guidance.

The place is the Methodist Meeting House, N. Dunton at St. James st., Arlington Heights. Time 7:30 to 9:45 p. m. Mondays, April 16 through May 14.

Blame wiring short in loss of car and garage at Palatine

H. A. Hoover, residing in Greater Palatine, a mile west of the village, blames a short in the wiring of his Plymouth coach for the loss of the car, his garage, and valuable tools that were destroyed by fire Saturday afternoon. The Palatine Rural Fire Department saved the house, which was only 35 feet distant.

The blaze was discovered by Albert DePue, a neighbor, who notified the Hoovers. The fire had gained such headway that the use of hand fire extinguishers was not sufficient. Included in the loss is an outboard motor, considerable fishing tackle, electric drill, spraying outfit, screens, etc. Fortunately, Mr. Hoover's truck was not in the garage at that time.

To The Public

In answer to the questions of the public as to some of the causes of the unrest at the Arlington Heights Township High School, the following facts are submitted:

1. A feeling of insecurity exists among the faculty because of such statements as the following made by the principal:
   "The teachers be damned, I am a public relations man."
   "I do not feel responsible for the teachers I did not hire."
   "I came here to stay; some of you had better watch out for your jobs."
2. New ideas and changes that many people in the community infer the faculty has been unwilling to accept have never been presented to the teachers.
3. Three more teachers have received their dismissals effective June 7. This makes a total of seven who have been dismissed, 25% of the entire faculty.
4. Vague reasons have been given for dismissals; the qualifications and ability to teach of those involved are not questioned.
5. Because of these numerous dismissals the teachers are confronted with the question: Are all teachers who were here before this year to be dismissed?
6. There has been a lack of constructive supervision of the faculty and of the school.
7. Confidential statements made at the faculty-board meeting have been used in dismissing teachers.
8. Attempts have been made to thwart the teachers in making their position clear to he public.
9. Freedom of speech has been discouraged.
10. Teachers have been discharged for talking to patrons about their own school.

In view of these facts, which are only a few of the causes of unrest, the faculty feel a lack of security, a lack of leadership, and a lack of confidence. If so many of the teachers are incompetent, why would they have been employed or retained in the past; and why would all the state examiners and the township Evaluating Committee approve them?

We regret not only the manner in which the wholesale dismissal has been handled, but also the effect it will produce by changing and even destroying the personal relationships that have been built up between the students and faculty. Have the students been forgotten? In the face of threats against their positions, teachers have felt it necessary to assert their rights for the best interest of the school.

Small ballot is important

Arlington Heights people by voting "yes" on the small ballot Tuesday, will be rewarding the present municipal employees for their faithful service of past years. A few of them may have been tempted to accept war jobs at high salaries. The fact they stayed on the jobs has meant a continuation of municipal service.

The new law providing a retirement fund for municipal employees after they reach a certain age gives these men a certain amount of future security which they do not now enjoy. They are entitled to it. A part of their salary will be deducted each pay day and the municipality will also pay a small amount into the state fund. The cost to the tax payer is negligible. It may mean a lot to the family of the public employee.

Mrs. Paul Gilson appointed Red Cross general chairman

Mrs. Paul Gibson of 1305 North Dunton ave., Arlington Heights, has been appointed Community General Chairman of the Arlington Heights Red Cross Committee for the balance of the calendar year 1945, Henry F. Tenney, Chairman of the Chicago Chapter has announced.

In her capacity as General Chairman of Arlington Heights Red Cross Committee, Mrs. Gilson will be the co-ordinator of all Red Cross activities in the town and the source of information and policy of the Chicago Chapter. Although Mrs. Gilson has only lived in Arlington Heights for the past two years she has made many friends among the group of Red Cross workers at the Field House where she works and also at the St. James Church, where she is an instructor in Surgical Dressings.

As Red Cross General Chairman Mrs. Gilson acts as the official contact between the Chapter administration and the local community. This type of Community Service is being carried out in nearly all of the 273 city and outlying communities in the Chicago Chapter area which covers Cook County, DuPage County and the Southern half of Lake County.

Norman Thomas at Libertyville

Norman Thomas, often a candidate for the Presidency of the United States, will speak before the Libertyville Sunday Evening club Tuesday, April 17, at the Libertyville Methodist church. Mr. Thomas is well-known in this country, and will speak of the coming peace. An interesting Forum will follow. The program starts at 8 p. m.

Church leadership trng. course opens April 16

20 suburban parishes at Arlington

Twenty Northwest Suburban Communities and their churches have been invited to participate in the Northwest Suburban Interdenominational Leadership Training School to be held at the Arlington Heights Methodist Meeting House, Arlington Heights. The school will be held on five consecutive Monday nights beginning April 16. The sessions begin at 7:30 p. m. and conclude at 9:30 p. m. The school is the outgrowth of the joint efforts of several churches of Barrington, Arlington Heights, Prospect Heights and Lake Zurich working cooperatively.

The planning committee spent a great deal of time securing the best leadership possible and drawing up a practical, down to earth curriculum. The brouchure advertising the school describes it as ". . . a grass roots school originating and growing out of the needs of Superintendents and Church School leaders who wanted life-centered courses to meet the everyday teaching situations of the average teacher."

The courses consist of a general hour, which is to be attended by all persons enrolled in the school, entitled "Religion in the Bible". This course will develop some of the basic religious ideas found in the bible such as "relationship between God and Man"; "Jesus as Saviour". The second hour will be devoted to departmental work. The courses offered are "teaching small children", "teaching juniors", "teaching youth" and a course on "supervision".

Leaders well known

The teachers or leaders are recognized nationally for their outstanding work in the field of religious instruction. Dr. Vartan Melconian, of the Presbyterian College of Christian Education of Chicago is a dynamic, forceful and scintillating speaker. He will lead the general hour. Mrs. A. M. Nelson of the First Congregational Church, Oak Park, will lead the course on "teaching small children."

Mrs. Nelson comes highly recommended as one who has had exceptional success in leadership of this age group. Miss Geraldine Gregg, director of Christian Education of the first Methodist church, Evanston, has had the rich experience of translating the religious ideals of her world into the language of the junior child.

Miss Louise Drew, director of Christian Education at the First Methodist church, Oak Park, has had a wealth of experience and directs the religious program of one of Methodism's largest churches. She will share the responsibility with Miss Gregg of teaching the juniors.

The International Council of Religious Education has loaned the school two of its staff to lead in the important field of "teaching youth". Dr. Isaac K. Beckes and Miss Helen F. Spaulding will be the leaders for this course.

Five men who are actively engaged as Church School superintendents will lead the course on supervision. There will be a different leader each Monday evening who will share his experiences. Dr. Melconian will be the first to guide the thinking of these administrative officers. Mr. Thomas West, prominent international lawyer and superintendent of the Wilmette Methodist church school will lead April 23; Dr. Willard Jackman, superintendent of the Public Schools of Elmhurst, will lead the officers the third Monday, April 30; Mr. Fred Duerr of the Christ Presbyterian church school of Chicago and a man who has had an outstanding school for 20 years will lead the fourth session, May 7, and Mr. Lou Schaeffer, a man of unusual selling ability and Christian leadership, will lead the fifth session May 14.

The school invites all workers with youth, whether in the church school or any other youth program such as scouting, Y-work or camp guidance.

The place is the Methodist Meeting House, N. Dunton at St. James st., Arlington Heights. Time 7:30 to 9:45 p. m. Mondays, April 16 through May 14.

Blame wiring short in loss of car and garage at Palatine

H. A. Hoover, residing in Greater Palatine, a mile west of the village, blames a short in the wiring of his Plymouth coach for the loss of the car, his garage, and valuable tools that were destroyed by fire Saturday afternoon. The Palatine Rural Fire Department saved the house, which was only 35 feet distant.

The blaze was discovered by Albert DePue, a neighbor, who notified the Hoovers. The fire had gained such headway that the use of hand fire extinguishers was not sufficient. Included in the loss is an outboard motor, considerable fishing tackle, electric drill, spraying outfit, screens, etc. Fortunately, Mr. Hoover's truck was not in the garage at that time.

Dear Neighbor

It's coming close to time for the 7th War Loan Drive, and plans of procedure are rapidly nearing completion. I'll try to keep you informed through my weekly letters, of interesting bits of "who's who, what, where and why" pertaining to the drive. Captains and workers are being appointed, and I'll soon have detailed information for you.

In order to count toward Arlington Heights' quota bonds MUST BE PURCHASED IN ARLINGTON HEIGHTS. In other drives, bond purchases were credited to the residence town of the buyer but the place of sale was also given credit, which created some double counting—not a true sales figure, y'see. So plan to buy in Arlington Heights and meet our quota.

I'm told, too, that starting this week, all bonds purchased will count toward our 7th War Loan Quota.

Y'know there's something very fine coming out of this 7th War Loan Drive (besides bond purchases and the valuable "getting-acquainted-with- your - neighbor" contacts) and that's the Poster Project sponsored by our local Drive Committee. All 7th and 8th grade pupils of Arlington Heights public and church schools and the High School, have been asked to participate. Mrs. H. R. Collard, chairman of the Poster Committee, and her very able and competent assistants, Mrs. E. J. Bussing and Mrs. N. E. Schwartz, report art classes are busy on sketches and layouts, and "work is progressing satisfactorily." The plan is to have five posters selected from each school for use in advertising the drive around the village.

Quite a commendable project, seems to me. The young people are getting an opportunity to "do something" for the 7th War Loan Drive; the townspeople will be made aware of the talent their youngsters possess; and the War Loan Drive Committee will have original and unique advertising for the drive.

Let's all help to make this drive a success. Being Good Neighbors working together in a good community, we can do it! And remember—buy a bond today to bring home a Yank tomorrow.

Your Neighbor.

Many exhibit in picture contest

"Beauty in Ill.," the subject for the Annual State Picture Contest held by the Federation of Women's Clubs for the school children of the seventh and eighth grades, was certainly represented in many various ways in the pictures made by the public school children of Arlington Heights.

The pictures were exhibited at the April 4 meeting of the Woman's Club. The judges had a very difficult time determining which five of the pictures were outstanding.

The 5 pictures chosen were Paul Mueller, "Spring Is Here"; Elroy Wilke, "Golden Grain"; Taylor Lewis, "Screened Sunset"; Shirley Dodge, "Lake Michigan Fury"; and Gloria Cherwin, "Chicago at Night."

These children will receive as awards gifts from the Arlington Heights Woman's club.

Miss Marie Trelly of North school directed the work and she may well be proud of her art students. The pictures will be sent to the District Art Chairman to compete in the state contest. The state award for a winning picture is an original work of a well known Illinois artist which is to be hung in the school of the winning contestant.

Miss Jeanette Vetter entertained her pinochle club Tuesday evening.

Mrs. O. G. Bolte entertained members of her Chicago club last week, Wednesday.

Dear Neighbor

It's coming close to time for the 7th War Loan Drive, and plans of procedure are rapidly nearing completion. I'll try to keep you informed through my weekly letters, of interesting bits of "who's who, what, where and why" pertaining to the drive. Captains and workers are being appointed, and I'll soon have detailed information for you.

In order to count toward Arlington Heights' quota bonds MUST BE PURCHASED IN ARLINGTON HEIGHTS. In other drives, bond purchases were credited to the residence town of the buyer but the place of sale was also given credit, which created some double counting—not a true sales figure, y'see. So plan to buy in Arlington Heights and meet our quota.

I'm told, too, that starting this week, all bonds purchased will count toward our 7th War Loan Quota.

Y'know there's something very fine coming out of this 7th War Loan Drive (besides bond purchases and the valuable "getting-acquainted-with- your - neighbor" contacts) and that's the Poster Project sponsored by our local Drive Committee. All 7th and 8th grade pupils of Arlington Heights public and church schools and the High School, have been asked to participate. Mrs. H. R. Collard, chairman of the Poster Committee, and her very able and competent assistants, Mrs. E. J. Bussing and Mrs. N. E. Schwartz, report art classes are busy on sketches and layouts, and "work is progressing satisfactorily." The plan is to have five posters selected from each school for use in advertising the drive around the village.

Quite a commendable project, seems to me. The young people are getting an opportunity to "do something" for the 7th War Loan Drive; the townspeople will be made aware of the talent their youngsters possess; and the War Loan Drive Committee will have original and unique advertising for the drive.

Let's all help to make this drive a success. Being Good Neighbors working together in a good community, we can do it! And remember—buy a bond today to bring home a Yank tomorrow.

Your Neighbor.

25th anniversary for Martin Hasz

A surprise party in honor of the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Martin H. Hasz was given in St. Pauls Lutheran school, Mt. Prospect, on Wednesday evening, April 4. A large number of the congregation of the church was present, a few relatives were there from out-of-town, and Mr. and Mrs. Hasz's son and daughter, Martin and Norma, came from their school in River Forest.

The couple received many lovely gifts and Mrs. Hasz was presented with a gardenia corsage. Later in the evening a delicious supper of sandwiches, cake and coffee was served. The tables were appropriately decorated for the occasion.

Observe 49th wedding anniversary of couple

The forty-ninth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, 916 S. Dunton st., Arlington Heights, who took their marriage vows April 8, 1896, in the St. Columbia parish in Ottawa, Ill., was celebrated Sunday.

Many exhibit in picture contest

"Beauty in Ill.," the subject for the Annual State Picture Contest held by the Federation of Women's Clubs for the school children of the seventh and eighth grades, was certainly represented in many various ways in the pictures made by the public school children of Arlington Heights.

The pictures were exhibited at the April 4 meeting of the Woman's Club. The judges had a very difficult time determining which five of the pictures were outstanding.

The 5 pictures chosen were Paul Mueller, "Spring Is Here"; Elroy Wilke, "Golden Grain"; Taylor Lewis, "Screened Sunset"; Shirley Dodge, "Lake Michigan Fury"; and Gloria Cherwin, "Chicago at Night."

These children will receive as awards gifts from the Arlington Heights Woman's club.

Miss Marie Trelly of North school directed the work and she may well be proud of her art students. The pictures will be sent to the District Art Chairman to compete in the state contest. The state award for a winning picture is an original work of a well known Illinois artist which is to be hung in the school of the winning contestant.

Miss Jeanette Vettel entertained her pinochle club Tuesday evening.

Mrs. O. G. Bolte entertained members of her Chicago club last week, Wednesday.

Margaret Hasemann, Arthur Schoepke wed

Miss Margaret Hasemann, daughter of Mrs. R. Hasemann, Arlington Heights, became the bride of Arthur Schoepke, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schoepke of Arlington Heights on Saturday, April 7 at 7:30 p. m. The ceremony took place in the Arlington Heights St. Peter Lutheran church, the Rev. L. V. Stephan officiating.

The bride looked lovely in a black and light blue dress with a corsage of carnations and roses. Mrs. George Hauff, maid of honor, wore an American Beauty suit dress and had a corsage of carnations and roses. The groom was attended by Wilbert Schwantz.

A reception was held Sunday for the immediate families at the newlyweds' home in the upper flat at 403 N. Vail avenue, Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Minnie Jahns and Mrs. Ed Foley entertained several relatives and friends Friday evening in the home of Mrs. Jahns in honor of her birthday.

Win scholarships to Luther institute

Three pupils, Joan Schroeder, Orville Schaeffer and Margaret Roindentiz, of the Arlington Heights St. Peter Lutheran church, were awarded $50 scholarships in the Luther Institute in Chicago on March 6, when they competed in a comprehensive examination for scholarships. Two pupils, Dolores Windheim and Lois Kroeber, received honorable mention.

Three hundred and one children from sixty Lutheran schools competed. Fifteen scholarships were offered at $50 a piece. The Arlington Heights school won more scholarships than any other school competing.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Rinker were hosts to their bridge club Saturday evening.

NW choral group in final session

Final meeting of the season was held Monday night by the Northwest Suburban Choral society. Solos were sung by Barbara McWharter, soprano, and Charles Heiss, tenor. In Miss McWharter's group were two arias from a cantata composed by Theodore Militzer, director of the society.

After the closing business session and a program singing by the group, members went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Gathman for refreshments. Impromptu singing aided and abetted by Humphrey Ashton at the piano followed.

The group laid plans to reconvene in October for the fall season and the annual presentation of the Messiah. New members will be sought and anyone desiring to be notified of next fall's first meeting is invited to give his name and phone number to the president, Rowland Laughlin, Arlington Heights 1862-J.

Rev. and Mrs. McCoy said "goodbye" to their friends in Arlington Heights at a public reception Friday evening held in their honor at the Presbyterian church. The family left Tuesday morning for Cherokee, Iowa, Rev. McCoy's future pastorate.

Following a social evening during which their friends personally expressed their regrets over the departure of the McCoys. 'Farmer takes a wife'

Ernest A. Hahn, a bachelor, who has operated a farm on route 53, a mile north of Palatine the past 22 years, became a benedict Saturday when he married Miss Ellienore Fremter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Fremter, of Prairie View.

The ceremony was held at seven o'clock at St. Matthews Evangelical Lutheran church, Barrington, Rev. A. T. Kretzmann officiating. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride.

Ernest is a happy bridegroom. He wanted to do his part to help feed the boys in the army. He could not work in the field and in the house at the same time, so a helpmate was needed.

Miss Fremter, who has lived on a farm all of her life, agreed with him that there could be no better wife than a farm girl. Their 70 acre farm is going to produce a lot of food this year for the boys overseas, all because a bachelor farmer took a wife.

Mrs. E. Lackner 80 years old

Mrs. E. Lackner, 303 N. Vail st., Arlington Heights, celebrated her eightieth birthday Saturday evening with a family dinner party at her home. A gift from her grandchildren was a large birthday cake baked for the occasion.

Mrs. C. W. Peters, Mrs. George Peterson and Mrs. J. B. Crofoot were guests Friday at the home of Mrs. J. Z. McDougall.

Just Around the Corner

Dear Elly:

Indeed I agree with you that there is nothing more gratifying than a letter from an understanding friend; especially is this so if it is received at a time when we are in need of encouragement.

In the preface of our copy of A Treasury of the World's Great Letters, there are quotations in praise of letters, a few of which I'm enclosing as those I particularly like.

"The post is the consolation of life," said Voltaire. "As long as there are postmen, life will have zest"—William James. "In a man's letters, you know, madam, his soul lies naked."—Dr. Johnson. "Letters, such as written by wise men, are, of all the words of men, in my judgment, the best".—Francis Bacon. "What cannot letters inspire? They have souls; they can speak; they have in them all the force which expresses the transports of the heart; they have all the tenderness and the delicacy of speech, and sometimes even a boldness of expression beyond it." From the letters of Heloise and Abelard.

Your description of what spring does to your spirit is delightful and provocative. I used to like lying close to the moist earth to look up through the trees at the elusive clouds, but a pesky, creaking old back these days has forced me into a hammock hung between two trees. A view from that spot this week (I indulged in a lazy half hour) presents a cherry tree about to burst into bloom; peony shoots up four or five inches; oriental poppy's displaying their green spear-like leaves, and lilies-of-the-valley well on their way to moving in and crowding some phlox I transplanted last fall. But, who couldn't forgive those fragrant white bells their intrusion?

While I swung slowly to and fro under the trees, I wondered if perhaps a little family of wrens might come to the bark-covered house that has remained un-occupied so long at the top of the cherry tree? There's a great house shortage I hear—who can tell? I love the industrious wren and her cheery song. Elly, don't you suppose it would be very difficult to be an atheist in the spring?

Wouldn't it be a good thing if other large cities (and small ones, for that matter) were to do as Chicago is planning, and close their tavern doors on V-day? Maybe people would then remember that church doors are always open.

George, our ten year old, has a new and valued friend. He is the village blacksmith. I don't suppose there are many towns left that can boast of a real-honest-to-goodness blacksmith. "A mighty man is he", quotes George, who was required to read Longfellow's poem in school. "He can FIX ANYTHING, Mom", says George of the blacksmith. The nice part about this new attachment is that Mr. Troyke has allowed him to come to the shop and, according to George, "help him". Think of the wonderful experience this can be for a boy! He is learning to handle some of the tools; use the polishers and sandpaper. "I cleaned a bell yesterday, and straightened a file", he told me, his eyes sparkling. Now, George is insisting that I call on them an afternoon after school. "Maybe, he'll be shoeing a horse, Mom. You'd like to see that, wouldn't you?" (It looks like I have an interesting date ahead, Elly. I'll write you about it.)

We attended a performance of Hansel and Gretel last evening given by the first four grades of our school. It meant a herculean task for the two teachers for our facilities are limited. Nevertheless, it went off very well; at least the enthusiastic parents will say so. The children who took the parts of Hansel and Gretel never forgot a line, and it meant singing as well as speaking for this was OPERA, I'll have you know! Fourteen first and second graders were angels who sang sweetly and looked angelic enough to hug and squeeze (our Edward among them). I told Rob that even if Edward is a little D— a good portion of the time, he certainly looked HIS part last night.

Now I must stop, for I've got to take the bundle of clothing I collected from the boys' clothes closets over to our favorite barber. His shop is one of the depots in town where we may bring our contributions for the war relief. I was surprised to see the amount I was able to gather together. Edward has outgrown so many of George's hand-me-downs, and Rob has several suits that are too frayed to wear to the office, still they have some use in them. I wish I could spare a blanket or two for I read that they are especially needed. I suppose you people in Arlington are busy collecting, too. It is, indeed, a worthy cause which deserves our wholehearted cooperation.

I'm looking forward to seeing you soon. Wish I could have attended the Wheaton Antique Show. Did you have fun?

Love, Mary.

Miss Margaret Hasemann, daughter of Mrs. R. Hasemann, Arlington Heights, became the bride of Arthur Schoepke, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schoepke of Arlington Heights on Saturday, April 7 at 7:30 p. m. The ceremony took place in the Arlington Heights St. Peter Lutheran church, the Rev. L. V. Stephan officiating.

The bride looked lovely in a black and light blue dress with a corsage of carnations and roses. Mrs. George Hauff, maid of honor, wore an American Beauty suit dress and had a corsage of carnations and roses. The groom was attended by Wilbert Schwantz.

A reception was held Sunday for the immediate families at the newlyweds' home in the upper flat at 403 N. Vail avenue, Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Minnie Jahns and Mrs. Ed Foley entertained several relatives and friends Friday evening in the home of Mrs. Jahns in honor of her birthday.

Win scholarships to Luther institute

Three pupils, Joan Schroeder, Orville Schaeffer and Margaret Roindentiz, of the Arlington Heights St. Peter Lutheran church, were awarded $50 scholarships in the Luther Institute in Chicago on March 6, when they competed in a comprehensive examination for scholarships. Two pupils, Dolores Windheim and Lois Kroeber, received honorable mention.

Three hundred and one children from sixty Lutheran schools competed. Fifteen scholarships were offered at $50 a piece. The Arlington Heights school won more scholarships than any other school competing.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Rinker were hosts to their bridge club Saturday evening.

NW choral group in final session

Final meeting of the season was held Monday night by the Northwest Suburban Choral society. Solos were sung by Barbara McWharter, soprano, and Charles Heiss, tenor. In Miss McWharter's group were two arias from a cantata composed by Theodore Militzer, director of the society.

After the closing business session and a program singing by the group, members went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Gathman for refreshments. Impromptu singing aided and abetted by Humphrey Ashton at the piano followed.

The group laid plans to reconvene in October for the fall season and the annual presentation of the Messiah. New members will be sought and anyone desiring to be notified of next fall's first meeting is invited to give his name and phone number to the president, Rowland Laughlin, Arlington Heights 1862-J.

McCoy family given farewell reception

Rev. and Mrs. McCoy said "goodbye" to their friends in Arlington Heights at a public reception Friday evening held in their honor at the Presbyterian church. The family left Tuesday morning for Cherokee, Iowa, Rev. McCoy's future pastorate.

Following a social evening during which their friends personally expressed their regrets over the departure of the McCoys. Harvey Barber, Prospect Hts., clerk of the session, as master of ceremonies, introduced Dr. Paul Johnson, executive-secretary of the Chicago Presbytery who praised the work of Rev. McCoy in Arlington and wished him Godspeed in his new charge in Iowa.

C. I. Davis spoke in behalf of the trustees and congregation, and N. Lattof, as chairman of the board of trustees, presented a personal communion set and a $100 war bond.

'Farmer takes a wife'

Ernest A. Hahn, a bachelor, who has operated a farm on route 53, a mile north of Palatine the past 22 years, became a benedict Saturday when he married Miss Ellienore Fremter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Fremter, of Prairie View.

The ceremony was held at seven o'clock at St. Matthews Evangelical Lutheran church, Barrington, Rev. A. T. Kretzmann officiating. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride.

Ernest is a happy bridegroom. He wanted to do his part to help feed the boys in the army. He could not work in the field and in the house at the same time, so a helpmate was needed.

Miss Fremter, who has lived on a farm all of her life, agreed with him that there could be no better wife than a farm girl. Their 70 acre farm is going to produce a lot of food this year for the boys overseas, all because a bachelor farmer took a wife.

Mrs. E. Lackner 80 years old

Mrs. E. Lackner, 303 N. Vail st., Arlington Heights, celebrated her eightieth birthday Saturday evening with a family dinner party at her home. A gift from her grandchildren was a large birthday cake baked for the occasion.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Lackner was a guest of honor at a surprise party given by the Ladies Aid of the Lutheran church at their regular meeting. She was presented with a beautiful corsage and a birthday cake.

A pre-birthday celebration was held at her home Friday afternoon. Twenty friends were present to wish her many more happy birthdays.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon "Ozzy" Nelson, formerly of Arlington Heights, will be interested to know they are the proud parents of a baby boy born last week. The Nelsons are residing south of Palatine.

Mrs. C. W. Peters, Mrs. George Peterson and Mrs. J. B. Crofoot were guests Friday at the home of Mrs. J. Z. McDougall.

Just Around the Corner

Dear Elly:

Indeed I agree with you that there is nothing more gratifying than a letter from an understanding friend; especially is this so if it is received at a time when we are in need of encouragement.

In the preface of our copy of A Treasury of the World's Great Letters, there are quotations in praise of letters, a few of which I'm enclosing as those I particularly like. "The post is the consolation of life," said Voltaire. "As long as there are postmen, life will have zest"—William James. "In a man's letters, you know, madam, his soul lies naked."—Dr. Johnson. "Letters, such as written by wise men, are, of all the words of men, in my judgment, the best".—Francis Bacon. "What cannot letters inspire? They have souls; they can speak; they have in them all the force which expresses the transports of the heart; they have all the tenderness and the delicacy of speech, and sometimes even a boldness of expression beyond it." From the letters of Heloise and Abelard.

Your description of what spring does to your spirit is delightful and provocative. I used to like lying close to the moist earth to look up through the trees at the elusive clouds, but a pesky, creaking old back these days has forced me into a hammock hung between two trees. A view from that spot this week (I indulged in a lazy half hour) presents a cherry tree about to burst into bloom; peony shoots up four or five inches; oriental poppy's displaying their green spear-like leaves, and lilies-of-the-valley well on their way to moving in and crowding some phlox I transplanted last fall. But, who couldn't forgive those fragrant white bells their intrusion?

While I swung slowly to and fro under the trees, I wondered if perhaps a little family of wrens might come to the bark-covered house that has remained un-occupied so long at the top of the cherry tree? There's a great house shortage I hear—who can tell? I love the industrious wren and her cheery song. Elly, don't you suppose it would be very difficult to be an atheist in the spring?

Wouldn't it be a good thing if other large cities (and small ones, for that matter) were to do as Chicago is planning, and close their tavern doors on V-day? Maybe people would then remember that church doors are always open.

George, our ten year old, has a new and valued friend. He is the village blacksmith. I don't suppose there are many towns left that can boast of a real-honest-to-goodness blacksmith. "A mighty man is he", quotes George, who was required to read Longfellow's poem in school. "He can FIX ANYTHING, Mom", says George of the blacksmith. The nice part about this new attachment is that Mr. Troyke has allowed him to come to the shop and, according to George, "help him". Think of the wonderful experience this can be for a boy! He is learning to handle some of the tools; use the polishers and sandpaper. "I cleaned a bell yesterday, and straightened a file", he told me, his eyes sparkling. Now, George is insisting that I call on them an afternoon after school. "Maybe, he'll be shoeing a horse, Mom. You'd like to see that, wouldn't you?" (It looks like I have an interesting date ahead, Elly. I'll write you about it.)

We attended a performance of Hansel and Gretel last evening given by the first four grades of our school. It meant a herculean task for the two teachers for our facilities are limited. Nevertheless, it went off very well; at least the enthusiastic parents will say so. The children who took the parts of Hansel and Gretel never forgot a line, and it meant singing as well as speaking for this was OPERA, I'll have you know! Fourteen first and second graders were angels who sang sweetly and looked angelic enough to hug and squeeze (our Edward among them). I told Rob that even if Edward is a little D— a good portion of the time, he certainly looked HIS part last night.

Now I must stop, for I've got to take the bundle of clothing I collected from the boys' clothes closets over to our favorite barber. His shop is one of the depots in town where we may bring our contributions for the war relief. I was surprised to see the amount I was able to gather together. Edward has outgrown so many of George's hand-me-downs, and Rob has several suits that are too frayed to wear to the office, still they have some use in them. I wish I could spare a blanket or two for I read that they are especially needed. I suppose you people in Arlington are busy collecting, too.

It is, indeed, a worthy cause which deserves our wholehearted cooperation.

I'm looking forward to seeing you soon. Wish I could have attended the Wheaton Antique Show. Did you have fun?

Love, Mary.

Offer extra gasoline for victory gardeners

"Victory" gardeners may get extra gasoline again this year for necessary travel to reach and cultivate their plots of ground, the Illinois Automobile Club reports. The Office of Price Administration has announced that local War Price and Rationing Boards will accept applications for extra gasoline filed on O. P. A. Form R-552.

Conditions to which the gardener must conform are virtually the same as those of last year, with one exception—the garden must not be more than 15 miles from the gardener's home or place of work. O. P. A. experience has shown that if the distance is more than 15 miles the gardener cannot normally attend his garden twice a week and the Department of Agriculture says that proper care requires at least two visits a week.

"Victory" gardens last year produced an estimated 8,000,000 tons of food and are officially recognized as important in the war effort. Regulations under which this extra gasoline may be obtained are:

1. Applicant must have an area of not less than 1500 square feet devoted to the production of vegetables.
2. The mileage requested must be needed to provide transportation and necessary labor for cultivation.
3. The mileage from applicant's home or place of business to his garden must not be more than 15 miles.
4. The ration issued may not provide mileage in excess of 300 miles during the 6 month period immediately following date of application.
5. Applicant must show that there is no alternative transportation available.
6. Applicant must show a share-a-ride arrangement or that such an arrangement is impossible; signatures and addresses of the ride-sharers, if any, must appear on the application.
7. If two or more automobiles are used in a share-a-ride arrangement, applications for a special gasoline ration for each car in the arrangement must be presented to the Ration Board at the same time and the total ration for all vehicles in the group may not exceed 300 miles.

Bataan nurse

Tells experiences in Jap prison camp

Starvation kills many at Santo Thomas jail

Lt. Minnie Breese comes home after 3 years as 'guest' of Nips

"Compared to the treatment given American doughboys in Manila prisons," stated Lt. Minnie Breese of Arlington Heights, "we led a pretty lucky life those 32 months in Jap prison camps." Lt. Breese was captured on Corregidor in the dark and early days of the war in the Pacific and was just recently released when American doughboys took Santo Thomas prison camp in Manila.

"Those were mighty dark days after Corregidor fell, but morale of all Americans was surprisingly high. We all kept laughing at everything, especially the Jap propaganda. Our fleet was 'sunk' four times, and Chicago was taken once. We laughed in the sentries faces when they told us these things. They couldn't quite understand the American sense of humor.

Get some news

"We did, however, get some reliable news reports from Filipinos who were always friendly to us. Often Filipino guerrillas would pass in their newspapers, typewritten sheets, giving us authentic news of the outside world. It wasn't unusual to get our daily rice ration and find the folded newspaper underneath. The first two years, however, we were allowed to read the Jap Manila paper, highly propagandized and printed in English.

"I entered the army as a nurse in 1937. I immediately applied for service in the Philippines, but it was not granted until 1940, when I was sent to Manila. There were just three overseas Army nurse stations at that time, Hawaii, Alaska and the Philippines.

Likes to travel

"I wanted to travel, knew the Filipinos would be granted their freedom in '46, and thought I better be stationed there while the post was still present. At the time war broke out in the Pacific my two years of duty were just about up, and I was slated for a trip back to the States.

"I had gone up to Bataan with a Spanish family, and was transferred to Corregidor with 66 other nurses when the Nips came too close for comfort. Everyone knows the valiant defense put up on 'the Rock', but you can't do everything with nothing, and surrender was made May 6, 1942.

On to prison

"We stayed on Corregidor two months after the surrender, and were then transferred to Santo Thomas, a former university. The grounds were marked by a high wall, a very suitable prison. There were about 4,000 of us stationed there, including the nurses and British and American civilians.

"As I stated before, our plight was never as rough as that given the soldiers in their camp at Cabantuan. They were beaten, slugged and kicked until many of them died. Their diet was even stricter than ours. I presume reason for the separation was so that more vengeance could be taken out on them.

"Everything in our life in the prison could be divided into two divisions, first two years, and remaining months. One of the first things we were told was that a victorious army is always generous. And the first two years were o. k., except for no freedom. Last half year was a different story.

Not much room

"We were all housed within the university, covering just a few acres. There was somewhat of a yard outside, providing a small opportunity for us to get some air. We could sit out under the trees, until most of them were cut down for fuel.

"We did our own cooking and washing. We had to build our own fires, including finding our own kindling. Thus the trees came down in time. We even used some of our furniture to keep the fires going.

"Everyone had their own bed, but that was about all. Our living space was set at 36 inches, meaning the length of our bed and 36" wide. The bed took 30, leaving about 6 for yourself. Most of us sat out in the halls in our free time (plenty of that).

Work helps

"My work kept on, treating and taking care of civilians. We worked about 4 hours a day. I was glad to work for it made the three years go just that much faster. Practically all of our cases were starvation.

"Our diet consisted mostly of rice. We grew our own vegetables which altered the taste of the rice. The first two years we had some variety, including meat once or twice a week. But in recent months all we were given was rice and more rice. Even our original ration was cut. It was, in fact, a starvation diet.

"We surmised there were two reasons for this cut—action of our own forces and just meanness on the part of the Nips. We knew at times that neutral citizens, Swedes and Swiss, left food for us at the gates, but the sentries would not allow us to have it.

WE EAT 'GRASS'

"In recent months we had three meals a day. Breakfast consisted of rice. (Our quota was 6 oz. a day). Lunch was soup made of water and yesterday's peelings. We always saved all peelings, washing and cooking them in water to make a 'delicious' soup. Supper consisted of rice, plus a few vegetables that we had been able to grow. Most of the vegetables tasted like grass.

"We had community gardens which supplied a minimum amount of vegetables. Then groups of us would develop private gardens, taking turns working it. Five of us nurses had one garden that provided occasional delicacies, such as Filipino grass.

"At one meal one girl wanted a special salad and made it of this grass-like vegetable, plus a combination of banana oil and 3-in-1 oil. As she said, 'it doesn't hurt machinery, so shouldn't hurt us'.

Fry in cold cream

"Another time we were tired of the taste of rice. We thought maybe we could fry the stuff and make it a little more appetizing. Big trouble was we had neither the points to get lard, nor the lard if we had the points. But a recent Red Cross shipment of cold cream had come our way. We always figured it would be handier for food than make-up, so had saved it for just this occasion. We fried the rice in cold cream. It was good. Try it some time.

"Those first two years we had some fish and beans in addition to the occasional meat. But in the last 6 months all three of these were not to be had.

Bet on liberation

"Recreation was lacking. Besides, no one ever had the energy for any sort of exercise. But one diversion we did have was betting on when we would be liberated. Everyone bet money payable after they got out. Some of us will be paying the rest of our lives just squaring these debts. We also had a good many 'pools' where winners won but never collected.

"I was one of the lucky ones as far as general health is concerned. I had had a trunk full of clothes back in Manila and managed to have them smuggled into Santo Thomas. The clothes were all civilian clothes. I sold them for money with which to buy extra food from the Filipino vendors who were allowed to come into our barricade every day the first year of imprisonment.

"I saved these cans of food until I was plenty hungry. They managed to keep up my weight enough so that I lost just 15 pounds. The first two years I was able to run up the stairs. But in recent months I, too, started dropping and had to rest after climbing one flight of stairs.

Men die first

"Most of the persons who died were men, as were most of the prisoners. There were some women and children, but even so, the men succumbed to starvation at a much faster rate than did the others.

"Everyone was given the same ration, though the men did all the hard work about the enclosure, using more energy. Then, too, many men gave their food to the children, hastening their own death. There were many cases where men had sacrificed their own lives that their children might live.

"It was hard for a child to understand why he was hungry, thus he continually asked his parents for food. The rest of us, though ALWAYS hungry, including a gnawing stomach, didn't speak about it much.

"A few of the sentries were friendly to us. One in particular who was with us on Corregidor stopped in to see us in Manila. He talked perfect English. We soon found out he had been a business man in San Francisco 15 years. He was recalled to Japan just two months before Pearl Harbor. And his business? Scrap iron.

Bowed to all Japs

"We were never allowed to forget that we were prisoners. One of our duties was to bow from the waist to every Jap, civilian and soldier. It took some of us quite a while to get it correctly, but a few slaps on the face brought you around quickly. The Nips always had bayonets drawn, and you never knew what they might do if you didn't bow low.

"The camp was set up just like a city. We had chosen a mayor and several committees, for food, sanitation, etc. The members of these committees would make all decisions for their work and the rest of us abided by them. In addition, it provided some work for almost everyone that could work, and made the time pass more quickly.

"Death rate was not too high the first two years, but increased tremendously in the last six months. At first only the aged died of starvation, those over 60. As time went on, however, a few younger ones died. Then, about 3 or 4 months after the ration was cut, and meat and fish were eliminated from our diet, the death rate jumped by leaps and bounds. In January many of those dying were in the 30 to 40 year group, striking right at home as far as we nurses were concerned. It was a lucky thing we were rescued when we were or a good many more would have succumbed.

See first U. S. planes

"In spite of the length of time it took, we always knew that we would be liberated some day. Outside news slipped in kept up our morale. But one of the most beautiful sights occurred September 12, 1944. We saw American planes pass overhead. We knew then that Uncle Sam was getting near.

"Our punishment for seeing the planes was to not be allowed to look up at the sky. If any were ever caught looking for U. S. planes they would be tied to a post with head up for five hours, giving them a bad case of sunburn. You would also be unable to see for a time. Later when Philippine landings were made our planes came over almost every day. We were continually subject to air raids. We were then kept inside the buildings.

"I think everyone has read about the thrill of being rescued at Santo Thomas. The G. I's were as glad to see us as we were to see them. They all offered us food, and we didn't refuse a one. When being flown back to the States, one pilot remarked, 'if that isn't the eatin'est crowd I ever saw!' I carried something to eat with me all the time on the trip, and still do.

Gets 100 letters

"I was lucky in mail call, by virtue of receiving 100 letters from my mother. She wrote about twice a week during the entire time, but only about 100 got there. They were always just one year old. I was allowed to write letters just twice the first two years, one of which arrived home 15 months late. We were later allowed to send home one card a month, but only one of these was ever received. This card took 8 months.

"Of the 67 nurses, none died. Only two were wounded, and these by bombing in Manila before their capture. The hospital in which they were working had been bombed three times by the Japs. About 15 will require hospitalization for some time, though only one will probably suffer many years. Malaria, much of it recurrent, is the main cause. We all had malaria, but mine was not recurrent.

"Many persons have asked me just what my future plans are. I've become an old war horse, and intend to remain in the army even after the war. After my 90 days at home, plus two weeks rest at Asheville, North Carolina, I will pick my own station. I plan to ask for some hospital in the Midwest, where I can remain close to home. I know I don't ever want to go to the Philippines again, though I may want to travel some more later."

Likes Arlington

"When we were liberated I contacted a Chicago newspaperman, knowing someone would see the story and notify my mother. A St. Louis reporter looked me up, said he had been given my name by my mother. He insisted on adopting me as a St. Louisian, but I insisted I called Arlington my home."

Lt. Breese was long a resident of Arlington Heights. She moved to town when just 3 years old. The family left this locality in 1929. Mrs. Breese still lives in Richmond Heights, Missouri, just outside of St. Louis. At present they are spending a few days at the Fred Gieseke home, 416 S. State rd., Arlington Heights.

Lt. Breese received her nurse's training at St. Francis hospital, Elgin, where she was graduated in '37. She was then sent to Fort Riley, Kansas, for three years before going overseas. "That was a god-forsaken hole—worse than the Philippines," commented Lt. Breese.

The Nurse of Bataan

You have read about the heroes of Bataan;
And you're given them recognition, which was right:
But they drink their toast to one the Jap army couldn't run
Though she didn't have a gun with which to fight . . .
You could see her on the ward most every night . . .
Though the shells and bombs were bursting she was game,
With her quinine and her pills she administered the ills
Of friend and foe and took them as they came. . .

And every Army man loved the nurse of old Bataan,
And they kidded her when things were looking blue;
With their grim, unshaven faces,
They were not a handsome lot.
But their smiles were always gracious
As she bent above their cot,
In that history-making siege of '42.

Time will seal the fate of bad and bold Japan:
Time will even heal the wounds of old Bataan;
But sometimes in the night
A vision in soiled white
Disturbs the dream of many an army man.
And he wonders what the nurse is doing now;
And he offers silently to whatever gods there be,
A prayer for her; and makes a solemn vow
That the package that was handed
To defenders of Bataan;
Will be returned with interest,
To barbarians in Japan.

Oh, sometime there'll come a day
When war clouds have rolled away,
And our heroes, battle-scarred, come home to stay;
Some tall stories they will bring
Of the isles once called Japan,
But they'll never cease to sing
Praises of far-off Bataan
And the little nurse who wouldn't run away.

"Yes, Fred, when the record is finally written we'll realize what a gigantic operation this war really was and how important to final victory many factors really were."

"Take, for example, just one industry. Few people realize the importance of the great work done by the beverage distillers during the war. A high government official called it 'an almost unparalleled example of the overnight conversion of an entire industry from peace to war.' He also said not so many months ago, while speaking about synthetic rubber, 'It is fair to regard the rubber manufactured to date as being almost solely the product of the beverage distilling industry.' That's the type of thing I have in mind ... the way great American industries at home cooperated to help our brave fighting men abroad."

Lt. Minnie Breese comes home after 3 years as 'guest' of Nips

"Compared to the treatment given American doughboys in Manila prisons," stated Lt. Minnie Breese of Arlington Heights, "we led a pretty lucky life those 32 months in Jap prison camps." Lt. Breese was captured on Corregidor in the dark and early days of the war in the Pacific and was just recently released when American doughboys took Santo Thomas prison camp in Manila.

"Those were mighty dark days after Corregidor fell, but morale of all Americans was surprisingly high. We all kept laughing at everything, especially the Jap propaganda. Our fleet was 'sunk' four times, and Chicago was taken once. We laughed in the sentries faces when they told us these things. They couldn't quite understand the American sense of humor.

Get some news

"We did, however, get some reliable news reports from Filipinos who were always friendly to us. Often Filipino guerrillas would pass in their newspapers, typewritten sheets, giving us authentic news of the outside world. It wasn't unusual to get our daily rice ration and find the folded newspaper underneath. The first two years, however, we were allowed to read the Jap Manila paper, highly propagandized and printed in English.

"I entered the army as a nurse in 1937. I immediately applied for service in the Philippines, but it was not granted until 1940, when I was sent to Manila. There were just three overseas Army nurse stations at that time, Hawaii, Alaska and the Philippines.

Likes to travel

"I wanted to travel, knew the Filipinos would be granted their freedom in '46, and thought I better be stationed there while the post was still present. At the time war broke out in the Pacific my two years of duty were just about up, and I was slated for a trip back to the States.

"I had gone up to Bataan with a Spanish family, and was transferred to Corregidor with 66 other nurses when the Nips came too close for comfort. Everyone knows the valiant defense put up on 'the Rock', but you can't do everything with nothing, and surrender was made May 6, 1942.

On to prison

"We stayed on Corregidor two months after the surrender, and were then transferred to Santo Thomas, a former university. The grounds were marked by a high wall, a very suitable prison. There were about 4,000 of us stationed there, including the nurses and British and American civilians.

"As I stated before, our plight was never as rough as that given the soldiers in their camp at Cabantuan. They were beaten, slugged and kicked until many of them died. Their diet was even stricter than ours. I presume reason for the separation was so that more vengeance could be taken out on them.

"Everything in our life in the prison could be divided into two divisions, first two years, and remaining months. One of the first things we were told was that a victorious army is always generous. And the first two years were o. k., except for no freedom. Last half year was a different story.

Not much room

"We were all housed within the university, covering just a few acres. There was somewhat of a yard outside, providing a small opportunity for us to get some air. We could sit out under the trees, until most of them were cut down for fuel.

"We did our own cooking and washing. We had to build our own fires, including finding our own kindling. Thus the trees came down in time. We even used some of our furniture to keep the fires going.

"Take, for example, just one industry. Few people realize the importance of the great work done by the beverage distillers during the war. A high government official called it 'an almost unparalleled example of the overnight conversion of an entire industry from peace to war.' He also said not so many months ago, while speaking about synthetic rubber, 'It is fair to regard the rubber manufactured to date as being almost solely the product of the beverage distilling industry.' That's the type of thing I have in mind ... the way great American industries at home cooperated to help our brave fighting men abroad."

"I see what you mean, Judge...a complete history of American teamwork."

GERALD A. McELROY

The Catholic basketball champs of Chicago in both divisions easily whipped the public high school title holders last Friday night in the play off games at the stadium. There are several reasons why the Catholic schools have the edge in Chicago basketball. One is that they play their games at a time when adult spectators can attend and anyone knows that good crowds help boost interest in making the team. The public high schools with midweek afternoon games draw only a handful of students and the turnout for the varsity squads is small in comparison. The Catholic schools are smaller and have more school spirit.

In the public school league a boy can compete in only two sports. As football comes first in the year it gets the edge and many boys pass up winter sports. Then there is the most important reason of all which has its mark on basketball in every community in the state. The factor of grade school basketball is the biggest one of all. The Catholic schools of Chicago promote grade school basketball and the public schools do not. There is the real difference and it exists in just as real a form in the Northwest and Northeast conferences and everywhere that basketball is played.

Best news for Kelton—"son is safe"

The best news that Coach Bob Kelton of Warren received last week was not of his appointment to the athletic staff at Libertyville High school. It was the grand news that his son, who was missing since the German break through in December, is reported safe in a Nazi prison camp which will shortly be captured by the Allies. Kane of Libertyville, missing at the same time, is also in a German prison camp.

Warren has excellent grid material

The coach who fills the vacancy at Warren will have excellent football material for the 1945 team as only four regulars were lost from Warren's 1944 eleven. Warren and Arlington, on the basis of returning material, are supposed to be strong grid contenders this coming season. Both will have new coaches when September rolls around.

Kelton coached many stars

Bob Kelton has coached a lot of outstanding athletes in his 24 years at Decorah, Iowa, and Gurnee, Illinois, but four of them stand out in our mind. Leo Samuelson, present athletic director at Evanston Township High School, played in the line for Kelton at Decorah and later was a star at the University of Iowa. At Decorah Kelton coached many boys who later were standouts on the Luther College team in the same town but one of the best was Olson who is now coach at Shorewood High School, a Milwaukee suburb. Shorewood won the state basketball championship with Olson as coach a year ago.

Ken Zimmerman was one of the finest football players who ever competed in the old Northwest Conference. From Warren Zimmerman went to Illinois and played on Bob Zupke's teams and at present is head football coach at West Aurora. Another outstanding all round star at Warren was Phillips who later competed in track and football for the University of Wisconsin. There are many others but these come to mind at this time.

Only two seniors at Barrington in track

The eligibility list which came from Barrington for the triangular meet Friday between Bensenville, Barrington, and Palatine lists but two senior boys out for track on the Broncho's squad. Most of Barrington's older boys are out for baseball and a lot of their seniors have entered the armed forces. Friday's meet should give a good idea about the comparative strength of the conference teams and may give an idea of who will eventually win the league title.

Bob Ballard will be relays starter

Robert Ballard, swimming coach at the Northshore Athletic Club, will again serve as starter and referee of the annual Palatine Relays. Ballard has worked the meet for a good many years and has a reputation of keeping the track events going in quick succession so that the meet is a success from a spectator viewpoint. Ballard has few false starts and keeps the boys in the right mental attitude at the starts so they give their best performances.

Antioch has star track men

Antioch's track squad may be limited in numbers this year but certainly not in quality of performers. Nielsen, Good, and Jones appear to be a trio of the best boys in the Northwest Conference. In a recent triangular meet Antioch scored 37, Libertyville 38, and Waukegan 67. Nielsen, who was named all conference in football and basketball looks like a sure first place winner in the league track meet in the shot and possibly the discus. In the meet at Waukegan, Nielsen put the shot 42 feet, 5 inches and threw the discus 124 feet, 9 inches. Jones won the broad jump with a leap of 19 feet, 2 inches, took third in the high jump, and pole vault. Good won the 880, took second in the 440 and fourth in the low hurdles. Trieger of Antioch was second in the 220 which was run in :23 flat and was fourth in the 100. Libertyville's only first places were by Lennartz in the 220 and Grinell in the pole vault. The latter event was won with a vault of 10 feet.

Grosche's son lost in action

Corporal William Grosche, son of Waukegan's baseball coach and outstanding official, was killed in action on St. Patrick's day in a bomber mission over Germany. Grosche was a tail gunner. He was a member of the baseball squad at the University of Illinois before entering the service and had just gone overseas in February. Our sympathy to Al Grosche.

Allen says Illinois basketball better than Indiana

Coach Wilbur Allen who came from Newcastle, Indiana, to bring Waukegan from the cellar to the Suburban League championship commented recently on the subject of Indiana vs Illinois prep basketball. Allen says that Decatur, Illinois champ, was superior to Indiana's title winner this year and that Illinois is playing the best basketball the last few years. Indiana is standing still, says Allen, while Illinois is going in for speed and one hand shooting and other new ideas. Allen likes the slower deliberate game with emphasis upon working the ball in but realizes that the way it was done 10 years ago is out of date. It would appear that Indiana is not the basketball capitol of the world and Allen should know as his Newcastle team met the best in Indiana last year and he met the best in Illinois this past season at Waukegan.

We have to turn down invitation to Bison's banquet

Would certainly have liked to accept the invitation of Capt. Herb Schoppe of the Bensenville champions to attend their sports banquet tonight (Thursday). Had to turn it down as it is the night the Palatine Board of Education meets. It will be a big night at Bensenville for the Bisons have taken three championships in a row in track, football, and basketball.

Bensenville has had what it takes to be a winner and that is mainly team morale and spirit combined with willingness to work hard and give up everything for the good of the team's chances. Bensenville has that kind of boys this year and should be mighty proud of them. The congratulations of this department are hereby tendered to coaches Meneguin and Trapp and their boys on a great sports year.

20 schools sign to run in Palatine Relays

Expect no records to be broken

by G. A. McElroy, Sports Editor

To all indications the 13th Annual Palatine Relays will be one of the biggest meets in the long series. At least 20 schools are expected to enter the meet on Saturday, April 28, with a number of new entries. Morrison, Mooseheart, Somanauk, Northbrook, Wauconda, and possibly Naperville, who were not here in 1944 are expected as entries. From last year's list the following are certain to compete: Barrington, Bensenville, Belvidere, Batavia, Antioch, Crystal Lake, Leyden, Lake Forest, Libertyville, Niles Twp., Palatine, Geneva, Marengo, Arlington Heights, Woodstock, West Chicago and St. Charles.

Last year's champs were Lake Forest in the "A" class and Bensenville in the "B" class. The schools in "A" class are those over 350 enrollment. This year Geneva is expected to win the "B" class, though Batavia, or one of the new schools, Mooseheart or Morrison, might do it. Coach C. T. Nelson's Geneva team was a strong second last year. Geneva and Palatine had each taken three "B" titles prior to Bensenville's victory last year. Crystal Lake should make a very strong bid to oust Lake Forest from the championship in the "A" class.

The meet will open with the high jump, pole vault, shot, and discus at 9:30 in the morning followed by the 100 yard dash prelims and the broad jump. Field events are completed in the morning session. The afternoon program starting sharply at 1:15, includes two mile, 880, mile medley, Frosh-Soph 440, 432 yard low hurdle shuttle, and 320 yard high hurdle relays in both classes. The 100 yard dash and mile run are the only open class events in the afternoon. All the field events are unclassified. Points are 10-8-6-4-2 in the relays and 5-4-3-2-1 in the individual events. Ribbons are given for five places in all events.

Admission to the meet is 30c if tickets are purchased in advance of the meet. The adult price of the meet is 50c.

Few, if any records, are expected to be bettered. The records have become so good that it takes exceptional performances to even approach them. This year might be as good a one as any for some records as no spring since the meet was started have athletes had as long a period of training prior to the meet as this year due to unusual weather. However so many senior athletes have gone into the services that this advantage will no doubt count for little.

Ken Barnhill new coach at Detroit school

Ken Barnhill, former Arlington Heights football coach, is leaving his home in Arlington this Saturday to accept a new position at Van Dyke, Michigan, a suburb of Detroit. Mr. Barnhill coached the Card football eleven in 1943, only to leave during the school year to accept a job at the Dodge plant.

Mr. Barnhill's new position will be as head of health, physical education, sports and athletics for all 5 public schools in Van Dyke, grade and high. There are 2400 students involved. The work is a twelve month job and "is just what I've been looking for", according to Mr. Barnhill.

200 boys reported for football the past year, making an ideal situation for Coach Barnhill. There will be three other coaches assisting Mr. Barnhill in football.

Redwings to open first practice this Sunday

See stiffer competition this year

The first baseball practice session of the Arlington Redwings will be held Sunday afternoon beginning at 2:00 o'clock. Manager Eddie Wahl has a problem of finding replacements for second baseman Elmer Kirchhoff, who is now in the Navy and a member of the Roanoke, Virginia, Navy Base Squad; Don Peeters, last year's shortstop, who has signed with Durham, N. C., a Boston Red Sox farm club; and Joe Brodnan, centerfielder, who has retired for the second time from active competition.

These vacancies must be filled and Wahl hopes that the three weeks of practice will uncover players of performing up to the standards of Midwest League competition. Any players, regardless of the position they are interested in playing, are welcome to attend the practice sessions.

There is no such thing as any of last year's veterans being sure of their job this year. All positions are open. If a better player than the one filling the position last year shows up, he will get the job.

It is absolutely necessary to put together the strongest possible team to compete on even terms with the Chicago clubs in the league. With many minor league players staying at their War Plant jobs instead of playing ball, the city teams have been able to sign up those men. Chicago teams have the advantage of being able to pay such players because their teams are for the most part sponsored by business concerns, instead of operating independently as the Arlington team has been forced to do in the past years.

With the visiting teams being improved over last year, competition will be better and so Arlington, which always has had a good club, must build a team capable of maintaining that reputation.

Cards take triangular from Leyden, B'ville

Arlington also takes frosh-soph

Arlington's track teams showed that they are definitely on the upswing by defeating Leyden and Bensenville in a convincing fashion last Friday afternoon at Leyden.

Arlington won the triangular varsity meet by the score of 68 5-6 to 53 1-3 for Leyden and 19 5-6 for Bensenville. The Frosh-Soph scores were Arlington 44, Leyden 36, Bensenville 18. Since the date was a comparable one to the annual dual between Bensenville and Arlington and which has maintained over a long span of years, the meet was figured on a dual basis also, with the Bisons. The final tabulation for this showed Arlington had accumulated 86 points to Bensenville's 27.

This is distinctly an "off" year for both Leyden and Bensenville. Practically all of the Leyden boys are undergraduates who performed most creditably in their initial varsity baptism. Bensenville has only a scattering few excellent performers proving that they are too small a school to split their athletes up into track and baseball teams.

Many look good

Despite several days of bad weather last week which precluded any real track workouts, some creditable performances were hung up. This is particularly true in view of the fact that a wind of near gale proportions was blowing into the faces of most of the contestants.

Bill Miller, Pat McDonald, Geo. Busse, Marv Kamps, John Rahn, Bill MacRoberts and Fred Bark again proved the bulwark of the varsity team. However the real pleasure from the Cardinals' point of view was the showing of the lesser experienced members of the squad. Warren Busse and Bob Hornbostel chalked up firsts for Arlington and were most ably supported by much improved performances of Bud Immel, Tom Kurtz, Bill Haney, Dale Pate, Roy Goetschel, Jim Olsen, Ken Gronert, Wilbert Hartman and the sophomore trio of speedsters Dale Williams, Ken Kestler and Mike McDonald, who with Bob Hornbostel, will garner many points for their team this year.

Two of the Cardinals best men, Jerry Baker and Dan Magnus, are not recovered yet from their recent bout with the mumps. When they get back into stride they will add much ability to the squad.

Arlington's varsity faces the veteran Crystal Lake team this Friday afternoon at Crystal Lake. This will be a severe test for the Cardinals. The probability is that the Lakers will be much too strong.

Next Tuesday the Arlington Frosh-Sophs play host to Palatine's underclassmen at Arlington.

Bob Kelton new coach at Libertyville high

by G. A. McElroy, Sports Editor

Bob Kelton, who has directed Warren Township High School athletics for the past 17 years, has signed a contract to coach at Libertyville High School next year. Kelton will assist Art Bergstrom with football, will coach the freshman basketball team and assume the head coach responsibilities in track. Libertyville is creating a new job with Kelton a very wise choice for it. Kelton is regarded as one of the best football coaches in this area.

In his 17 years at Warren Kelton kept the smallest school in the Northeast and one of the smaller ones in the old Northwest up in the running, many times with very limited material. Under his direction Warren won three football championships, the last being an undefeated record in 1941. In basketball Warren won three titles. The last cage champ was the undefeated 1939 team in the last year the old Northwest loop functioned. Warren captured five baseball championships including a streak of three years straight in the early thirties. Best athletic year for Warren under Kelton was 1930-31 when the Blue Devils won football, basketball, and baseball championships for a clean sweep.

Before coming to Warren, Kelton was head coach for seven years in Decorah of the Northeastern Iowa Conference. He had a steady run of outstanding football teams at Decorah as well as strong track and basketball teams.

Kelton is an outstanding football and basketball official. The new set up for him will give opportunity for a full schedule of refereeing. It will also give him a good deal less responsibility. At Warren Kelton has had the entire coaching burden and with 65 boys out for football he has had more than his hands full. Libertyville has been a top team in all sports, but lately due to lack of coaches the younger boys have not had the attention as in former years. The hiring of Kelton will remedy this situation and be a big boost to Bergstrom's varsity teams in a year or two.

Larry Crawford, who has so successfully handled Libertyville track for close to 20 years, will retire from active coaching. Administrative duties in the Libertyville school for which Crawford is ably qualified, have taken his attention and time a good deal in recent years. Crawford is official assignment chairman for the Northeast Conference. Kelton will find in Libertyville a school that is track minded as well as being enthusiastic about football.

Pounding out 24 basehits in the first game and nine blows in the afterpiece, Waukegan High's varsity baseball team swept both ends of a doubleheader with Arligton Heights High of the Northeast Conference at Weiss Field last Saturday afternoon. Scores were 20-6 and 7-1.

A high wind made it tough for both pitchers and infielders in the first game, accounting for 12 errors. A walk, followed by five solid hits, gave Waukegan a four-run edge in the first inning, but Jerry Schueneman lost control in the second stanza, walking two men and hitting two more. He was replaced by Bob Therry and before the inning ended Arlington had picked up three runs.

The game developed into a rout in the last three innings as Waukegan picked up 12 runs on 14 hits, which included doubles by Pacenti and Gugala, triples by Kittell and Therry, and Larry Hanzel's second home run.

In the second tilt Arlington notched 6 hits, twice their first game total, but scored just 1 run, five less than in the opener.

GERALD A. McELROY

The Catholic basketball champs of Chicago in both divisions easily whipped the public high school title holders last Friday night in the play off games at the stadium. There are several reasons why the Catholic schools have the edge in Chicago basketball. One is that they play their games at a time when adult spectators can attend and anyone knows that good crowds help boost interest in making the team. The public high schools with midweek afternoon games draw only a handful of students and the turnout for the varsity squads is small in comparison. The Catholic schools are smaller and have more school spirit.

In the public school league a boy can compete in only two sports. As football comes first in the year it gets the edge and many boys pass up winter sports. Then there is the most important reason of all which has its mark on basketball in every community in the state. The factor of grade school basketball is the biggest one of all. The Catholic schools of Chicago promote grade school basketball and the public schools do not. There is the real difference and it exists in just as real a form in the Northwest and Northeast conferences and everywhere that basketball is played.

Best news for Kelton—"son is safe"

The best news that Coach Bob Kelton of Warren received last week was not of his appointment to the athletic staff at Libertyville High school. It was the grand news that his son, who was missing since the German break through in December, is reported safe in a Nazi prison camp which will shortly be captured by the Allies. Kane of Libertyville, missing at the same time, is also in a German prison camp.

Warren has excellent grid material

The coach who fills the vacancy at Warren will have excellent football material for the 1945 team as only four regulars were lost from Warren's 1944 eleven. Warren and Arlington, on the basis of returning material, are supposed to be strong grid contenders this coming season. Both will have new coaches when September rolls around.

Kelton coached many stars

Bob Kelton has coached a lot of outstanding athletes in his 24 years at Decorah, Iowa, and Geneva, Illinois, but four of them stand out in our mind. Leo Samuelson, present athletic director at Evanston Township High School, played in the line for Kelton at Decorah and later was a star at the University of Iowa. At Decorah Kelton coached many boys who later were standouts on the Luther College team in the same town but one of the best was Olson who is now coach at Shorewood High School, a Milwaukee suburb. Shorewood won the state basketball championship with Olson as coach a year ago.

Ken Zimmerman was one of the finest football players who ever competed in the old Northwest Conference. From Warren Zimmerman went to Illinois and played on Bob Zupke's teams and at present is head football coach at West Aurora. Another outstanding all round star at Warren was Phillips who later competed in track and football for the University of Wisconsin. There are many others but these come to mind at this time.

Only two seniors at Barrington in track

The eligibility list which came from Barrington for the triangular meet Friday between Bensenville, Barrington, and Palatine lists but two senior boys out for track on the Broncho's squad. Most of Barrington's older boys are out for baseball and a lot of their seniors have entered the armed forces. Friday's meet should give a good idea about the comparative strength of the conference teams and may give an idea of who will eventually win the league title.

Bob Ballard will be relays starter

Robert Ballard, swimming coach at the Northshore Athletic Club, will again serve as starter and referee of the annual Palatine Relays. Ballard has worked the meet for a good many years and has a reputation of keeping the track events going in quick succession so that the meet is a success from a spectator viewpoint. Ballard has few false starts and keeps the boys in the right mental attitude at the starts so they give their best performances.

Antioch has star track men

Antioch's track squad may be limited in numbers this year but certainly not in quality of performers. Nielsen, Good, and Jones appear to be a trio of the best boys in the Northwest Conference. In a recent triangular meet Antioch scored 37, Libertyville 38, and Waukegan 67. Nielsen, who was named all conference in football and basketball looks like a sure first place winner in the league track meet in the shot and possibly the discus. In the meet at Waukegan, Nielsen put the shot 42 feet, 5 inches and threw the discus 124 feet, 9 inches. Jones won the broad jump with a leap of 19 feet, 2 inches, took third in the high jump, and pole vault. Good won the 880, took second in the 440 and fourth in the low hurdles. Trieger of Antioch was second in the 220 which was run in :23 flat and was fourth in the 100. Libertyville's only first places were by Lennartz in the 220 and Grinell in the pole vault. The latter event was won with a vault of 10 feet.

Grosche's son lost in action

Corporal William Grosche, son of Waukegan's baseball coach and outstanding official, was killed in action on St. Patrick's day in a bomber mission over Germany. Grosche was a tail gunner. He was a member of the baseball squad at the University of Illinois before entering the service and had just gone overseas in February. Our sympathy to Al Grosche.

Allen says Illinois basketball better than Indiana

Coach Wilbur Allen who came from Newcastle, Indiana, to bring Waukegan from the cellar to the Suburban League championship commented recently on the subject of Indiana vs Illinois prep basketball. Allen says that Decatur, Illinois champ, was superior to Indiana's title winner this year and that Illinois is playing the best basketball the last few years. Indiana is standing still, says Allen, while Illinois is going in for speed and one hand shooting and other new ideas. Allen likes the slower deliberate game with emphasis upon working the ball in but realizes that the way it was done 10 years ago is out of date. It would appear that Indiana is not the basketball capitol of the world and Allen should know as his Newcastle team met the best in Indiana last year and he met the best in Illinois this past season at Waukegan.

We have to turn down invitation to Bison's banquet

Would certainly have liked to accept the invitation of Capt. Herb Schoppe of the Bensenville champions to attend their sports banquet tonight (Thursday). Had to turn it down as it is the night the Palatine Board of Education meets. It will be a big night at Bensenville for the Bisons have taken three championships in a row in track, football, and basketball.

Bensenville has had what it takes to be a winner and that is mainly team morale and spirit combined with willingness to work hard and give up everything for the good of the team's chances. Bensenville has that kind of boys this year and should be mighty proud of them. The congratulations of this department are hereby tendered to coaches Meneguin and Trapp and their boys on a great sports year.

20 schools sign to run in Palatine Relays

by G. A. McElroy, Sports Editor

To all indications the 13th Annual Palatine Relays will be one of the biggest meets in the long series. At least 20 schools are expected to enter the meet on Saturday, April 28, with a number of new entries. Morrison, Mooseheart, Somanauk, Northbrook, Wauconda, and possibly Naperville, who were not here in 1944 are expected as entries. From last year's list the following are certain to compete: Barrington, Bensenville, Belvidere, Batavia, Antioch, Crystal Lake, Leyden, Lake Forest, Libertyville, Niles Twp., Palatine, Geneva, Marengo, Arlington Heights, Woodstock, West Chicago and St. Charles.

Last year's champs were Lake Forest in the "A" class and Bensenville in the "B" class. The schools in "A" class are those over 350 enrollment. This year Geneva is expected to win the "B" class, though Batavia, or one of the new schools, Mooseheart or Morrison, might do it. Coach C. T. Nelson's Geneva team was a strong second last year. Geneva and Palatine had each taken three "B" titles prior to Bensenville's victory last year. Crystal Lake should make a very strong bid to oust Lake Forest from the championship in the "A" class.

The meet will open with the high jump, pole vault, shot, and discus at 9:30 in the morning followed by the 100 yard dash prelims and the broad jump. Field events are completed in the morning session. The afternoon program starting sharply at 1:15, includes two mile, 880, mile medley, Frosh-Soph 440, 432 yard low hurdle shuttle, and 320 yard high hurdle relays in both classes. The 100 yard dash and mile run are the only open class events in the afternoon. All the field events are unclassified. Points are 10-8-6-4-2 in the relays and 5-4-3-2-1 in the individual events. Ribbons are given for five places in all events.

Admission to the meet is 30c if tickets are purchased in advance of the meet. The adult price of the meet is 50c.

Few, if any records, are expected to be bettered. The records have become so good that it takes exceptional performances to even approach them. This year might be as good a one as any for some records as no spring since the meet was started have athletes had as long a period of training prior to the meet as this year due to unusual weather. However so many senior athletes have gone into the services that this advantage will no doubt count for little.

Ken Barnhill new coach at Detroit school

Ken Barnhill, former Arlington Heights football coach, is leaving his home in Arlington this Saturday to accept a new position at Van Dyke, Michigan, a suburb of Detroit. Mr. Barnhill coached the Card football eleven in 1943, only to leave during the school year to accept a job at the Dodge plant.

Mr. Barnhill's new position will be as head of health, physical education, sports and athletics for all 5 public schools in Van Dyke, grade and high. There are 2400 students involved. The work is a twelve month job and "is just what I've been looking for", according to Mr. Barnhill.

200 boys reported for football the past year, making an ideal situation for Coach Barnhill. There will be three other coaches assisting Mr. Barnhill in football.

Redwings to open first practice this Sunday

See stiffer competition this year

The first baseball practice session of the Arlington Redwings will be held Sunday afternoon beginning at 2:00 o'clock. Manager Eddie Wahl has a problem of finding replacements for second baseman Elmer Kirchhoff, who is now in the Navy and a member of the Roanoke, Virginia, Navy Base Squad; Don Peeters, last year's shortstop, who has signed with Durham, N. C., a Boston Red Sox farm club; and Joe Brodnan, centerfielder, who has retired for the second time from active competition.

These vacancies must be filled and Wahl hopes that the three weeks of practice will uncover players of performing up to the standards of Midwest League competition. Any players, regardless of the position they are interested in playing, are welcome to attend the practice sessions.

There is no such thing as any of last year's veterans being sure of their job this year. All positions are open. If a better player than the one filling the position last year shows up, he will get the job.

It is absolutely necessary to put together the strongest possible team to compete on even terms with the Chicago clubs in the league. With many minor league players staying at their War Plant jobs instead of playing ball, the city teams have been able to sign up those men. Chicago teams have the advantage of being able to pay such players because their teams are for the most part sponsored by business concerns, instead of operating independently as the Arlington team has been forced to do in the past years.

With the visiting teams being improved over last year, competition will be better and so Arlington, which always has had a good club, must build a team capable of maintaining that reputation.

Cards take triangular from Leyden, B'ville

Arlington also takes frosh-soph

Arlington's track teams showed that they are definitely on the upswing by defeating Leyden and Bensenville in a convincing fashion last Friday afternoon at Leyden.

Arlington won the triangular varsity meet by the score of 68 5-6 to 53 1-3 for Leyden and 19 5-6 for Bensenville. The Frosh-Soph scores were Arlington 44, Leyden 36, Bensenville 18. Since the date was a comparable one to the annual dual between Bensenville and Arlington and which has maintained over a long span of years, the meet was figured on a dual basis also, with the Bisons. The final tabulation for this showed Arlington had accumulated 86 points to Bensenville's 27.

This is distinctly an "off" year for both Leyden and Bensenville. Practically all of the Leyden boys are undergraduates who performed most creditably in their initial varsity baptism. Bensenville has only a scattering few excellent performers proving that they are too small a school to split their athletes up into track and baseball teams.

Many look good

Despite several days of bad weather last week which precluded any real track workouts, some creditable performances were hung up. This is particularly true in view of the fact that a wind of near gale proportions was blowing into the faces of most of the contestants.

Bill Miller, Pat McDonald, Geo. Busse, Marv Kamps, John Rahn, Bill MacRoberts and Fred Bark again proved the bulwark of the varsity team. However the real pleasure from the Cardinals' point of view was the showing of the lesser experienced members of the squad. Warren Busse and Bob Hornbostel chalked up firsts for Arlington and were most ably supported by much improved performances of Bud Immel, Tom Kurtz, Bill Haney, Dale Pate, Roy Goetschel, Jim Olsen, Ken Gronert, Wilbert Hartman and the sophomore trio of speedsters Dale Williams, Ken Kestler and Mike McDonald, who with Bob Hornbostel, will garner many points for their team this year.

Two of the Cardinals best men, Jerry Baker and Dan Magnus, are not recovered yet from their recent bout with the mumps. When they get back into stride they will add much ability to the squad.

Arlington's varsity faces the veteran Crystal Lake team this Friday afternoon at Crystal Lake. This will be a severe test for the Cardinals. The probability is that the Lakers will be much too strong.

Next Tuesday the Arlington Frosh-Sophs play host to Palatine's underclassmen at Arlington.

Bob Kelton new coach at Libertyville high

by G. A. McElroy, Sports Editor

Bob Kelton, who has directed Warren Township High School athletics for the past 17 years, has signed a contract to coach at Libertyville High School next year. Kelton will assist Art Bergstrom with football, will coach the freshman basketball team and assume the head coach responsibilities in track. Libertyville is creating a new job with Kelton a very wise choice for it. Kelton is regarded as one of the best football coaches in this area.

In his 17 years at Warren Kelton kept the smallest school in the Northeast and one of the smaller ones in the old Northwest up in the running, many times with very limited material. Under his direction Warren won three football championships, the last being an undefeated record in 1941. In basketball Warren won three titles. The last cage champ was the undefeated 1939 team in the last year the old Northwest loop functioned. Warren captured five baseball championships including a streak of three years straight in the early thirties. Best athletic year for Warren under Kelton was 1930-31 when the Blue Devils won football, basketball, and baseball championships for a clean sweep.

Before coming to Warren, Kelton was head coach for seven years in Decorah of the Northeastern Iowa Conference. He had a steady run of outstanding football teams at Decorah as well as strong track and basketball teams.

Kelton is an outstanding football and basketball official. The new set up for him will give opportunity for a full schedule of refereeing. It will also give him a good deal less responsibility. At Warren Kelton has had the entire coaching burden and with 65 boys out for football he has had more than his hands full. Libertyville has been a top team in all sports, but lately due to lack of coaches the younger boys have not had the attention as in former years. The hiring of Kelton will remedy this situation and be a big boost to Bergstrom's varsity teams in a year or two.

Larry Crawford, who has so successfully handled Libertyville track for close to 20 years, will retire from active coaching. Administrative duties in the Libertyville school for which Crawford is ably qualified, have taken his attention and time a good deal in recent years. Crawford is official assignment chairman for the Northeast Conference. Kelton will find in Libertyville a school that is track minded as well as being enthusiastic about football.

Pounding out 24 basehits in the first game and nine blows in the afterpiece, Waukegan High's varsity baseball team swept both ends of a doubleheader with Arligton Heights High of the Northeast Conference at Weiss Field last Saturday afternoon. Scores were 20-6 and 7-1.

A high wind made it tough for both pitchers and infielders in the first game, accounting for 12 errors. A walk, followed by five solid hits, gave Waukegan a four-run edge in the first inning, but Jerry Schueneman lost control in the second stanza, walking two men and hitting two more. He was replaced by Bob Therry and before the inning ended Arlington had picked up three runs.

The game developed into a rout in the last three innings as Waukegan picked up 12 runs on 14 hits, which included doubles by Pacenti and Gugala, triples by Kittell and Therry, and Larry Hanzel's second home run.

In the second tilt Arlington notched 6 hits, twice their first game total, but scored just 1 run, five less than in the opener.

So. Carolina

Now taking boot training with the Marines at Paris Island, South Carolina, is Fred Moss, Jr., formerly of Palatine.

"Training here is plenty tough. We go at it from 4 in the morning to 10 at night. I can take it, but it's plenty hard on some of the older men."

LOK

Now on his way again, LOK, is Roy Bedell of Prospect Heights. His address is 2nd Lt. Roy A. Bedell, 0-826606, APO 13330-3, % P M., New York, N. Y.

Florida

Tec. 4 Carl W. Kersten, 34, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Kersten of 202 N. Hale, Palatine, has returned from service outside the continental United States and is now being processed through the Army Ground and Service Forces Redistribution Station in Miami Beach, Florida, where his next assignment will be determined.

Sgt. Kersten served four months as a member of an infantry corps unit.

During the period that returnees stay at an Army Ground and Service Forces Redistribution Station, they are given a painstaking occupational and physical classification as well as physical and dental reconditioning together with various lectures designed to reorient men recently returned from combat areas. This processing is carried on without haste in pleasant surroundings conducive to mental and physical relaxation.

Before entering the service Sgt. Kersten was employed as a machinist for Motive Equipment Co. of Chicago. He became a member of the Armed Forces on July 8, 1942.

Now at Jacksonville, Florida, is Eddie Langlois of Arlington Heights.

"Reported in to this station on March 29 for duty, and it's really quite a place. Will probably be here for a spell anyway but will keep you informed as to any future changes as I want to be sure to keep up with the news at home through the paper.

"The trip down was very nice and the weather perfect. It still is for that matter. Folks say there has been no rain here since December. Find this all very interesting as it's my first trip down to the South."

From Key West, Florida, comes thanks to the Arlington Heights traveling bank from S2c Ralph Windheim.

"Sure appreciated getting the Bank. It's sure swell to know the people at home are behind us in the service."

Idaho

John Coryell of Mt. Prospect is now stationed at Camp Farragut, Idaho. He was wounded in the Philippines, and was returned to San Francisco, Calif., thence to Idaho.

Burma

From Burma where he is a member of the Mars task force comes word of Gerald Young of Bensenville.

"This is to notify you of my change of address which I should have done quite some time ago, but we have been quite busy and have had little or no time for letter writing.

"I have been receiving the paper regularly. Of course there has been a delay due to the incorrect address. I am hoping that it will be faster in getting here now. I look forward to receiving it as it has so many interesting articles in it for us servicemen.

"As you may already know I am a part of the Mars task force and I believe it has received some mention back there. We are credited with opening the old Burma road and, though it wasn't any picnic, I'm glad we fared as well as we did. The Japs seemed very determined that we shouldn't succeed but I'm afraid they were disappointed.

"We are now enjoying a few days of rest, though no one seems to know just what is next."

His address is Pfc. G. C. Young, 36748214, APO 218, % PM, New York, N. Y.

West Coast

Lt. Col. M. C. Burgan of Mt. Prospect left April 1 for the west coast where he is awaiting further orders.

France

From France comes word of Ralph Roesner of Palatine.

"I am now in France and can't say I like it here at all. I've been here about two months and all I've seen were blown up cities and German tanks, and a lot of guns left behind by the Germans.

"The people are poor and don't have much to eat. They beg us for our cigarettes and soap. All in all there is no place like the States.

"The Palatine paper has not caught up with me as yet but I'm looking for it at every mail call. I want to take this time to thank all the people who make it possible for me to receive the Palatine paper as it is something to tell us what is going on around home."

Now somewhere in France is Christian Dettman of Arlington Heights. His address is Pvt. Christian W. Dettmann, 36773812, APO 263, % PM, New York, N. Y.

At sea

Now back aboard ship is EM3c Edwin Hahnfeldt of Arlington Heights. Edwin serves aboard a troop transport, and has made several trips in the Pacific. The ship docked in New York the last trip, so further route is not known. He was home for 20 days, returning to New York last week.

Philippines

From the Philippines comes word of Jordan Spiroff of Bensenville.

"After spending more than a year in the jungles of the Southwest Pacific, it is good to see people (civilization). The city isn't in very good shape. I wish I could tell you more about this city. There is quite a bit of disease such as dysentry, malaria, dengue fever, etc.

"Some of the shops are open for business, but their prices are sky high. There are a few civilian automobiles, Buicks, Fords, practically all American brands.

"You can get a bottle of whiskey for a few cans of rations. You have to watch your step because some of the whiskey has been poisoned by the Japanese."

His address is Cpl. Jordan Spiroff, 36718502, APO 75 % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

From the Philippines comes word of Bill Hofschneider of Palatine.

"I guess by this time you know that I am in the Philippines and must say it's the best spot we have hit since leaving the Hawaiian Islands. The weather here has been very hot and dry, so for once I can't kick on the rain and mud. By the time you get this note spring should be well on its way at home with plenty of work on hand."

His address is Pfc. Wm. Hofschneider, 36761763, APO 33, % P M, San Francisco, Calif.

John Gahlbeck, formerly of Palatine, who is stationed somewhere in the Philippines, writes his mother, Mrs. Louise Gahlbeck, 222 No. Utica st., Waukegan, that he is feeling pretty good of late. John was in the hospital in the Philippines for two weeks with an infection in both of his feet caused from "jungle rot".

Pfc. William H. Hofschneider of Palatine was slightly wounded on Luzon in the Philippines on March 5th. His wife received word from him that he is now out of the hospital and back in combat with his outfit, the 33rd Division. They own their home near Ela road but Mrs. Hofschneider is making her home with her mother in Evanston for the duration.

Changing his address in the Philippines is Roy Niemeyer of Arlington Heights. His address is Lt. Roy Niemeyer, 0-928857, APO 74, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Changing his address in the Philippines is Norman Pfortmiller of Roselle. His address is S-Sgt. Norman Pfortmiller, 36322588, APO 74, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Now at Enid, Oklahoma, is Donald Moberg of Palatine. He was formerly stationed at Amtus, Oklahoma. His address is AS Donald Moberg, 2518 AAF-BU, Box 883A, EAAF, Enid, Oklahoma.

With Uncle Sam

Oahu

From Oahu comes word of Ed Bublitz of Arlington Heights.

"We've been enjoying some unusual weather lately. It's rained every day for the past month and no promise of a break in the near future. No fooling—it's about as wet as Arlington on a Saturday night, almost, of course. I imagine everyone is enjoying the curfew or do the venetian blinds still do the trick. They're pretty rough about that sort of thing here; but you know, if there's a will, there's a way.

"I guess you've heard that I met Rollo Koenig and Art Kehe a while back, but haven't seen or heard from them since. I've been seeing Mel Garms as often as we can swing it but that hasn't been as often as we'd like it.

"Been playing a little hard ball with results that aren't too good. Well, it's exercise whether you hit the ball or not."

India

It's anyone's guess why but mail to Vernon Lee of Mt. Prospect has been stopped temporarily. A V-Mail from APO 885, presumably in India, notified publication office to stop all mail temporarily. He may be moving to a new station or coming home.

Louisiana

Chaplain Harold Maleske of Mt. Prospect left with his father, Otto Maleske, for new Orleans, La. Chaplain Maleske will go to a port of embarkation camp. He has been staying in Mt. Prospect with his wife and parents since April 2.

So. Carolina

Now taking boot training with the Marines at Paris Island, South Carolina, is Fred Moss, Jr., formerly of Palatine.

"Training here is plenty tough. We go at it from 4 in the morning to 10 at night. I can take it, but it's plenty hard on some of the older men."

LOK

Now on his way again, LOK, is Roy Bedell of Prospect Heights. His address is 2nd Lt. Roy A. Bedell, 0-826606, APO 13330-3, % P M., New York, N. Y.

Now LOK is Alex Angeloff of Arlington Heights. His address is Cpl. Alex Angeloff, 36028425, APO 248, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Florida

Tec. 4 Carl W. Kersten, 34, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Kersten of 202 N. Hale, Palatine, has returned from service outside the continental United States and is now being processed through the Army Ground and Service Forces Redistribution Station in Miami Beach, Florida, where his next assignment will be determined.

Sgt. Kersten served four months as a member of an infantry corps unit.

During the period that returnees stay at an Army Ground and Service Forces Redistribution Station, they are given a painstaking occupational and physical classification as well as physical and dental reconditioning together with various lectures designed to reorient men recently returned from combat areas. This processing is carried on without haste in pleasant surroundings conducive to mental and physical relaxation.

Before entering the service Sgt. Kersten was employed as a machinist for Motive Equipment Co. of Chicago. He became a member of the Armed Forces on July 8, 1942.

Now at Jacksonville, Florida, is Eddie Langlois of Arlington Heights.

"Reported in to this station on March 29 for duty, and it's really quite a place. Will probably be here for a spell anyway but will keep you informed as to any future changes as I want to be sure to keep up with the news at home through the paper.

"The trip down was very nice and the weather perfect. It still is for that matter. Folks say there has been no rain here since December. Find this all very interesting as it's my first trip down to the South."

From Key West, Florida, comes thanks to the Arlington Heights traveling bank from S2c Ralph Windheim.

"Sure appreciated getting the Bank. It's sure swell to know the people at home are behind us in the service."

Idaho

John Coryell of Mt. Prospect is now stationed at Camp Farragut, Idaho. He was wounded in the Philippines, and was returned to San Francisco, Calif., thence to Idaho.

Burma

From Burma where he is a member of the Mars task force comes word of Gerald Young of Bensenville.

"This is to notify you of my change of address which I should have done quite some time ago, but we have been quite busy and have had little or no time for letter writing.

"I have been receiving the paper regularly. Of course there has been a delay due to the incorrect address. I am hoping that it will be faster in getting here now. I look forward to receiving it as it has so many interesting articles in it for us servicemen.

"As you may already know I am a part of the Mars task force and I believe it has received some mention back there. We are credited with opening the old Burma road and, though it wasn't any picnic, I'm glad we fared as well as we did. The Japs seemed very determined that we shouldn't succeed but I'm afraid they were disappointed.

"We are now enjoying a few days of rest, though no one seems to know just what is next."

His address is Pfc. G. C. Young, 36748214, APO 218, % PM, New York, N. Y.

West Coast

Lt. Col. M. C. Burgan of Mt. Prospect left April 1 for the west coast where he is awaiting further orders.

France

From France comes word of Ralph Roesner of Palatine.

"I am now in France and can't say I like it here at all. I've been here about two months and all I've seen were blown up cities and German tanks, and a lot of guns left behind by the Germans.

"The people are poor and don't have much to eat. They beg us for our cigarettes and soap. All in all there is no place like the States.

"The Palatine paper has not caught up with me as yet but I'm looking for it at every mail call. I want to take this time to thank all the people who make it possible for me to receive the Palatine paper as it is something to tell us what is going on around home."

Now somewhere in France is Christian Dettman of Arlington Heights. His address is Pvt. Christian W. Dettmann, 36773812, APO 263, % PM, New York, N. Y.

At sea

Now back aboard ship is EM3c Edwin Hahnfeldt of Arlington Heights. Edwin serves aboard a troop transport, and has made several trips in the Pacific. The ship docked in New York the last trip, so further route is not known. He was home for 20 days, returning to New York last week.

Philippines

From the Philippines comes word of Jordan Spiroff of Bensenville.

"After spending more than a year in the jungles of the Southwest Pacific, it is good to see people (civilization). The city isn't in very good shape. I wish I could tell you more about this city. There is quite a bit of disease such as dysentry, malaria, dengue fever, etc.

"Some of the shops are open for business, but their prices are sky high. There are a few civilian automobiles, Buicks, Fords, practically all American brands.

"You can get a bottle of whiskey for a few cans of rations. You have to watch your step because some of the whiskey has been poisoned by the Japanese."

His address is Cpl. Jordan Spiroff, 36718502, APO 75 % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

From the Philippines comes word of Bill Hofschneider of Palatine.

"I guess by this time you know that I am in the Philippines and must say it's the best spot we have hit since leaving the Hawaiian Islands. The weather here has been very hot and dry, so for once I can't kick on the rain and mud. By the time you get this note spring should be well on its way at home with plenty of work on hand."

His address is Pfc. Wm. Hofschneider, 36761763, APO 33, % P M, San Francisco, Calif.

John Gahlbeck, formerly of Palatine, who is stationed somewhere in the Philippines, writes his mother, Mrs. Louise Gahlbeck, 222 No. Utica st., Waukegan, that he is feeling pretty good of late. John was in the hospital in the Philippines for two weeks with an infection in both of his feet caused from "jungle rot".

Pfc. William H. Hofschneider of Palatine was slightly wounded on Luzon in the Philippines on March 5th. His wife received word from him that he is now out of the hospital and back in combat with his outfit, the 33rd Division. They own their home near Ela road but Mrs. Hofschneider is making her home with her mother in Evanston for the duration.

Changing his address in the Philippines is Roy Niemeyer of Arlington Heights. His address is Lt. Roy Niemeyer, 0-928857, APO 74, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Changing his address in the Philippines is Norman Pfortmiller of Roselle. His address is S-Sgt. Norman Pfortmiller, 36322588, APO 74, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Oklahoma

With Uncle Sam

Oahu

From Oahu comes word of Ed Bublitz of Arlington Heights.

"We've been enjoying some unusual weather lately. It's rained every day for the past month and no promise of a break in the near future. No fooling—it's about as wet as Arlington on a Saturday night, almost, of course. I imagine everyone is enjoying the curfew or do the venetian blinds still do the trick. They're pretty rough about that sort of thing here; but you know, if there's a will, there's a way.

"I guess you've heard that I met Rollo Koenig and Art Kehe a while back, but haven't seen or heard from them since. I've been seeing Mel Garms as often as we can swing it but that hasn't been as often as we'd like it.

"Been playing a little hard ball with results that aren't too good. Well, it's exercise whether you hit the ball or not."

His address is Sgt. Ed Bublitz, 36731423, APO 957, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

It's anyone's guess why but mail to Vernon Lee of Mt. Prospect has been stopped temporarily. A V-Mail from APO 885, presumably in India, notified publication office to stop all mail temporarily. He may be moving to a new station or coming home.

Urge sharing labor as well as machinery

Sharing of machinery and labor by Illinois farmers on a community basis was advocated by P. E. Johnston, state farm labor supervisor, today.

He pointed to the success of such sharing among thousands of neighbors during the past year and added the warning that we will not be able to plant and harvest the 1945 crops unless this idea is extended.

In communities where this is done on a large scale, it has been found to be a good idea to use a uniform scale of charges for labor and rental of machinery, he pointed out and cited a schedule of such figures in the pamphlet, "Cost of Operating Farm Machines," issued by the Department of Agricultural Economics, University of Illinois.

"These figures are based on average costs and cover the normal amount of risk involved on machinery when operated by the owner on the home farm," Johnston explained. "When machinery is being loaned, both parties should inspect it thoroughly before it leaves the farm, and they should have an understanding that the borrower will replace all parts that are broken while the machine is in his hands," he said.

Johnston suggested that neighbors who are now sharing machinery and labor get others interested in the plan and work out a program on a community or school district basis. "When it is put on a business basis, the plan can be used in all Illinois communities."

Those desiring a copy of the pamphlet, "Cost of Operating Farm Machines," should write for AE2156.

Illinois farmers set new records in phosphate use

Illinois farmers are continuing to increase the use of rock phosphate and limestone, acording to recent tonnage reports compiled by the soil improvement department of the Illinois Agricultural Association.

From figures supplied by the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, and the minerals section of the State Geological Survey, it appears that farmers of the state used 192,000 tons of rock phosphate, not including colloidal phosphate, and 3,700,000 tons of agricultural limestone in 1944. The 1943 figures for rock phosphate and limestone were 175,500 tons and 3,221,000 tons respectively.

The soil improvement department estimates that when colloidal phosphate tonnage is added, the rock phosphate figure for 1944 in Illinois will amount to more than 210,000 tons, the largest amount ever applied in one year to the farm soils of the state.

The use of commercial fertilizer increased from 114,000 tons in 1943 to 132,000 tons in 1944.

These totals indicate that farmers are taking action to maintain and improve the fertility of the soil while producing record wartime crops.

Rudy stopped in to check the milk. "Just had a letter from my boy," he said beaming. "Yes, in Germany; said he was all right—so far. Would you like to see his picture?" Reaching into his breast pocket for his wallet, he extracted a snap shot of a bright faced boy in service cap, a treasure he loved to show. "He's just twenty-one but he weighs more than I do, what do you know about that?" Proudly he stowed the snap away and went on his rounds.

Outlook for '45

V-E will not mean more grain for export; ask more chickens

Hog situation worst ever

A false alarm concerning the end of the war in Europe during the past week disclosed a grain market sensitive to two conflicting influences. Grain futures declined substantially Tuesday as a result of the false report and recovered just as rapidly the same day as a result of the extremely tight transportation situation. Nervous markets can be expected in the weeks ahead.

Optimists hope for substantial exports of grains to western Europe as soon as fighting ceases. Pessimists point out that European agriculture is not in a bad way and that there is plenty of grain for export from Canada and other countries.

It seems to me that most of Europe will have an opportunity to complete their spring plantings and that the European demand for foodstuffs, particularly grains, will be pretty well satisfied by fall. If we have to depend upon home consumption, we have more wheat than we need and we have plenty of feed grains to take care of the reduced number of livestock.

Livestock

The strong demand for livestock products of all kinds is well maintained. This was represented Thursday, March 22, when, as the result of competitive biddings on the part of all major buying interests and better than average quality, fat lambs at Chicago brought $17.10, a 16-year peak in prices paid at Chicago for fed lambs. Prices declined later as receipts increased. Hog prices continue at ceilings, and although the general quality of steers received has not been too high, demand continued broad.

The Office of Price Administration has appointed a hog industry advisory committee of nine members representing producers of live hogs. None are from Illinois. Reports are circulating that the Office of Price Administration is expected to take over the control of marketing and disposition of live hogs in the immediate future and to inaugurate a program of producer control and packer allocation of available supplies.

Monday, March 26, 20 of the biggest stockyards in the country handled 80 per-cent fewer hogs than the same day a year earlier. This is the greatest percentage decrease yet reported.

The situation is really critical, but about the only thing that can be done at this late date is to allocate the few hogs coming to market in such a way that fair treatment will be accorded members of the industry and all consuming groups.

Urge more chickens

Farmers are urged to produce more young chickens for marketing during the summer of 1945 and thus help to make up for a shortage of other meats during that period. In order to encourage this increase in production, an increase in ceiling prices to producers, averaging through the country about 1¼ cents per pound, has been authorized. The increase will be effective for the period July 1 through December 31 and will apply to broilers, fryers and roasters.

The solution to the problem appears to be for chicken raisers to grow one or two extra broods of chicks starting right away or to greatly increase the size of broods already in prospect. This is an urgent call for help from your government.

Nation-wide-dollar - and - cents ceiling prices on all types of hay, at all levels of distribution will go into effect May 1. Previously only alfalfa hay was under price control. It is entirely possible that price ceilings will cause a reduction in prices of hay in some deficit areas of Illinois.

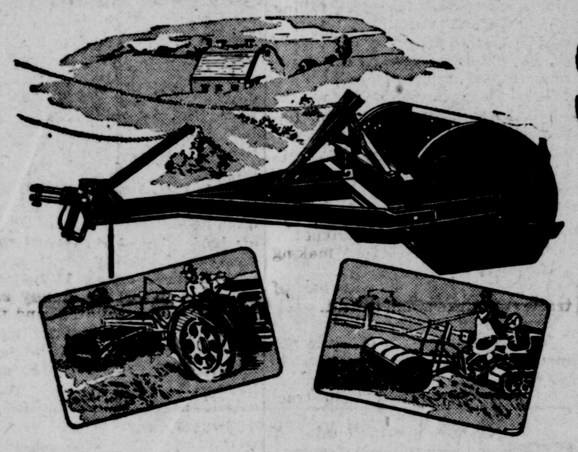

BARRINGTON

The will of Frank Kysilka, who died in Chicago January 11, leaving a $4,000 estate, has been admitted to probate. He left one third of his estate to his widow and ordered the other two-thirds to be divided equally between his ten children. Two children have since died. A daughter is Julia Lenney of Barrington.

This was represented Thursday, March 22, when, as the result of competitive biddings on the part of all major buying interests and better than average quality, fat lambs at Chicago brought $17.10, a 16-year peak in prices paid at Chicago for fed lambs. Prices declined later as receipts increased. Hog prices continue at ceilings, and although the general quality of steers received has not been too high, demand continued broad.

The Office of Price Administration has appointed a hog industry advisory committee of nine members representing producers of live hogs. None are from Illinois. Reports are circulating that the Office of Price Administration is expected to take over the control of marketing and disposition of live hogs in the immediate future and to inaugurate a program of producer control and packer allocation of available supplies.

Monday, March 26, 20 of the biggest stockyards in the country handled 80 per-cent fewer hogs than the same day a year earlier. This is the greatest percentage decrease yet reported.

The situation is really critical, but about the only thing that can be done at this late date is to allocate the few hogs coming to market in such a way that fair treatment will be accorded members of the industry and all consuming groups.

Urge more chickens

Farmers are urged to produce more young chickens for marketing during the summer of 1945 and thus help to make up for a shortage of other meats during that period. In order to encourage this increase in production, an increase in ceiling prices to producers, averaging through the country about 1¼ cents per pound, has been authorized. The increase will be effective for the period July 1 through December 31 and will apply to broilers, fryers and roasters.

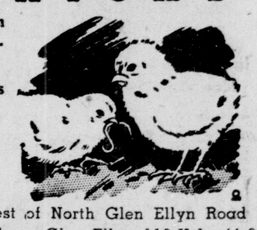

The solution to the problem appears to be for chicken raisers to grow one or two extra broods of chicks starting right away or to greatly increase the size of broods already in prospect. This is an urgent call for help from your government.

Nation-wide-dollar - and - cents ceiling prices on all types of hay, at all levels of distribution will go into effect May 1. Previously only alfalfa hay was under price control. It is entirely possible that price ceilings will cause a reduction in prices of hay in some deficit areas of Illinois.

BARRINGTON

The will of Frank Kysilka, who died in Chicago January 11, leaving a $4,000 estate, has been admitted to probate. He left one third of his estate to his widow and ordered the other two-thirds to be divided equally between his ten children. Two children have since died. A daughter is Julia Lenney of Barrington.

Vegetables

Homemakers who make economical purchases of plentiful vegetables at their local markets and then make too close a "trim" on their fresh produce not only lose money, but also parts that are generally richest in vitamins and minerals, the War Food Administration advises. The greener outside leaves of cabbage and lettuce, and the green outside stalks of celery have long been known to contain more minerals and vitamin A than the pale center, and recent studies show that the outside leaves of cabbage are also richer in vitamins B and C.

On retail markets today, most of these head vegetables sell by the pound. Sometimes as much as half the weight is in the outside parts, too often discarded by the home cook. A two pound head of cauliflower selling at 20 cents a pound, for example, actually costs 40 cents a pound when half its weight is trimmed off and only the white flowerlets are cooked. Though some trimming is always necessary to remove leaves or stalks that are damaged, bitter, or very tough, the rest of the greener outside part deserves to be saved and served with the center part of the vegetables. These outside parts can be made appetizing if carefully washed, cut into small pieces, and cooked a little longer.

Cabbage is one of the better buys this week, and the outside leaves of cabbage may be chopped and cooked, and the more tender inside leaves served raw in salad. The topped Texas beets are just as fresh as the bunched, but if those with fresh tops are purchased, the homemaker has two vegetables for the price of one. Supplies of celery are moderate, but the better quality is rather high in price. Green beans, eggplant, cucumbers, and head lettuce are all selling at ceiling levels.

Larger shipments of asparagus from California are the case this week, and the Godfrey section of Illinois is also sending some asparagus to the Chicago market. While still high, the price trend on this item has been lower the past few days.

Turnips, spinach and other greens, sweet potatoes and rutabagas are within the reach of average budgets for the most part. Midwestern apples are still the best buy in fruit, with oranges and grapefruit other standbys. Some bananas, pineapples, a few pears and grapes, rhubarb, and strawberries are other menu possibilities.

Postwar needs

Find one-third of all farm buildings are beyond repair

Farmers plan many changes

First, let's look at farm building conditions and needs. A study of 320 farms in 11 counties indicated these facts:

The general-purpose barn is the oldest of farm service buildings, averaging 40 years in age. About one-fourth are so old and worn out and in such poor structural condition that they should probably be replaced rather than repaired. The average depreciation is 51 per cent and only 33 per cent of the different parts are in good repair.

The machine sheds and garages are newer than the barns—only a little more than 25 years old—but their state of repair is poor. Only about one-third of the buildings or parts are in good condition. Nearly one-third are so badly worn and run down that they might be classed as unrepairable. More serious, though, for the machine storage need is their small size. The average size of 20 by 36 feet is far too small for the tractors, trucks, shop tools and farm machinery kept on most farms.

Poultry houses

Poultry houses have three faults: Nearly one-third are unrepairable, often having old ladder roosts, dirt floors and poor construction. More than one-half are too small for 100 hens, and only about one-tenth are large enough to accommodate 200 hens. Although the average age of the houses is only 21.7 years, more than one-half of the structural parts, such as floors, frames, walls and roofs, need repair or replacement.

Crop storages have two major faults so far as the buildings are concerned: First, they are not in good condition generally, but need bracing, straightening and repair; and second, there is not enough space to store the crops we are producing. Another need in crop storage is elevators and conveyors for moving the feed grains from the storage to the feed troughs.

In the judgment of the persons who made the repair-need survey, the four biggest farm service building improvement jobs are: barn conversion and repair, better poultry housing, bigger machine sheds and improved crop storage buildings. About three-fourths of the present buildings of all classes can be repaired.

Farmers' plans

Now let's examine farmers' intention to make improvements. This information was obtained in connection with studies of various post-war plans and is not therefore too complete. Still, it is an indication of what farmers are planning in the way of building improvement after the war.

A large proportion of the farm owners intend to add equipment to their homes and buildings—especially electrical equipment, sewage disposal systems, bathrooms and refrigerators. Another large group intend to make building repairs, such as reroofing, remodeling and painting.

One thousand farm owners in the group surveyed said they intended to build about 1,000 new permanent farm buildings within five years after the war. That's about one new building per farm (not including individual hog houses and small moveable buildings). About 20 per cent of these new buildings were machinery and equipment storages; about 19 per cent were crop storages; 12 per cent were poultry houses; and 9 per cent were barns.

From this analysis, it appears that 60 per cent of the new buildings on farms will be used for machinery, corn and grain, poultry and livestock. Others to be built include dwellings, garages, tool shops, cattle sheds and various other farm structures.

Tractor drivers given safety rules to follow

At least 2,000,000 farm tractors will be used in meeting this year's food production quotas, and the accident toll will be high unless the operators of these tractors are constantly on the alert, C. A. Hughes, Cook County Farm Advisor, said this week.

Figures of the National Safety Council show that in many states 50 per cent or more of the accidents with farm machinery involve tractors, Mr. Hughes said.

If the 1945 farm fatalities with tractors follow the pattern of past years, the principal causes of injuries will be overturning, falling from or being thrown off the tractor, accidents with power take-off shafts, accidents while cranking and accidents from fire and fumes.

Most of the tragedies can be avoided, Mr. Hughes said, by following these simple safety rules:

1. Avoid holes or ditches into which a wheel may drop and cause tractors to overturn.
2. Drive slowly — especially over rough ground or near ditches.
3. Reduce speed before making a turn or applying brakes.
4. Never ride on drawbar of tractor or drawn implement.
5. Never permit riders.
6. Do not attempt to make adjustments while the tractor is in motion.
7. Never dismount from tractor when it is in motion.
8. Always stop power take-off before dismounting from tractor.
9. Be sure that all power line shielding is in place.
10. Do not operate a tractor in a closed building or close to flammable materials.
11. Never refuel tractor while motor is running or extremely hot.
12. Be sure the gear shift lever is in neutral before cranking the engine.

Beneficiaries of old age act set by law

"I want to change the designation of my beneficiary under my old-age and survivors insurance account." That is a request occasionally received in the Evanston Social Security Board field office, manager McGuire stated today. She added that such requests indicate a misunderstanding of one provision of the Social Security Act."

"Beneficiaries of old-age and survivors insurance may not be designated by the insured worker," Miss McGuire explained. "The law designates them. Under the law, if a retired worker is receiving monthly benefits, supplemental monthly benfits are payable to his wife, if she is 65, and to his unmarried children under 18 years of age. When an insured worker dies, at whatever age, monthly benefits are payable to his widow when she is 65, or at any age if she has young children, and to his unmarried children under age 18. If he leaves no widow and no unmarried child under age 18, monthly benefits are payable to his parents if they are 65 and were wholly dependent upon him. The conditions for entitlement must, of course, be met in all cases. Where there is no survivor entitled to monthly payments, a single lump-sum payment is payable to the widow, widower, children, or parents, in that order of survival. If none of those survive, the lump sum is payable to the person who pays the funeral expenses from his own funds. From this it will be seen that the law designates the beneficiaries and gives no right of designation to the insured worker."

April frost hits apples; peaches in less danger

Freezing temperatures April 5 in some fruit-growing sections of Southern Illinois caused light to severe damage to the 1945 apple crop, according to L. L. Colvis, director of fruit and vegetable marketing for the Illinois Agricultural experienced north of Carbondale, Association.

Varying degrees of frost were April 5, Colvis reported, and damage estimates are from light to severe. At Centralia, reports indicated ice of one-quarter inch thickness. At Belleville, temperatures fell as low as 28 degrees.

Colvis reported that the areas south of Carbondale escaped the April 5 frost as far as he could determine from growers' reports.

Colvis' April 5 report indicated that the peach crop was not hurt much as trees were past the bloom stage. Unless there is another severe frost before Apr. 15, the peach crop should be a good one this year, Colvis said. He pointed out, however, that the blooming two weeks early this year of peach and apple trees had naturally increased the danger of damage from frosts.

'Very good' cows

Elroy Meyer, Roselle, has recently had his herd inspected and classified for type, the Holstein-Friesian Association of America announces today. The inspection was conducted by Thomas E. Elder, Alton, N. H., one of the eight officials appointed by the Association to do this work in the United States.

Among the animals classified in the Meyer herd, 4 were designated "very good"—the second highest score an animal can receive, and 6 were designated "good plus".

The type classification, combined with a production testing program, is used as a means of proving sires and locating outstanding brood cow families in an owner's herd.

Rural youth plan district schools

Plans are being developed for a series of district short courses for Illinois Rural Youth members, to be held in the late summer and fall according to Ellsworth D. Lyon, director of young people's activities for the Illinois Agricultural Association.

The area covered in each conference will be small enough, Lyon indicated, so that attendance will be more or less of a local nature and will entail little if any traveling.

Topics to be covered in the conferences will include new ideas on the business and scientific side of farming, homemaking, and leadership training. The short courses will be held at times that will not interfere with agricultural production.

Rural Youth members of Illinois at the present time are engaged in selecting names for three pieces of military equipment in recognition of their 1944 War Bond purchase campaign which totalled $300,000. Names have to be selected for an ambulance plane, amphibious jeep and a pursuit plane.

During 1945, Illinois Rural Youth members are cooperating with the Red Cross on a county level of activities. They have been working on the Red Cross War Fund drive, serving in canteens at railroad stations, and forming blood donor groups. They have also held benefit parties for the purpose of collecting funds for the Red Cross.

When an insured worker dies, at whatever age, monthly benefits are payable to his widow when she is 65, or at any age if she has young children, and to his unmarried children under age 18. If he leaves no widow and no unmarried child under age 18, monthly benefits are payable to his parents if they are 65 and were wholly dependent upon him. The conditions for entitlement must, of course, be met in all cases. Where there is no survivor entitled to monthly payments, a single lump-sum payment is payable to the widow, widower, children, or parents, in that order of survival. If none of those survive, the lump sum is payable to the person who pays the funeral expenses from his own funds. From this it will be seen that the law designates the beneficiaries and gives no right of designation to the insured worker."

April frost hits apples; peaches in less danger

Freezing temperatures April 5 in some fruit-growing sections of Southern Illinois caused light to severe damage to the 1945 apple crop, according to L. L. Colvis, director of fruit and vegetable marketing for the Illinois Agricultural experienced north of Carbondale, Association.

Varying degrees of frost were April 5, Colvis reported, and damage estimates are from light to severe. At Centralia, reports indicated ice of one-quarter inch thickness. At Belleville, temperatures fell as low as 28 degrees.

Colvis reported that the areas south of Carbondale escaped the April 5 frost as far as he could determine from growers' reports.

Colvis' April 5 report indicated that the peach crop was not hurt much as trees were past the bloom stage. Unless there is another severe frost before Apr. 15, the peach crop should be a good one this year, Colvis said. He pointed out, however, that the blooming two weeks early this year of peach and apple trees had naturally increased the danger of damage from frosts.

'Very good' cows

Elroy Meyer, Roselle, has recently had his herd inspected and classified for type, the Holstein-Friesian Association of America announces today. The inspection was conducted by Thomas E. Elder, Alton, N. H., one of the eight officials appointed by the Association to do this work in the United States.

Among the animals classified in the Meyer herd, 4 were designated "very good"—the second highest score an animal can receive, and 6 were designated "good plus".

The type classification, combined with a production testing program, is used as a means of proving sires and locating outstanding brood cow families in an owner's herd.

Rural youth plan district schools

Plans are being developed for a series of district short courses for Illinois Rural Youth members, to be held in the late summer and fall according to Ellsworth D. Lyon, director of young people's activities for the Illinois Agricultural Association.

The area covered in each conference will be small enough, Lyon indicated, so that attendance will be more or less of a local nature and will entail little if any traveling.

Topics to be covered in the conferences will include new ideas on the business and scientific side of farming, homemaking, and leadership training. The short courses will be held at times that will not interfere with agricultural production.

Rural Youth members of Illinois at the present time are engaged in selecting names for three pieces of military equipment in recognition of their 1944 War Bond purchase campaign which totalled $300,000. Names have to be selected for an ambulance plane, amphibious jeep and a pursuit plane.

During 1945, Illinois Rural Youth members are cooperating with the Red Cross on a county level of activities. They have been working on the Red Cross War Fund drive, serving in canteens at railroad stations, and forming blood donor groups. They have also held benefit parties for the purpose of collecting funds for the Red Cross.

The Father in secret is unseen to the physical senses, but He knows all things and rewards according to motives, not according to speech. —Mary Baker Eddy.

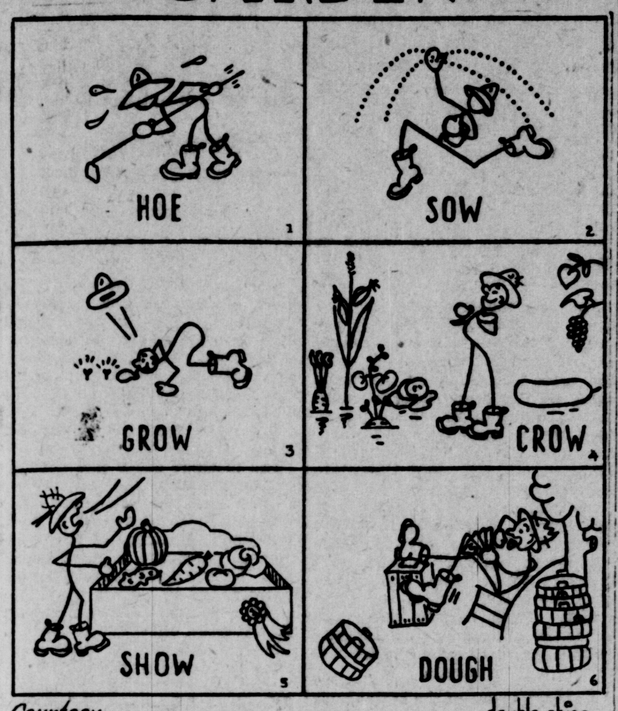

Men are more accountable for their motives, than for anything else and primarily, morarlity consists in the motives, that is in the affections. —Archibald Alexander.

The World of Aviation

A Giant Grows Up

Last year the American aviation industry produced 96,369 planes. How much is 96,369 planes?

With the naked eye, the greatest number of stars you could see on the clearest night would be about 3,000. That means 3,000 tiny specks.

Except at five miles or more above the ground, planes are not tiny specks. Three thousand planes in your sky above your house at one time would blot out the sun like a plague of locusts. And 96,369, spaced at 500-foot intervals, would make a solid mat of planes 96 miles long and ten miles wide; enough to blanket Manhattan Island several times over.

This picture of today's aviation as a giant grown up must be grasped to get a clear idea of what aviation may become—and what aviation may do for you. Think of a few more comparisons:

If we conservatively figure that each of these 96,369 aircraft will carry five passengers (many were built to carry 100), we can figure that that swarm of planes could fly almost a half million persons from New York to San Francisco at one time.

Are you thinking—like the Pilgrim fathers—of settling in new and undeveloped country? Those 96,369 airplanes could fly all of New York City's teeming millions to anywhere in two weeks. In six months they could empty the country.

Twenty Billion Dollars

Just how much has this giant grown?

Before the war, aviation was a $130,000,000-a-year industry. Last year, aviation was not merely the nation's leading industry. It was the world's leading industry. In the United States, the financial side of aviation last year wrote down for one year's business: twenty billion dollars!

Already, this giant has dipped into the lives of most of us in one way or another. We all know boys who have joined the 4,000,000 in our air force, or we know men or women who have gotten jobs in aircraft plants—or in the thousands of subsidiary factories that supply the aircraft plants. Perhaps we live near one of the vast new plane or engine plants that stand today where there was farm land only a few years ago.

Aviation has grown in numbers—in dollars—in the number of men and women who participate in it. It has grown in the sheer space of factories and airports necessary to produce and operate the planes.

Technical Growth

But has aviation grown in quality as well as quantity?

Judge for yourself.

Today aviation can make larger airplanes that fly faster with more cargo: The world's largest production-type cargo plane, the giant Cyclone-powered Boeing C-97, flew across the country in six hours and three minutes.

Today, more planes can get into the sky, fly long distances, and get back safely: In a recent bombing raid on Germany, 15,000 of our planes took to the skies in three days.

Today, planes stand up under gruelling wartime conditions: there are records of planes that have been flown in action week after week, from Pearl Harbor on; the engines in at least a dozen Flying Fortresses have logged 1,000 hours or more of flying without the need of important repairs—the equivalent of flying ten times or more around the world without difficulty.

Today, planes can "see" better than their pilots: by electronic instruments, they have bombed targets from five miles high—through clouds! By instruments, they land in fog, at night. By instruments, they speed through the night to shoot down enemy craft their crews never see.

Gems of thought

INTENTION

The consciousness of good intentions is the greatest solace in misfortune. —Cicero.

The Father in secret is unseen to the physical senses, but He knows all things and rewards according to motives, not according to speech. —Mary Baker Eddy.

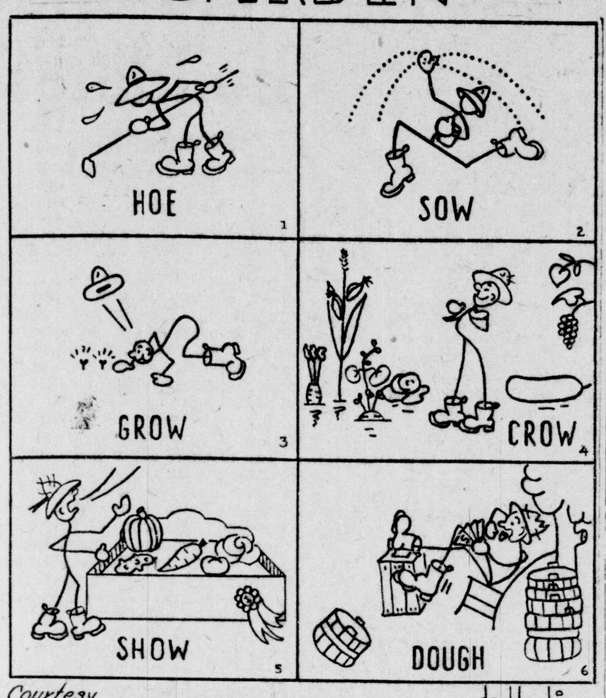

Men are more accountable for their motives, than for anything else and primarily, morarlity consists in the motives, that is in the affections. —Archibald Alexander.

He who would arrive at the appointed end must follow a single road and not wander through many ways. —Seneca.

The one prudence in life in concentration; the one evil is dissipation: and it makes no difference whether our dissipations are coarse or fine. —Emerson.

He gains no wind that has no port in view,
But drifteth vainly with a listless crew;
The favoring breeze for him with firm-held helm—
No storm or breakers can him overwhelm.

The World of Aviation

A Giant Grows Up

Last year the American aviation industry produced 96,369 planes. How much is 96,369 planes?

With the naked eye, the greatest number of stars you could see on the clearest night would be about 3,000. That means 3,000 tiny specks.

Except at five miles or more above the ground, planes are not tiny specks. Three thousand planes in your sky above your house at one time would blot out the sun like a plague of locusts. And 96,369, spaced at 500-foot intervals, would make a solid mat of planes 96 miles long and ten miles wide; enough to blanket Manhattan Island several times over.

This picture of today's aviation as a giant grown up must be grasped to get a clear idea of what aviation may become—and what aviation may do for you. Think of a few more comparisons:

If we conservatively figure that each of these 96,369 aircraft will carry five passengers (many were built to carry 100), we can figure that that swarm of planes could fly almost a half million persons from New York to San Francisco at one time.

Are you thinking—like the Pilgrim fathers—of settling in new and undeveloped country? Those 96,369 airplanes could fly all of New York City's teeming millions to anywhere in two weeks. In six months they could empty the country.

Twenty Billion Dollars

Just how much has this giant grown?

Before the war, aviation was a $130,000,000-a-year industry. Last year, aviation was not merely the nation's leading industry. It was the world's leading industry. In the United States, the financial side of aviation last year wrote down for one year's business: twenty billion dollars!

Already, this giant has dipped into the lives of most of us in one way or another. We all know boys who have joined the 4,000,000 in our air force, or we know men or women who have gotten jobs in aircraft plants—or in the thousands of subsidiary factories that supply the aircraft plants. Perhaps we live near one of the vast new plane or engine plants that stand today where there was farm land only a few years ago.

Aviation has grown in numbers—in dollars—in the number of men and women who participate in it. It has grown in the sheer space of factories and airports necessary to produce and operate the planes.

Technical Growth

But has aviation grown in quality as well as quantity?

Judge for yourself.

Today aviation can make larger airplanes that fly faster with more cargo: The world's largest production-type cargo plane, the giant Cyclone-powered Boeing C-97, flew across the country in six hours and three minutes.

Today, more planes can get into the sky, fly long distances, and get back safely: In a recent bombing raid on Germany, 15,000 of our planes took to the skies in three days.

Today, planes stand up under gruelling wartime conditions: there are records of planes that have been flown in action week after week, from Pearl Harbor on; the engines in at least a dozen Flying Fortresses have logged 1,000 hours or more of flying without the need of important repairs—the equivalent of flying ten times or more around the world without difficulty.

Today, planes can "see" better than their pilots: by electronic instruments, they have bombed targets from five miles high—through clouds! By instruments, they land in fog, at night. By instruments, they speed through the night to shoot down enemy craft their crews never see.

Praises Red Cross for work in England

Chaplain Stevens calls unit 'indispensable'

Generous support by the American public for the continuance of the work of the American Red Cross in U. S. Army General hospitals in England, is urged by Capt. Edwin I. Stevens, Mt. Prospect, protestant chaplain at one of the hospitals in southern England.

Concerning the activities of the Red Cross hospital workers, Chaplain Stevens makes this comment:

"During the two years of my work as an Army chaplain, I have found the help of the American Red Cross indispensable. I have had to call on them for assistance many times and have always met with a ready response.

"In this over-seas General hospital the American Red Cross workers carry on an absolutely essential task in maintaining the morale and assisting in the solution of the problems of patients. The library facilities, the handicraft projects, the parties, recreation and entertainment features, for both bed and ambulatory patients do much to avoid boredom, irritability and worry and to provide interesting and worthy ways of occupying time while medical skill and nature's powers bring about a return to physical health. Physical recovery is certainly aided by maintaining good mental attitudes, and the Red Cross program fills a large place in achieving that end.

"The ability and willingness of the Red Cross to secure adequate and up-to-date information about the folks at home who are ill is, in itself, of greatest benefit in lifting loads of worry from the minds of many patients.

"The cheerful friendliness of all the American Red Cross workers, and their patient and untiring efforts to be helpful to all, have earned them the respect and gratitude of every patient who passes through the hospital. As the hospital chaplain, I can say that our work would be infinitely more difficult and undoubtedly less adequately performed without the American Red Cross. I unhesitatingly commend their work and urge that everyone who can do so give them generous support for its continuance."

Chaplain Stevens was born in East Poultney, Vt., and was graduated from Colgate University, Hamilton, N. Y. in 1932. He was an instructor of public speaking at Colgate from 1930 to 1934 and received his B. D. degree from Colgate-Rochester Divinity school, Rochester, N. Y. in 1937. During his undergraduate days he held brief pastorates at Georgetown, N. Y.; New Hartford, N. Y.; Earlville, N. Y., and Parma Corners, N. Y., all Baptist churches. Chaplain Stevens was pastor of The South Church, Community Baptist, Mt. Prospect, from 1937 to 1943.

His career as an army chaplain began December 31, 1942. Capt. Stevens is married and the father of three children, all living at 312 Hi Lusi ave., Mt. Prospect.

"I've been wanting to write and say something for some time now but for some unknown reason have been putting it off. Then I realized this column wouldn't be possible if guys and gals didn't write occasionally.

"I, myself, have been receiving the Herald fairly regularly and although late, enjoy it very much as it's all news to me.

"Of course you've all heard about Italy, a G. I.'s nightmare. That's where I'm situated at present. The countryside is very pretty from the air, however. Of course on the ground the dust is flowing with great gusto and as spring proceeds the lizards and mice are renting the tents out. Already it's getting very hot but I'm glad it is here as it's warmer at altitude also.

"I'm getting those missions in fairly fast but naturally can't wait to finish up and come home. I wish the gang luck and hope the war ends soon for everybody's sake."

"I guess I can't kick on this deal Uncle Sam gave me. It's interesting and possibly useful to my future.

"I had quite a surprise my first day here when I came upon Jim Hayden: I not only saw him but was put into the same barracks that he was. We'll also probably graduate together. From there anything can happen.

"I want to thank all who have kept me in touch with Arlington, most of it, of course, being through the 'Herald.'"

Chaplain D. C. Morrison of Wheeling, who is with the 199th General Hospital somewhere in Brittany, writes as follows:

"We have had a very busy week and tomorrow, Easter, will finish it. We two protestant chaplains will hold six services. I have one at 6:30 a. m., 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m. Yesterday we had a three hour Good Friday service. There is a large Catholic church every three or four blocks in this city and only one small Protestant church. I visit the pastor's home nearly every week. They are lovely people. Their home was struck by an American bomb and severely damaged. They have so little and are so grateful when I bring them a little sugar or candy and a bar of soap is received almost with tears. Here everything has been rationed, food, clothing and firewood. Coal cannot be had. Most homes had no heat this winter, but fortunately the weather was not too severe. Things are slowly improving. Regards to all."

Provide plenty of work for Germans after war

From Germany this week comes a letter from Marvin and Norman Russell of Arlington Heights.

"First of all, Norm and I are now in Germany. We have been here for some time, but just have not had the time to write. We have done quite a bit of traveling since we came to Germany.

"We have crossed the Roer. I, for one, was very disappointed when we crossed the Roer. The way the papers had played up the greatness of the river I thought it was really some thing, but it is not much larger than the Des Plaines river.

"But the thing that made it so hazardous was the dams and the swiftness of the river. A town just the other side of the Roer is a total mess. The air corps did a wonderful job on that town.

"To me it looks worse than St. Lo in France. In St. Lo there were a few stores and shops left intact, so the people could start up their businesses again. But that is not true here. There is nothing left, just a few walls left standing, and maybe a few homes, which after a little work may be used to live in again.

"If the Russians are doing as thorough a job as the Yanks, there surely will be no unemployment in Germany after the war. And by all reports, it can't last much longer, I hope. Anybody that is interested in engineering and contracting, this is the country to come to. Your first million is practically guaranteed.

"Norm and I have a new APO No. It is 339, so please change that on any letters our friends may write, and also on the paper. For a while we were not getting the Herald, at the time of the bulge. But now they have all finally caught up with us, and everything is rosy again.

"Norm and I are still running the tool trucks, chasing parts, etc. The picture was taken in Belgium. It is supposed to be Norm and I."

Their address is Pfc. Marvin Russell, 36677383, APO 339, % P M, New York, N. Y.

"First of all, Norm and I are now in Germany. We have been here for some time, but just have not had the time to write. We have done quite a bit of traveling since we came to Germany.

"We have crossed the Roer. I, for one, was very disappointed when we crossed the Roer. The way the papers had played up the greatness of the river I thought it was really some thing, but it is not much larger than the Des Plaines river.

"But the thing that made it so hazardous was the dams and the swiftness of the river. A town just the other side of the Roer is a total mess. The air corps did a wonderful job on that town.

"To me it looks worse than St. Lo in France. In St. Lo there were a few stores and shops left intact, so the people could start up their businesses again. But that is not true here. There is nothing left, just a few walls left standing, and maybe a few homes, which after a little work may be used to live in again.

"If the Russians are doing as thorough a job as the Yanks, there surely will be no unemployment in Germany after the war. And by all reports, it can't last much longer, I hope. Anybody that is interested in engineering and contracting, this is the country to come to. Your first million is practically guaranteed.

"Norm and I have a new APO No. It is 339, so please change that on any letters our friends may write, and also on the paper. For a while we were not getting the Herald, at the time of the bulge. But now they have all finally caught up with us, and everything is rosy again.

"Norm and I are still running the tool trucks, chasing parts, etc. The picture was taken in Belgium. It is supposed to be Norm and I."

Ralph Hauptly missing in raid over Austria

Word was received last week that 2nd Lt. Ralph Hauptly of Mt. Prospect has been missing since March 23 when he piloted his bomber over Austria. Ralph is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hauptly of Mt. Prospect. His wife is the former Marilyn Framberg of Arlington Heights.

Lt. Hauptly had arrived in Italy in January of this year, joining a veteran B-24 group. He had flown several missions before his last flight, and was just recently awarded the Air Medal.

Lt. Hauptly signed up for the Air Corps November 26 of 1942. He reported January 30, 1943, at Miami Beach, Florida, to begin training. In March Ralph was transferred to Whittenburg college at Springfield, Ohio.

Lt. Hauptly completed his training at Whittenburg in June, and was transferred to San Antonio, Texas, for the second part of his training. He was later transferred to Lubbock, Texas, where he was awarded his wings May 26 of 1944.

Ralph then reported to Dodge City, Kansas June 4, later going on to Liberal, Kansas. He came home the end of August, where on August 27 he married Miss Marilyn Framberg of Arlington Heights. He then reported to Lincoln, Nebraska. His wife joined him at Mountain Home, Idaho.

After another furlough in December Lt Hauptly reported to Topeka, Kansas, Christmas Eve of '44. He immediately went overseas to Italy.

Elections will close taverns

Public may hear Lt. Breese Friday

Lt. Minnie Breese of Arlington Heights has returned home after being released from Santo Thomas, Jap prison camp in Manila in the Philippines. In an interview this week, With Uncle Sam presents many of her experiences as told by her.

The story tells of the starvation diet supplied the prisoners, of the many indignities suffered by them, and of life in general in Jap hands. Lt. Breese emphatically states that her life among civilian internees was nothing compared to treatment accorded U. S. soldiers in other camps, but her story certainly will attract no one to Japan. It can be found on page one of the second section.

An opportunity to the general public to hear, first hand, of the experiences of Lt. Minnie Breese in the Jap prison camp in Manila this Friday is offered by Arlington Heights high school. A school assembably will be held at 2:30 p. m. in the high school auditorium where Lt. Breese will speak.

PTA speaker practices, talks democratic life

At its next to the last meeting of the school year on Tuesday, Apr. 17, the Arlington Heights PTA will hear a talk by Mr. Viggo Bovjerg of the National College of Education—a man who believes in democratic living and puts his belief into practice.

Mr. Bovjerg, besides being on the staff of a progressive school, conducts a summer camp for boys—the Bo-Family Farm camp in Greenville, Michigan, about 35 miles from Grand Rapids. Activity on the 100 acre farm centers around its actual management. If a dam is needed the boys help to build it. Mr. Bovjerg's own family goes each summer to the camp.

The educator has written numerous books and is also receiving wide recognition for his invention and production of toys—among them large and fascinating jointed animals.

"A Philosophy for Democratic Living" will be a highly meaningful talk coming from Mr. Bovjerg. Parents and teachers are looking forward to hearing him. The meeting will be at North school.

Lions to hear expert on GI bill Tuesday

LeRoy Listug will speak on the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944 at the Arlington Heights Lions Club meeting Tuesday evening, April 17, at 7:30 o'clock. All who are interested are welcome to come and hear him.

Mr. Listug is Executive Vice President of the Central National Bank of Chicago and has made a special study of this bill which is commonly known as the G. I. Bill. As a result his services have been in constant demand throughout the Chicago Metropolitan area, and we are fortunate in having him come to Arlington Heights.

The G. I. Bill has many features that the home folks should know about so that when G. I. Joe steps off the train his or her church, his club, his nighbors, and his parents can help serve his needs, wants and desires with well informed and helpful suggestions. Mr. Listug has hinted that many boys have already returned and are not taking full advantage of opportunities provided in this bill. He will also call attention to some false information that has been given in regard to it.

A committee meeting is being called this week represented by as many organizations as possible in the Arlington Heights area as a preview to the meeting next Tuesday evening. The Veteran's Guide will be supplied on request to each organization or returned veteran.

Our American Legion is actively engaged in digesting the bill and has its committee working diligently. Every case will require special analysis and treatment.

May we all lend our support in this major post war objective. Let's see to it that the Vets receive every benefit that they are rightfully entitled to.

You are cordially invited to come and hear Mr. Listug speak on this important topic at the Lutheran school at 7:30 o'clock next Tuesday evening.

Ask women to hasten clothes collection

This week, Thursday and Friday, are the dates when Arlington Heights school pupils are asked to bring used clothing to the school houses. This clothing is greatly needed by the needy in Europe, and Arlington Heights is joining other communities throughout the nation this month in supplying the need.

There is still a lot of unused clothing in the closets, wardrobes and attics of Arlington Heights homes. A hasty trip about the clothing depots Wednesday morning indicates that a lot of housewives have delayed in collecting their clothing.

Mrs. Coleman and Mayor Goedke who are in charge of the clothing drive in Arlington Heights, are optimistic and are confident that with this reminder residents who have not yet taken time to make the collection will do so. It was originally hoped that the collection could be completed by the 15th. That date can still be met if the housewives will respond this week end.. The clothing depots are church basements of the Presbyterian, Methodist and St. John churches, St. James school basement, St. Peter parish house, Christian Science church, and the public schools (Thursday and Friday of this week).

The village truck will make collections for those who can not take their clothing to the churches or schools. Phone No. 6 and the truck will call.

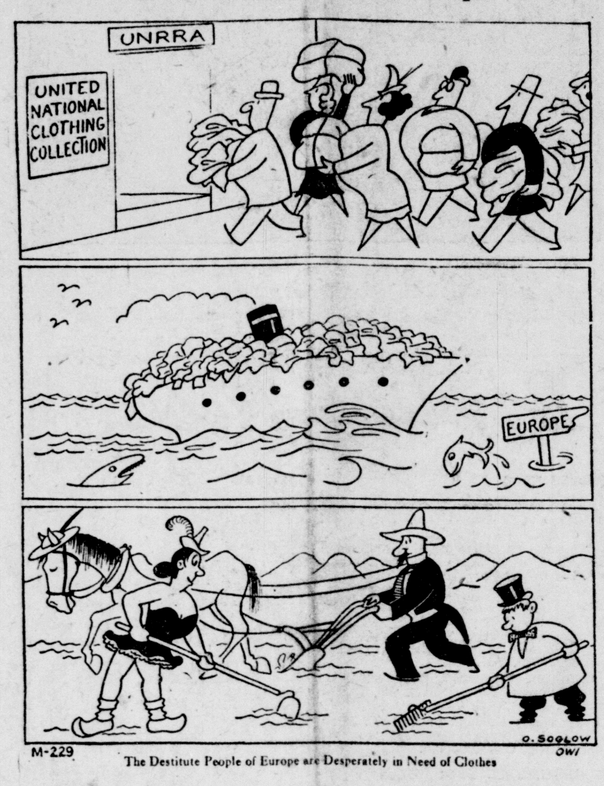

Mrs. Coleman reports that she has received so much assurance of cooperation from all those with whom she has been in contact, she thinks that all goals will be met, but she urges DO IT NOW—TODAY. Get the package ready, phone the village hall if you can not make a personal delivery.

Gets a real priority

Chas. Close of Arlington Seating Co., has asked for many priorities and he does not always get them, but it was different Wednesday. He had placed his order with Babyland for a son. In asking for the required priority rating that a first son requires, he made a lot of promises to Mrs. Close. Well, Charley is now the daddy of as fine a son as ever came out of babyland, says he.

The only fly in the ointment for daddy is a realization that those priority promises will take a lot of his time, such as putting the youngster asleep one night a week, answering all night calls that he may make and forgetting some of his expressive vocabulary about the house. "But it's worth it," says Charley.

School election Sat., April 14

Saturday, April 14, elections will be held in all school districts. Schools that operate under Boards of Education have designated polling hours, with printed ballots, nominations for which were filed two weeks ago. Rural schools will hold both their nomination caucus and elections Saturday evening.

Candidates for boards of education and polling hours are as follows:

Arlington Heights High School

Polls open from 12 noon to 7:00 p. m. Precinct No. 1, village hall, Arlington Heights; No. 2, public school building, Mt. Prospect. Pros. He ghts will vote at Mt. Prospect. The dividing line is Busse and Buffalo Grove roads. The candidates are Clarence I. Davis for president; Walter C. Hanauer and Elmer F. Laurin for members.

Arlington Elementary School

Polls open from noon to 7:00 p. m. at village hall, Arlington Heights. Candidates are: Nicholas M. Lattof for president; A. G. Cubley and W. L. Fellingham for members for full term; A. E. Goldthwaite for one year term.

It is necessary to elect a school trustee for the entire Wheeling township this year. The polls will be open from noon to 3:00 o'clock as follows: Voters of districts 25 and 26 will vote at the northside school, Arlington Heights; districts 20 and 21 at Wheeling public school; districts 23 and 24 at Prospect Heights school. The candidate is Otto Andersen of Wheeling.

Mt. Prospect, Elk Grove pass Red Cross war fund quota

Although cash is still being received by Geo. L. Busse, Red Cross drive chairman for Mt. Prospect and Elk Grove, the $3,200 quota was passed last week. Actual cash to date is $3,329. That amount does not include any of the credits that may later be credited to the community.

Mr. Busse says the credit should go to the workers who made the canvass, the public who contributed so generously and also to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Lions Club, Mt. Prospect Catholic Woman's Club and Mt. Prospect Woman's Club for their liberal contributions.

"Another war job has been well done by the home front of Mt. Prospect and Elk Grove. My thanks go to all", states Mr. Busse.

Blame wiring short in loss of car and garage at Palatine

H. A. Hoover, residing in Greater Palatine, a mile west of the village, blames a short in the wiring of his Plymouth coach for the loss of the car, his garage, and valuable tools that were destroyed by fire Saturday afternoon. The Palatine Rural Fire Department saved the house, which was only 35 feet distant.

The blaze was discovered by Albert DePue, a neighbor, who notified the Hoovers. The fire had gained such headway that the use of hand fire extinguishers was not sufficient. Included in the loss is an outboard motor, considerable fishing tackle, electric drill, spraying outfit, screens, etc. Fortunately, Mr. Hoover's truck was not in the garage at that time.

Village election next Tuesday

Next Tuesday is the date for the village election. It promises to be a quiet election. There is no opposition for any of the village offices and the public has placed its stamp of approval on the four year administration of Albert W. Goedke.

During the past four years of war and skyrocketing prices the village administration has held an even keel; it has kept expenditures at a minimum and consequently its tax levy down to what was actually needed.

Aided by better times and higher percentage of tax collections and by the exercise of economy the municipality is in a better financial condition today than at any time in recent years. The village administration has taken an active part in all war activities, civilian defense war fund drives, victory bond drives and aided the many projects that are helping to win this war.

The ticket which is running unopposed at Tuesday's election under the name of Service Party includes the following candidates:

Albert W. Goedke for village president.

Forrest F. Davis for village clerk.

William G. Franke, Fred H. Kehe, Rudolph J. Rizzi for members of the board of trustees.

Candidates for the library board are C. H. Mills and Irma Grose.

The above candidates have easy sailing with no opposition, but they deserve more than just a complimentary vote next Tuesday. The voters should take enough interest in the service they are giving to go to the polls that day.

Three more teachers are dismissed

On Thursday, April 5, three more high school teachers, John L. Grose, Earle L. Joyner and Miss Carey Clark, were handed notices of dismissal, to take effect June 7, 1945.

Miss Carey Clark has been associated with the school for a number of years as a teacher of Home Economics, English, and History. Many of the homes in Arlington Heights have benefitted by her suggestions in the household arts. Miss Clark is a well qualified teacher, having a Master of Arts degree in home economics from the University of Colorado.

John L. Grose has been with the local school for many years. He has served as coach and teacher in mathematics, and shop. He has served as assistant principal for the past six years. Mr. Grose holds a Masters degree from Northwestern University.

Earl L. Joyner became a member of the high school faculty four years ago. He has taught science and has been a very successful coach of basketball and baseball. Mr. Joyner also holds a Masters degree from Northwestern University.

With the dismissal of Mr. Grose and Mr. Joyner the entire coaching staff has been changed this year.

All of these teachers have had a sincere interest in the school and have helped materially in its de-

This makes a total of seven teachers who have been dismissed in the past four weeks.

MANY CHILDREN ARE BITTEN BY DOGS

The police department reports that a number of Arlington Heights children have been bitten by dogs recently. In some cases the dogs belonged to the family of the person bitten. Chief Skoog urges parents to warn their children not to play with dogs or to tease them.

New members take over the park board

Pay tribute to service of three retiring members

Last Wednesday evening, with the inauguration of the newly elected Arlington Heights Park Commissioners, three members of the previous board, two of whom had served since the formation of the Park District, retired from their duties.

Commissioners George Volz and Paul Taege, both of whom were instrumental in the founding of our present Park System and the construction of the swimming pool, field house, tennis courts, and other facilities, gave much of their personal time during their terms in office to give Arlington Heights one of the best parks in the suburban territory.

The third member leaving office is Marion Hogate, who had been appointed several years ago to fill a vacancy existing on the Board of Commissioners. Although Hogate's term of service was short, his work in trying to establish a supervised recreational program will be used as the basis for formulating future supervised play activities.

After the new board assumed office, electing Robert Beatty, senior member of the Board, president, and Elroy Harris, the only other member to hold over vice-president, the first business was the adoption of the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED: That the Commissioners of the Arlington Heights Park District extend, in behalf of the Residents of Arlington Heights, most sincere thanks and appreciation of the many years of faithful, dutiful and intelligent services performed by George K. Volz and Paul C. Taege, now retiring members of the Park District.

BE IT RESOLVED: That special recognition be given to these two members for services rendered and diligent guidance of the construction of the Field House, swimming Pool and many other park facilities which the Village of Arlington Heights now so proudly boast.

BE IT RESOLVED: The devotion displayed to Park District affairs by George K. Volz and Paul C. Taege will be a high example to all present and future generation residents of Arlington Heights.

BE IT RESOLVED: That the Board extend to Marion C. Hogate, retiring member, the sincere thanks of the Community for his interest and work as a Park Commissioner. His attention to Recreational work prior to being a board member and thereafter was commendable.

Committees to carry out the operation of the Park District were appointed by President Beatty as follows: building and grounds, Walter Kroeber and Nat Burfeind; recreation, Eddie Wahl and Elroy Harris; finance, Nat Burfeind and Walter Kroeber; publicity, Elroy Harris and Eddie Wahl. The first party named is the chairman of each committee. Superintendent of the Park District, Alfred Blume, will continue in that capacity. Elmer Crane was appointed secretary and Glen Benson treasurer.

Need cooperation

Although real summer is many weeks away a general discussion regarding the problems of providing necessary facilities for supervised recreational activities occurred at the first meeting of the new Arlington Heights Park Board last week. The matter was discussed by the board members with a number of visitors who were present to witness the inauguration of the new members.

It was definitely pointed out that the Park Commissioners will endeavor to make available all necessary facilities needed to carry on a supervised recreational program, but that success of such a program will depend on an unlimited amount of backing by the organizations who are interested in seeing a supervised play program maintained, at least during the vacation period.

Early returns in boy scout drive look encouraging

Early returns of the Financial Drive of the Boy Scouts of America in Arlington Heights prove highly encouraging. Due to the Easter Holiday many of the men working on the Drive have not completed their work and final tabulations will be printed in next week's paper.

A splendid reception is being reported by the solicitors. Business men and residents alike are showing an active interest in the plans for this summer's scouting program for our rising generation. Vacations are in the making and again we acknowledge with thanks the generous support you are contributing to the welfare of our young people.

If for any reason you have not been contacted by a solicitor your contribution may be made at the local bank to be credited to the Boy Scouts of America.

High School board makes a statement

The Board of Education of the Arlington Heights Township High School District sincerely believes, that as a general policy, it should not enter into a public debate, either through the press or otherwise, on certain problems which have recently confronted the Board in the High School.

However, the Board believes that the residents of the High School District, to whom the Board, as their duly elected representatives, are responsible, are entitled to a general report and statement by the Board because of the many rumors and recent publicity given by others to the present situation.

In selecting a new principal for the High School, the Board believed it had a positive duty to solicit the applications of all qualified educators who might be interested in the position, regardless of where they might live or whom they might be. The Board further believed it had a positive duty to select from these applicants the one they believed to be best qualified to assume the responsibility of educational leadership for the High School in the community. As a result of this policy the Board received and carefully examined and considered credentials from in excess of 100 applicants, and had personal interviews with 8 applicants. After further checking with educational institutions, and interviewing citizens and Board members from the applicant's community, as to the character, integrity and ability of the applicant, and visiting his former school, the Board of Education was unanimous in the selection of the present principal.

The Board expected any new principal to have new ideas that he might wish to put into effect. They further expected any new principal to cooperate with other schools in the community, make suggestions of possible educational advancements for the school, suggest possible curriculum changes wherever it might be for the best interest of the pupils and in general to assume leadership of the High School in the educational program of the community. The Board fully expected that any new principal coming into the school might make minor errors, due to his unfamiliarity with the school.

The Board believed that to have a successful school program, all of the staff members of the school would have to cooperate, and to that end, expected the faculty to welcome any new principal selected by the Board and join with him in studying, discussing, at proper times and places, and supporting, such new ideas for the improvement of the school as might be placed in effect. The Board further expected the faculty through frank and sincere discussions with the new principal of educational problems, to develop a program for the educational advancement of the school. They further expected, that if personal differences arose between the faculty members and the new principal, that they would be discussed at the proper times and places, and after a decision had been reached, all members of the school staff would support the decision even though it might be different than their personal desires or opinions. The Board further expected from all staff members a spirit of loyalty to each other, to the students, the community and to the Board and the centering of attention on an educational program for the school rather than upon personal grievances.

While no official request was ever made to the Board, because of rumors, gossip and mistaken impressions circulating through the community, the Board was required to call all faculty members to a meeting. Considerable time was spent in listening to, investigating and considering complaints of certain faculty members. It should be noted that the statement has been made in a meeting attended by all of the school staff and Board members, and has been unchallenged, that the Board had gone farther in listening to and considering complaints from the faculty than any other Board in Illinois in recent times.

After thoroughly studying the complaints as disclosed in these meetings, conferring at length with Educational Leaders, and after careful and impartial consideration of all matters raised, the Board, at a meeting of all members of the Board, faculty and administrator, reported to the faculty that by far the majority of the criticisms were trivial or personal matters and had no bearing on the educational welfare of the school; that the remainder of the criticisms, including those attacking the honesty and integrity of the principal, had been carefully investigated by the Board and found to have no basis in fact; that the principal had the complete faith and confidence of the Board; that the criticisms having been discussed, there was no reason why a good working spirit should not be developed; that if, after careful consideration, a member or members of the faculty could not be satisfied and cooperate in their present position as teachers, the Board would accept their resignation effective at the end of the school year; that in the future the Board expected grievances to be presented to the principal by the groups and presenting implied demands to the Board.

Since that report was made by the Board many rumors and statements have persisted. The Board believes that care should be taken teachers before organizing into in weighing these, to see that all facts are known, and then that they should be examined in the light of whether they are matters of importance to the educational welfare of the pupils and school or whether they are personal opinions or grievances.

In conclusion, the Board respectfully states:

(1) That it has conscientiously endeavored to be absolutely fair and impartial in this situation to all members of the school staff.

(2) That the sole desire of the Board, and the individual members is to create a proper educational atmosphere and develop the best educational program possible for the boys and girls of the student body.

(3) That the lack of improvement in the general situation required the Board to take definite action to eventually remedy the present condition.

(4) That the Board sincerely believes that any similiar group of citizens of this community, in possession of all of the facts which the Board has, would have arrived at similar conclusions and have taken substantially the same actions as taken by the Board.

Respectfully submitted,
ARLINGTON HEIGHTS
TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL
DISTRICT NO. 214.

Lt. Phil Kaiser killed in England

Word was received Monday of the death in action March 25 of Lt. Phillip Kaiser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kaiser, 302 S. George St., Mt. Prospect. Lt Kaiser was a pilot of a B-24 Liberator bomber, stationed in England.

Details of his death are not known at present, but are expected later. Phil had previously suffered a broken leg when he parachuted from his plane the early part of January of this year. His parents had just received his membership card Monday for the Caterpillar Club, a unit composed of flyers who have parachuted to save their life.

Lt. Kaiser went into service in February of '43. He trained at numerous stations, first reporting to Kentucky State Teachers college at Bowling Green, Kentucky. He had been attending the University of Indiana at the time of his enlistment.

Nashville, Tennessee, was Lt. Kaiser's next stop in June of '43. Then on to Maxwell Field, Alabama, where he officially became an aviation cadet July 2.

Phil was then transferred to Shaw Field, Sumter, S. C., then to Seymour, Indiana, for further training. He was awarded his wings at Rantoul, Ill., March 12, 1944. Lt. Kaiser went overseas in October of last year, going directly to England.

Many scouts to qualify for Eisenhower medals

Scout masters of Arlington Heights troops report that a number of the local scouts will soon be wearing a war medal, the Eisenhower waste paper award medal. To qualify for the award a boy must collect a thousand pounds of waste paper. 14 of the boys in one troop have their collection ready for weighing. They are now helping some of the other members of their troops in order that the troop itself can qualify for a shell case.

Similar interest on the part of other troops will mean that the youth of Arlington is doing its part to "lick the waste paper crisis", which is the campaign motto for the Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts throughout the nation.

Stanley H. Huntington, scout executive, has been advised that he will receive 180 of the Eisenhower medals, based on ten per cent of the scout membership in the Northern district. He has sent for an additional supply because, as he says, "more than ten per cent of our boys are going to be eligible for the award."

Frank Havranek and Kenneth Gregory, in charge of waste paper collection in Arlington think that the April, 1945 waste paper collection will surpass all previous months. Since November, 1943, Arlington scouts have collected 172,370 pounds.

Many of the scouts have been personally collecting the paper and have gathered it at their homes. The general public, who have waste paper on hand, is asked to have it placed on the curb early Saturday morning.

In addition to the personal award to be received by every boy who collects 1,000 pounds, a genuine shell case that carried a 75-mm. shell or larger and that has been returned from a European battlefield after use, will be awarded to each Cub Pack, Boy Scout Troop or Senior Scout Unit which has collected waste paper equivalent to 1,000 pounds per boy member. Each will bear a printed citation by General Eisenhower.

Eisenhower Medal For Boy Scouts

"Lick the Waste Paper Crisis" has become the campaign motto of the nation's 1,866,356 Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts as they swing into the WPB's urgently-requested waste paper salvage drive during the rest of the month. To every Cub Scout and Boy Scout collecting 1,000 pounds of paper will go a bronze medal—the Boy Scout-General Eisenhower Waste Paper Campaign award pictured above — attached to a red and white service bar.

On the reverse of the medal is the inscription, "Awarded for extraordinary patriotic achievement in the Boy Scout Gen. Eisenhower Campaign, March-April, 1945".

Grabow, vice president; Mrs. W. Garver, secretary; and Mrs. [illegible] Watson, treasurer. These officers will be installed in May.

The persons who were responsible for the damaging of the Wheeling Community Honor Roll must have the scorn of all respecting citizens on their conscience. The roll had just been replaced after having been repainted and new names added. It is disappointing to know that there are those in our community who would stoop to show such disrespect to those in the service, as well as to the people of Wheeling. However, we want our boys and girls to know that on their return, they will receive all the honor and appreciation which they so justly deserve.

To The Public

In answer to the questions of the public as to some of the causes of the unrest at the Arlington Heights Township High School, the following facts are submitted:

1. A feeling of insecurity exists among the faculty because of such statements as the following made by the principal:
   "The teachers be damned, I am a public relations man."
   "I do not feel responsible for the teachers I did not hire."
   "I came here to stay; some of you had better watch out for your jobs."
2. New ideas and changes that many people in the community infer the faculty has been unwilling to accept have never been presented to the teachers.
3. Three more teachers have received their dismissals effective June 7. This makes a total of seven who have been dismissed, 25% of the entire faculty.
4. Vague reasons have been given for dismissals; the qualifications and ability to teach of those involved are not questioned.
5. Because of these numerous dismissals the teachers are confronted with the question: Are all teachers who were here before this year to be dismissed?
6. There has been a lack of constructive supervision of the faculty and of the school.
7. Confidential statements made at the faculty-board meeting have been used in dismissing teachers.
8. Attempts have been made to thwart the teachers in making their position clear to he public.
9. Freedom of speech has been discouraged.
10. Teachers have been discharged for talking to patrons about their own school.

In view of these facts, which are only a few of the causes of unrest, the faculty feel a lack of security, a lack of leadership, and a lack of confidence. If so many of the teachers are incompetent, why would they have been employed or retained in the past; and why would all the state examiners and the township Evaluating Committee approve them?

We regret not only the manner in which the wholesale dismissal has been handled, but also the effect it will produce by changing and even destroying the personal relationships that have been built up between the students and faculty. Have the students been forgotten? In the face of threats against their positions, teachers have felt it necessary to assert their rights for the best interest of the school.

MOUNT PROSPECT HERALD

VOLUME 18, NUMBER 13 | Published Every Friday by H. C. PADDOCK SONS | Entered as second class matter under act of March 3, 1879, at Mount Prospect, Ill. | MT. PROSPECT, ILL. | FRIDAY, APRIL 13, 1945 | 2 SECTIONS — 14 PAGES | $2.00 PER YEAR

Ralph Hauptly missing in raid over Austria

Word was received last week that 2nd Lt. Ralph Hauptly of Mt. Prospect has been missing since March 23 when he piloted his bomber over Austria. Ralph is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hauptly of Mt. Prospect. His wife is the former Marilyn Framberg of Arlington Heights.

Lt. Hauptly had arrived in Italy in January of this year, joining a veteran B-24 group. He had flown several missions before his last flight, and was just recently awarded the Air Medal.

Lt. Hauptly signed up for the Air Corps November 26 of 1942. He reported January 30, 1943, at Miami Beach, Florida, to begin training. In March Ralph was transferred to Whittenburg college at Springfield, Ohio.

Lt. Hauptly completed his training at Whittenburg in June, and was transferred to San Antonio, Texas, for the second part of his training. He was later transferred to Lubbock, Texas, where he was awarded his wings May 26 of 1944.

Ralph then reported to Dodge City, Kansas June 4, later going on to Liberal, Kansas. He came home the end of August, where on August 27 he married Miss Marilyn Framberg of Arlington Heights. He then reported to Lincoln, Nebraska. His wife joined him at Mountain Home, Idaho.

After another furlough in December Lt Hauptly reported to Topeka, Kansas, Christmas Eve of '44. He immediately went overseas to Italy.

Mt. Prospect, Elk Grove pass Red Cross war fund quota

Although cash is still being received by Geo. L. Busse, Red Cross drive chairman for Mt. Prospect and Elk Grove, the $3,200 quota was passed last week. Actual cash to date is $3,329. That amount does not include any of the credits that may later be credited to the community.

Mr. Busse says the credit should go to the workers who made the canvass, the public who contributed so generously and also to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Lions Club, Mt. Prospect Catholic Woman's Club and Mt. Prospect Woman's Club for their liberal contributions.

"Another war job has been well done by the home front of Mt. Prospect and Elk Grove. My thanks go to all", states Mr. Busse.

Public may hear Lt. Breese Friday

Lt. Minnie Breese of Arlington Heights has returned home after being released from Santo Thomas, Jap prison camp in Manila in the Philippines. In an interview this week, With Uncle Sam presents many of her experiences as told by her.

The story tells of the starvation diet supplied the prisoners, of the many indignities suffered by them, and of life in general in Jap hands. Lt. Breese emphatically states that her life among civilian internees was nothing compared to treatment accorded U. S. soldiers in other camps, but her story certainly will attract no one to Japan. It can be found on page one of the second section.

An opportunity to the general public to hear, first hand, of the experiences of Lt. Minnie Breese in the Jap prison camp in Manila this Friday is offered by Arlington Heights high school. A school assembly will be held at 2:30 p. m. in the high school auditorium where Lt. Breese will speak.

School election Sat., April 14

Saturday, April 14, elections will be held in all school districts. Schools that operate under Boards of Education have designated polling hours, with printed ballots, nominations for which were filed two weeks ago. Rural schools will hold both their nomination caucus and elections Saturday evening.

Candidates for boards of education and polling hours are as follows:

Arlington Heights High School

Polls open from 12 noon to 7:00 p. m. Precinct No. 1, village hall, Arlington Heights; No. 2, public school building, Mt. Prospect. Pros. Heights will vote at Mt. Prospect. The dividing line is Busse and Buffalo Grove roads. The candidates are Clarence I. Davis for president; Walter C. Hanauer and Elmer F. Laurin for members.

Mt. Prospect Elementary School

Polls are open noon to 7:00 p. m. at the school house. Candidates are Leonard G. Johnson for president; Chas. W. Crysler and Walton W. Wyre for members for full term; Karl Von Kampen for two year term.

There will be a small ballot which, if carried, will mean the election of future presidents for a two year term. Regular board members are elected for three year terms.

Wheeling Township

It is necessary to elect a school trustee for the entire Wheeling township this year. The polls will be open from noon to 3:00 o'clock as follows: Voters of districts 25 and 26 will vote at the northside school, Arlington Heights; districts 20 and 21 at Wheeling public school; districts 23 and 24 at Prospect Heights school. The candidate is Otto Andersen of Wheeling.

Why taxes are higher

Many people are wondering this spring why their tax bills have taken such a jump.

Some seem to think they should protest their tax bills simply because they have gone up without looking carefully to see that their valuation is the same as last year.

The reason that taxes are higher this year is because the various taxing bodies needed more money to operate on than they have needed previously.

For instance, the county rate went up ten cents on each $100 of valuation.

This was caused by the larger budget passed by the county board in order to pay up a lot of debts accumulated back during the depression.

Likewise lots of school districts had to raise more money in order to hire extra teachers and to raise the salaries of those they did have if the schools weren't going to lose all their teachers to the high-salaried war plants.

As school officials point out, it costs more to run a school now than it did, the same as it costs more to eat, buy clothes and every other item of every day existence.

When it comes to protesting taxes simply because the rate has gone up, the proster has to prove that some part of the rate is illegal.

If a person desires to protest because of his valuation he should go to the county board of appeals.

The local collectors report many cases of people talking protest when they admit that the valuation set on their property is less than they paid for it or less than they would sell it for.

In such cases they are foolish to go before the board of appeals, and be forced to admit they paid more for the property than the assessor has it valued at and that they wouldn't take the assessor's figure for the property.

Such protests are a waste of time and when the protesters are shown the point they readily agree that they guess they have no protest coming.

Taxes are higher this year because the tax rates of some of the taxing bodies are higher.

If people want modern advantages of good schools and good municipal service, those things must be paid for the same as groceries and clothes.

In these days of high salaries and peak war production, everything is up and taxes are no exception to the general rule.

The great percentage of the tax money is raised by the local governments.

For instance, out of the Palatine combined rate in the village of $2.44 on each $100 of valuation, all of that is raised by the various home taxing bodies with the exception of 34 cents on each $100 valuation for the Cook county government and 4 cents for the county forest preserve district.

Out of Palatine's $2.44 rate, $2.06 goes entirely to the local taxing bodies and 38 cents goes to Cook county and the forest preserve district, so the great percentage of taxes is levied and used right at home.

Arson expert to speak to Men's club April 20

The Mt. Prospect Men's Club meets Friday, April 20 at the Country Club.

Horace McMullen of the National Board of Fire Underwriters will be the speaker for the evening. Mr. McMullen, who was born and brought up in Brooklyn, a graduate of Colgate, was admitted to practice law in the state of Illinois early in 1945. He is employed by the National Board of Fire Underwriters as an investigator of arson dating back to 1930. For five years, he worked out of the New York office and for the past ten years, has been associated with the Chicago office.

Mr. McMullen will confine his talk to various types of incendiary fires and will draw from his vast experiences certain cases which will illustrate the points covered.

In addition to this outstanding authority, Ray Fenton and his "warmed over five" will be on hand during this meeting. His band, incidentally, will play for the Firemen's dance on April 28.

This will be the first real meeting of the spring and might be termed the "Spring Coming Out Party at the Country Club". Door prizes will be given and refreshments will be served.

Color movies at Lutheran school

St. Paul's Ladies Aid is sponsoring a motion picture entitled "See The World in Color" on Friday evening, April 13, at 8 o'clock at the Mt. Prospect Lutheran school auditorium.

The color film is interesting and entertaining as well as educational and has been enthusiastically received wherever it has been presented.

You cannot afford to miss this "Geography Lesson in Kodakrome".

Tickets may be purchased from members of the Ladies Aid or at the door on the evening of the performance.

Prospect Heights school election this Saturday

An election for president of the school board and two members will be held at the Prospect Heights school, corner of Palatine and Schoenbeck rds., Saturday, April 14. Polls will be open from 12 noon to 7:00 p. m.

William H. Spears is running for president and George H. Sheppard and Fred Jungbluth are running as members.

All residents in the community and especially parents of children attending the local school are urged to go to the school and cast their vote.

Three more teachers are dismissed

On Thursday, April 5, three more high school teachers, John L. Grose, Earle L. Joyner and Miss Carey Clark, were handed notices of dismissal, to take effect June 7 1945.

Miss Carey Clark has been associated with the school for a number of years as a teacher of Home Economics, English, and History. Many of the homes in Arlington Heights have benefitted by her suggestions in the household arts. Miss Clark is a well qualified teacher, having a Master of Art degree in home economics from the University of Colorado.

John L. Grose has been with the local school for many years. He has served as coach and teacher in mathematics, and shop. He has served as assistant principal for the past six years. Mr. Grose holds a Masters degree from Northwestern University.

Earl L. Joyner became a member of the high school faculty four years ago. He has taught science and has been a very successful coach of basketball and baseball. Mr. Joyner also holds a Masters degree from Northwestern University.

With the dismissal of Mr. Grose and Mr. Joyner the entire coaching staff has been changed this year.

All of these teachers have had a sincere interest in the school and have helped materially in its development.

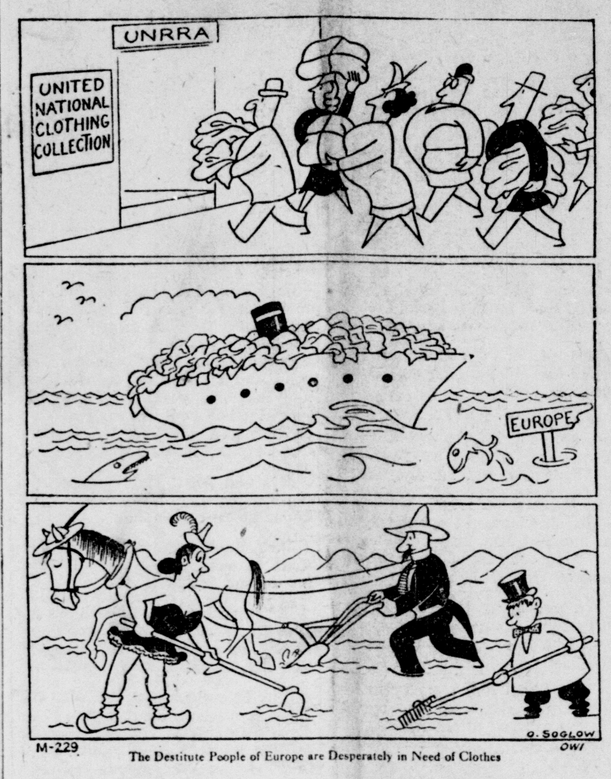

This makes a total of seven teachers who have been dismissed in the past four weeks.

Church leadership trng. course opens April 16

20 suburban parishes at Arlington

Twenty Northwest Suburban Communities and their churches have been invited to participate in the Northwest Suburban Interdenominational Leadership Training School to be held at the Arlington Heights Methodist Meeting House, Arlington Heights. The school will be held on five consecutive Monday nights beginning April 16. The sessions begin at 7:30 p. m. and conclude at 9:30 p. m. The school is the outgrowth of the joint efforts of several churches of Barrington, Arlington Heights, Prospect Heights and Lake Zurich working cooperatively.

The planning committee spent a great deal of time securing the best leadership possible and drawing up a practical, down to earth curriculum. The brouchure advertising the school describes it as ". . . a grass roots school originating and growing out of the needs of Superintendents and Church School leaders who wanted life-centered courses to meet the everyday teaching situations of the average teacher."

The courses consist of a general hour, which is to be attended by all persons enrolled in the school, entitled "Religion in the Bible". This course will develop some of the basic religious ideas found in the bible such as "relationship between God and Man"; "Jesus as Saviour". The second hour will be devoted to departmental work. The courses offered are "teaching small children", "teaching juniors", "teaching youth" and a course on "supervision".

Leaders well known

The teachers or leaders are recognized nationally for their outstanding work in the field of religious instruction. Dr. Vartan Melconian, of the Presbyterian College of Christian Education of Chicago is a dynamic, forceful and scintillating speaker. He will lead the general hour. Mrs. A. M. Nelson of the First Congregational Church, Oak Park, will lead the course on "teaching small children."

Mrs. Nelson comes highly recommended as one who has had exceptional success in leadership of this age group. Miss Geraldine Gregg, director of Christian Education of the first Methodist church, Evanston, has had the rich experience of translating the religious ideals of her world into the language of the junior child.

Miss Louise Drew, director of Christian Education at the First Methodist church, Oak Park, has had a wealth of experience and directs the religious program of one of Methodism's largest churches. She will share the responsibility with Miss Gregg of teaching the juniors.

The International Council of Religious Education has loaned the school two of its staff to lead in the important field of "teaching youth". Dr. Isaac K. Beckes and Miss Helen F. Spaulding will be the leaders for this course.

Five men who are actively engaged as Church School superintendents will lead the course on supervision. There will be a different leader each Monday evening who will share his experiences. Dr. Melconian will be the first to guide the thinking of these administrative officers. Mr. Thomas West, prominent international lawyer and superintendent of the Wilmette Methodist church school will lead April 23; Dr. Willard Jackman, superintendent of the Public Schools of Elmhurst, will lead the officers the third Monday, April 30; Mr. Fred Duerr of the Christ Presbyterian church school of Chicago and a man who has had an outstanding school for 20 years will lead the fourth session, May 7, and Mr. Lou Schaeffer, a man of unusual selling ability and Christian leadership, will lead the fifth session May 14.

The school invites all workers with youth, whether in the church school or any other youth program such as scouting, Y-work or camp guidance.

The place is the Methodist Meeting House, N. Dunton at St. James st., Arlington Heights. Time 7:30 to 9:45 p. m. Mondays, April 16 through May 14.

Eisenhower Medal For Boy Scouts

"Lick the Waste Paper Crisis" has become the campaign motto of the nation's 1,866,356 Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts as they swing into the WPB's urgently-requested waste paper salvage drive during the rest of the month. To every Cub Scout and Boy Scout collecting 1,000 pounds of paper will go a bronze medal —the Boy Scout-General Eisenhower Waste Paper Campaign award pictured above — attached to a red and white service bar.

On the reverse of the medal is the inscription, "Awarded for extraordinary patriotic achievement in the Boy Scout Gen. Eisenhower Campaign, March-April, 1945".

Blame wiring short in loss of car and garage at Palatine

H. A. Hoover, residing in Greater Palatine, a mile west of the village, blames a short in the wiring of his Plymouth coach for the loss of the car, his garage, and valuable tools that were destroyed by fire Saturday afternoon. The Palatine Rural Fire Department saved the house, which was only 35 feet distant.

The blaze was discovered by Albert DePue, a neighbor, who notified the Hoovers. The fire had gained such headway that the use of hand fire extinguishers was not sufficient. Included in the loss is an outboard motor, considerable fishing tackle, electric drill, spraying outfit, screens, etc. Fortunately, Mr. Hoover's truck was not in the garage at that time.

Norman Thomas at Libertyville

Norman Thomas, often a candidate for the Presidency of the United States, will speak before the Libertyville Sunday Evening club Tuesday, April 17, at the Libertyville Methodist church. Mr. Thomas is well-known in this country, and will speak of the coming peace. An interesting Forum will follow. The program starts at 8 p. m.

Village election next Tuesday

Next Tuesday will be the first Mt. Prospect village election for a number of years without opposing candidates. It hardly seems possible after the warmly contested campaigns of previous years, to have a quiet village election. As one business man put it, "Mt. Prospect is going to be so busy growing in the post war period that we will not have time for petty squabbles."

M. B. Pendleton, candidate for mayor, is no stranger on the village board. He is a former alderman. He knows what it is all about and the people can be assured of getting a business administration with him at the helm of state.

Mayor Besander and the three members who are retiring from the board have given a loyal service to the community. They have given a lot of their time and have squarely met many difficult problems facing the village. The settlement of many of these has not always been easy.

The people of Mt. Prospect owe a vote of thanks to Messrs. Besander, and trustees Herman Haas, Elmer Wille, and Emil Greinke.

Candidates as trustees are Russell A. Hartwig who holds a responsible position with Benjamin Electric Manufacturing Company, Theodore A. Lams, teacher of music in Northwestern University and Fred W. Welsh, assistant comptroller of the U. S. Gypsum Co. — all men with business experience.

Roy E. Schlemmer is candidate for re-election as village clerk. He is doing a good job in that position. Ralph E. Gould is again candidate for police magistrate, an office that he has held for some time with credit to himself and the municipality.

One more week to pay taxes

The property owners of the country towns have one more full week to make their tax payments to their township collectors.

Saturday, April 21, is the dead line in the country towns. Penalty date at the county building is May 1.

With an acute shortage of help the last week's rush at the county building will be something that no one will want to get mixed up in if they can help it and the country town taxpayers can avoid all the commotion and long waiting in line by visiting their local collectors and making their payments promptly and in comfort.

The township collectors report that business has been brisk since their offices opened and that from all indications the taxpayers of the country towns are taking full advantage of the opportunity to make their payments to the town collectors.

Many Chicago people who own property in the suburbs are coming out and making their payments to the local collectors, rather than go through the jam at the down town office.

The township collectors appreciate your cooperation in making payments at home and they urge all who have not already made their payments to visit the local offices before the close of business Saturday, April 21.

The offices of the collectors of this area are located as follows:

Elk Grove, Mt. Prospect State Bank, Wheeling, Arlington Heights National Bank, Palatine, DePue Real Estate Office, State Bank building.

Office hours of the various collectors were given in the tax rate list enclosed with each tax bill.

The collector's offices are closed Wednesday afternoons.

Early returns in boy scout drive look encouraging

Early returns of the Financial Drive of the Boy Scouts of America in Arlington Heights prove highly encouraging. Due to the Easter Holiday many of the men working on the Drive have not completed their work and final tabulations will be printed in next week's paper.

A splendid reception is being reported by the solicitors. Business men and residents alike are showing an active interest in the plans for this summer's scouting program for our rising generation. Vacations are in the making and again we acknowledge with thanks the generous support you are contributing to the welfare of our young people.

If for any reason you have not been contacted by a solicitor your contribution may be made at the local bank to be credited to the Boy Scouts of America.

Elections will close taverns

In accordance with the state law taverns and liquor stores will be closed Saturday afternoon from noon to seven o'clock and next Tuesday until five o'clock on account of the school and village elections.

High School board makes a statement

The Board of Education of the Arlington Heights Township High School District sincerely believes, that as a general policy, it should not enter into a public debate, either through the press or otherwise, on certain problems which have recently confronted the Board in the High School.

However, the Board believes that the residents of the High School District, to whom the Board, as their duly elected representatives, are responsible, are entitled to a general report and statement by the Board because of the many rumors and recent publicity given by others to the present situation.

In selecting a new principal for the High School, the Board believed it had a positive duty to solicit the applications of all qualified educators who might be interested in the position, regardless of where they might live or whom they might be. The Board further believed it had a positive duty to select from these applicants the one they believed to be best qualified to assume the responsibility of educational leadership for the High School in the community. As a result of this policy the Board received and carefully examined and considered credentials from in excess of 100 applicants, and had personal interviews with 8 applicants. After further checking with educational institutions, and interviewing citizens and Board members from the applicant's community, as to the character, integrity and ability of the applicant, and visiting his former school, the Board of Education was unanimous in the selection of the present principal.

The Board expected any new principal to have new ideas that he might wish to put into effect. They further expected any new principal to cooperate with other schools in the community, make suggestions of possible educational advancements for the school, suggest possible curriculum changes wherever it might be for the best interest of the pupils and in general to assume leadership of the High School in the educational program of the community. The Board fully expected that any new principal coming into the school might make minor errors, due to his unfamiliarity with the school.

The Board believed that to have a successful school program, all of the staff members of the school would have to cooperate, and to that end, expected the faculty to welcome any new principal selected by the Board and join with him in studying, discussing, at proper times and places, and supporting, such new ideas for the improvement of the school as might be placed in effect. The Board further expected the faculty through frank and sincere discussions with the new principal of educational problems, to develop a program for the educational advancement of the school. They further expected, that if personal differences arose between the faculty members and the new principal, that they would be discussed at the proper times and places, and after a decision had been reached, all members of the school staff would support the decision even though it might be different than their personal desires or opinions. The Board further expected from all staff members a spirit of loyalty to each other, to the students, the community and to the Board and the centering of attention on an educational program for the school rather than upon personal grievances.

While no official request was ever made to the Board, because of rumors, gossip and mistaken impressions circulating through the community, the Board was required to call all faculty members to a meeting. Considerable time was spent in listening to, investigating and considering complaints of certain faculty members. It should be noted that the statement has been made in a meeting attended by all of the school staff and Board members, and has been unchallenged, that the Board had gone farther in listening to and considering complaints from the faculty than any other Board in Illinois in recent times.

After thoroughly studying the complaints as disclosed in these meetings, conferring at length with Educational Leaders, and after careful and impartial consideration of all matters raised, the Board, at a meeting of all members of the Board, faculty and administrator, reported to the faculty that by far the majority of the criticisms were trivial or personal matters and had no bearing on the educational welfare of the school; that the remainder of the criticisms, including those attacking the honesty and integrity of the principal, had been carefully investigated by the Board and found to have no basis in fact; that the principal had the complete faith and confidence of the Board; that the criticisms having been discussed, there was no reason why a good working spirit should not be developed; that if, after careful consideration, a member or members of the faculty could not be satisfied and cooperate in their present position as teachers, the Board would accept their resignation effective at the end of the school year; that in the future the Board expected grievances to be presented to the principal by the groups and presenting implied demands to the Board.

Since that report was made by the Board many rumors and statements have persisted. The Board believes that care should be taken teachers before organizing into in weighing these, to see that all facts are known, and then that they should be examined in the light of whether they are matters of importance to the educational welfare of the pupils and school or whether they are personal opinions or grievances.

In conclusion, the Board respectfully states:

(1) That it has conscientiously endeavored to be absolutely fair and impartial in this situation to all members of the school staff.

(2) That the sole desire of the Board, and the individual members is to create a proper educational atmosphere and develop the best educational program possible for the boys and girls of the student body.

(3) That the lack of improvement in the general situation required the Board to take definite action to eventually remedy the present condition.

(4) That the Board sincerely believes that any similiar group of citizens of this community, in possession of all of the facts which the Board has, would have arrived at similar conclusions and have taken substantially the same actions as taken by the Board.

Respectfully submitted,
BOARD OF EDUCATION

Voice of the people

Arlington Heights Herald
Arlington Heights, Illinois
Dear Sir:

I have just read in the Herald as inserted by the Teachers Union, that I left the Arlington Heights Township High School because of the fact I received little or no cooperation from the administration and Board of Education. I received the closest cooperation and effort from both. I left because of my inability to find living quarters for myself and family.

Very truly yours,
R. E. HALSTEAD.

Masons to meet this Thursday

Have you ever wondered how a ship is located at sea or how a plane is able to determine its exact location in the absence of street signs? M. C. FIRST AERO CLUB IN A HANGAR—A Red Cross girl has a G.I. sign his name in the state register of this Aero club, site of a former German fighter base. And what makes a better writing desk than a Focke-Wulf wing? Another wrecked plane frames the overseas worker and "guest."

Flowers cheer vets at hospital

On their visit to Hines hospital last week as representatives of the Mt. Prospect American Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. H. Davis, Mrs. H. Carlson and Mrs. L. Vernon were very happy to take a special treat to the patients, the cheer of 375 perfect carnations or red, white and pink.

This most lavish gift was the donation of one of Mt. Prospect's florists, who from the generosity of his heart, wanted to do his bit toward cheering these hospitalized veterans. With the coming of spring and the Easter season, too, the flowers could not have come at a more suitable time.

The men were unusually enthusiastic and appreciative, not only of the flowers, but of the kind thoughts which prompted the gift. They were eager to know who their benefactor was and wished to have their thanks extended to him.

In addition to the flowers, and as usual, a package of cigarettes for each patient was left.

by HERBERT A. VAN DRIEL of Van Driel's Drug Store

A large proportion of our people live in dread of that recurring season when hay fever is prevalent. They have reason to dread the pollen laden winds for they are chronic sufferers from hay fever.

The time to check with your doctor is now — well in advance of the time when you expect this malady to strike. Immunization is possible. This requires time for the doctor must check for allergies and discover what particular sensitivization is yours.

Medication must be the best obtainable and thus care should be exercised in the selection of a druggist to supply it.

To The Public

In answer to the questions of the public as to some of the causes of the unrest at the Arlington Heights Township High School, the following facts are submitted:

1. A feeling of insecurity exists among the faculty because of such statements as the following made by the principal:
   "The teachers be damned, I am a public relations man."
   "I do not feel responsible for the teachers I did not hire."
   "I came here to stay; some of you had better watch out for your jobs."
2. New ideas and changes that many people in the community infer the faculty has been unwilling to accept have never been presented to the teachers.
3. Three more teachers have received their dismissals effective June 7. This makes a total of seven who have been dismissed, 25% of the entire faculty.
4. Vague reasons have been given for dismissals; the qualiffcations and ability to teach of those involved are not questioned.
5. Because of these numerous dismissals the teachers are confronted with the question: Are all teachers who were here before this year to be dismissed?
6. There has been a lack of constructive supervision of the faculty and of the school.
7. Confidential statements made at the faculty-board meeting have been used in dismissing teachers.
8. Attempts have been made to thwart the teachers in making their position clear to he public.
9. Freedom of speech has been discouraged.
10. Teachers have been discharged for talking to patrons about their own school.

In view of these facts, which are only a few of the causes of unrest, the faculty feel a lack of security, a lack of leadership, and a lack of confidence. If so many of the teachers are incompetent, why would they have been employed or retained in the past; and why would all the state examiners and the township Evaluating Committee approve them?

We regret not only the manner in which the wholesale dismissal has been handled, but also the effect it will produce by changing and even destroying the personal relationships that have been built up between the students and faculty. Have the students been forgotten? In the face of threats against their positions, teachers have felt it necessary to assert their rights for the best interest of the school.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Unreality" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 8.

The Golden Text was, "Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment" (John 7: 24).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? . . . But the natural man receiveth not the things of the spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned" (I Cor. 1: 19,20; I Cor. 2: 14).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The realities of being, its normal action, and the origin of all things are unseen to mortal sense; whereas the unreal and imitative movements of mortal belief, which would reverse the immortal modus and action, are styled the real . . . The testimony of the corporeal senses cannot inform us what is real and what is delusive, but the revelations of Christian Science unlock the treasures of Truth . . . The physical senses can take no cognizance of God and spiritual Truth. Human belief has sought out many inventions, but not one of them can solve the problem of being without the divine Principle of Divine Science" (pp. 212, 70, 273).

Scorn Theory

Thunderstorms have long been accused of souring milk. Department of agriculture experts shake their heads at that one. Bacteria multiplying in milk causes the souring; and heat helps the bacteria to multiply. Since thunderstorms usually come in hot weather, and can be seen and heard, they have long been accused of spoiling good milk.

Prospector's gleanings

Mrs. Charles Ledyard has already tasted the "fruits", or rather we should say the "vegetables" of her 1945 crop . . . She has already had leaf lettuce and spring onions on her table . . . She started them in a cold frame and had an early crop . . . Mrs. Dan Robertson put in her peas early too and reports that they have sprouted and are coming along nicely at this time . . . The cold weather does not affect them . . . They are the early variety peas . . .

Mrs. Gerald Burke has been made supply sergeant now . . . She is a member of the Civil Air Patrol at the Palwaukee airport. . . She is one of the community's most enthusiastic women flyers . . . Others are June Saunders and Mrs. Jack Patzold . . .

A woman's ring was found in the basement of the Community church, and presumably it was lost at one of the services on Easter Sunday . . . Mrs. Grover Jungbluth, 306 E. Circle ave., has it in her possesion and the owner can have it by making identification . . .

We seem to have an "epidemic" of sprained ankles in the community lately . . . The latest victim is Mrs. Robert Holding, who sprained hers while attending the Easter morning sunrise service at the Community church . . .

Many residents have had fresh asparagus from their gardens already this year . . . Mrs. William Watson has already served some to her son, Chuckie, who thinks it's "super"! . . . Can't say that we blame him any! . . .

Several requests have come in lately . . . One is for driver's license blanks and the other is regarding the allied war relief collection depot . . . Marvin Larson, of Larson's Insurance agency, has had blanks, and although at present he is out of them, he expects to have more soon . . . Harold Lamb has been trying to get some too, but they don't seem to be too plentiful . . . But keep on asking for them, at either place, they may have come, in the meantime . . . Up to the present time there is no official collection depot for the clothing for the allied war relief, but we will do a little scouting around and see if any individual or organization will assume that responsibility . . . Watch this column for further developments on both these items . . .

The Richard Maltbys moved from the community on Monday . . They will make their new home in Syosset, Long Island . . .

A two-piece dress in a remarkable new rayon fabric that looks and feels life silk, washes like cotton, and is finer than either is shown above as pictured in the February issue of Good Housekeeping magazine. The gathered black skirt has three tucks near the hem that give a new, just slightly fulled look. The wraparound overblouse is made of the same fabric in a sophisticated faun print in turquoise and black.

Bundles rummage sale April 21

Saturday, April 21, Prospect Heights unit of Bundles for America, Inc., will hold its fourth rummage sale in the Smith & Dawson tearoom, beginning at 10:00 o'clock.

The local unit inaugurated the first rummage sale in the community which was held on September 22, 19443. Mrs. John Spillar suggested the idea of the sale to the chairman, Mrs. William Danielson, and it was voted to hold the sale, with Mrs. Spillar being made chairman. Her committee consisted of Mrs. Jess DeGroft, Mrs. Nels Rundgren and Miss Elaine Rundgren, who believed the sale would be a success and gave her their full support.

The sale was held on a Wednesday, and when the day was over, it was a success in every way possible. It met with the full cooperation of the residents of the community, and consequently has become a part of the local unit's schedule of events on its social calendar. It is an event that is eagerly awaited by residents of the community and also by residents in the nearby towns.

A rummage sale is a likely place for lovers of antiques and collectors to "browse" around in search of some valuable piece to add to their collections. Some collect glassware, some china, and while others colect various metal pieces.

At the last sale in October, one resident happened upon a small size hand etched goblet that matched almost perfectly to a pair of large ones that are an heirloom and are over 100 years old. Needless to say, she will be certain to attend this next sale, very early too, so that she will have the opportunity of perhaps making more such discoveries.

Mrs. Edward Figahs, chairman of this sale, announces that all types of wearing apparel, in good condition, will be on sale. There will be household articles galore to make a selection from, and for those of you who are planning on doing a lot of canning from your Victory gardens this season, there will be a lot of fruit jars and covers for you to buy.

Proceeds from this sale go to the general Bundles fund, and will be used to continue its rehabilitation program. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, April 17, 8:00 p. m., at the Smith & Dawson tearoom.

Brownie news

At the April 9 meeting, the second grade Brownies of Mt. Prospect completed plans for their investiture, which is to be held at the public school at 3:30 p. m. on Monday, April 16. Mothers of the second grade girls are strongly urged to be present for this special event. The troop committee met with the leaders at the home of Mrs. Hagberg on Tuesday.

At the third grade Brownie troop, work continued on the knitting project. They learned a new "round" to sing while working, about Little Tommy Tinker sitting on a Clinker. Since Mrs. Clemens could not be present, Mrs. Tice substituted for her, and the girls were happy to welcome Mrs. Tice back to the group again.

'Boilers' With Butter

Small-sized onions, known as "boilers," may be served hot with butter, dressed with a small portion of seasoned cream or whole milk or served with a cream sauce to which has been added diced crisp bacon or minced ham. Another interesting variation is to blend a small portion of tangy cheese with the cream sauce or sprinkle it over the creamed vegetable just before you send it to the table.

Brownie news

Members of the Prospect Heights Brownie troop have an opportunity of attending Don McNeil's famous breakfast club program on Saturday morning, April 21, according to Mrs. Ralph Lakin, entertainment chairman of the group.

In order to arrive at the broadcasting station early enough to get good seats, they must leave on the 6:24 a. m. train, and all Brownies who are going must be at the corner of Elmhurst and McDonald rds. by 6:15 at the latest. Mrs. Lakin has requested that the Brownies have the opportunity of speaking over the microphone and residents who wish to hear them should tune in on the program on WCFL at 8 a. m. and WLS at 8:30.

There are a certain number of tickets available, and the leaders must know just how many girls can go. The cost of the trip is $1 each, and includes train and cab fare, as well as lunch. Money and consent note from parents must be turned in to the leaders no later than April 19.

The girls will be accompanied by Mrs. Gordon Haskins, leader, Mrs. Stephen Rowader, co-leader and Mrs. Lakin. After the broadcast they will visit the Field museum. They expect to return home at around 1:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

Birthday party

Donna Jean Florup, daughter of the R. Florup's, 500 Elmhurst rd., celebrated her first birthday on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Brooks and daughter Ann of Mt. Prospect were on hand to help her celebrate this momentous occasion. Her brother, Bobby, was delighted over the party and his face lit up at the sight of the birthday cake with the solitary candle burning brightly to proclaim his sister's first anniversary.

Mrs. Edward Figahs, Mrs. Harold Jollie, Mrs. Laurence Wallwork, Mrs. Torsten Sanden and Mrs. John Spillar attended the hobby and antique show at the Gary Memorial church in Wheaton, Ill., last Thursday. They enjoyed the show very much and while in the town of Wheaton, they stopped in to visit Mrs. Harriet Link, sister of Mrs. Spillar, who is secretary to the state's attorney, Lee Daniels, of DuPage county. They were introduced to Mr. Daniels and then taken on a tour of the building. They have been invited to attend a trial in the near future and are looking forward to it.

Mrs. Herbert Schaeffer and Mrs. James Painton had birthdays on Monday, so in the afternoon Mrs. Arnold Allord, Mrs. Hobart Bartlet, Mrs. Henry Johnson and Mrs. Torsten Sanden gathered at the Painton home on E. McDonald rd. for a small impromptu party for the two of them.

A number of the members of the local unit attended the Bundles for America, Inc., card and tea party held at the Casino, 195 E. Delaware place, last Wednesday afternoon. Those attending were Mrs. John Spillar, Mrs. Edward Miller, Mrs. Clarence Peterson, Mrs. Emil Fues, Mrs. Harold Jollie, Mrs. Carl Berlin, Mrs. Edward Figahs, Mrs. Fred Barney, Mrs. Nels Rundgren, Miss Elaine Rundgren, with Mrs. Nels Rundgren, Jr., as a guest, who was also fortunate enough to win one of the door prizes, a glass table set.

Eager Beaver

Choral society

Prospect Heights Choral society members are now busy rehearsing selections to be presented at their first concert on June 8 and Monday evening found 36 members turning out for the practice session.

The big event of the evening was the return of Roy Geotschel to the group. He possesses a beautiful tenor voice and his absence was felt by the group. He was usually presented in solo work and his fine tenor voice is a decided asset to the choral group.

Auditions were held on Monday for soloists for the concert and will be held every Monday for a while until Robert Andreas, director, makes his selection of the various soloists to be featured.

Prospect Heights school news

Officers of the Achievement clubs of the Prospect Heights school attended the 30th annual convention held at the Art Institute in Chicago on Monday.

Members from the 7th and 8th grades, Mary Nordin, Sally Williams, Shelby Stewart and Diane Jarmer, with Elmer Beckwith, their teacher and principal of the school, attended the meeting at Fullerton Hall. Noble J. Puffer, Cook County Superintendent of schools conducted the convention, and a typical Achievement club meeting was conducted by several of the students.

Canfield Cook spoke on "Revolution in the Air," and told of the changes in aviation and what the future of aviation is expected to be. A color movie was also shown and the students seemed to enjoy it very much.

When the meeting was over, the students went to the Chicago Tribune and were taken on a tour of the plant. They were shown a movie, "trees to Tribune", which told of the story of a tree which finally became a newspaper.

Officers of the Achievement club from the 5th and 6th grades could not attend the meeting at the Art Institute, due to the lack of room, so were taken through the Field Museum and the Shedd Aquarium by their teacher, Mrs. Elizabeth Payne, and then later attended the movie, "Meet Me In St. Louis". Those who went were Virginia Carroll, Harry Nordin and Robert Brownell.

Achievement clubs are local civic organizations formed in schools outside of Chicago, from the fifth through the eighth grades. They were formed to give the students an opportunity of conducting meetings and learning how to work as a civic group, under a leader.

Stamp sales at the school were: 1st and 2nd, $8.75; 3rd and 4th, $5.00; 5th and 6th, $3.50; 7th and 8th, $5.45, for a complete total of $22.70.

New residents

Several new residents have moved into the community this past week.

The Milton Grant family of Chicago have moved into the former George Buehrer home, 108 E. McDonald rd. The Buehrers have moved to Denver, Colo.

The Robert Miller family are now occupying the former Vernon Nelson home, 303 W. Willow rd.

Ralph Hauptly missing in raid over Austria

The Victory Road is stained with blood. Give back what they gave for us. Red Cross blood donor center, 5 N. Wabash Ave., Wabash 7650.

Word was received last week that 2nd Lt. Ralph Hauptly of Mt. Prospect has been missing since March 23 when he piloted his bomber over Austria. Ralph is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hauptly of Mt. Prospect. His wife is the former Marilyn Framberg of Arlington Heights.

Lt. Hauptly had arrived in Italy in January of this year, joining a veteran B-24 group. He had flown several missions before his last flight, and was just recently awarded the Air Medal.

Lt. Hauptly signed up for the Air Corps November 26 of 1942. He reported January 30, 1943, at Miami Beach, Florida, to begin training. In March Ralph was transferred to Whittenburg college at Springfield, Ohio.

Lt. Hauptly completed his training at Whittenburg in June, and was transferred to San Antonio, Texas, for the second part of his training. He was later transferred to Lubbock, Texas, where he was awarded his wings May 26 of 1944.

Ralph then reported to Dodge City, Kansas June 4, later going on to Liberal, Kansas. He came home the end of August, where on August 27 he married Miss Marilyn Framberg of Arlington Heights. He then reported to Lincoln, Nebraska. His wife joined him at Mountain Home, Idaho.

Former Palatine resident now reported dead

Mrs. Edward Stoddard of Magnolia Springs, Alabama, has received word that her husband, Lt. (j. g.) Stoddard, formerly reported missing on the ship Bismarck Sea, was killed in action. The Stoddards were former residents of Palatine and have three small sons.

Funeral service for Henry Bartels

Funeral services for Henry F. Bartels, 50, Schaumburg Twp., will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the Rodenburg Evangelical Lutheran church. The Rev. J. Rozak will officiate. Interment will be at Lake st. Memorial Park Cemetery, Elgin.

Bataan nurse tells of life in Jap hands

Public may hear Lt. Breese Friday

Lt. Minnie Breese of Arlington Heights has returned home after being released from Santo Thomas, Jap prison camp in Manila in the Philippines. In an interview this week, With Uncle Sam presents many of her experiences as told by her.

The story tells of the starvation diet supplied the prisoners, of the many indignities suffered by them, and of life in general in Jap hands. Lt. Breese emphatically states that her life among civilian internees was nothing compared to treatment accorded U. S. soldiers in other camps, but her story certainly will attract no one to Japan. It can be found on page one of the second section.

An opportunity to the general public to hear, first hand, of the experiences of Lt. Minnie Breese in the Jap prison camp in Manila this Friday is offered by Arlington Heights high school. A school assembly will be held at 2:30 p. m. in the high school auditorium where Lt. Breese will speak.

Bars to close on V-E day

By virtue of an ordinance passed by the Palatine Village board Monday night, all taverns within the Village limits will be closed for 24 hours when the official announcement comes of the end of the war in Europe.

Chicago taverns agreed to such a regulation some time ago and it is expected that the action will be universal.

Orville Helms presented his resignation as a member of the local police force Monday night and the Village is looking for a man to take the owl shift.

Mr. Helms will take a position with the Gaare Oil Co.

Palatine Village election next Tuesday

Next Tuesday is the date for the village election and the affair promises to be another quiet election day, similar to the recent township election.

There is no competition for any of the village officers and the public has placed its stamp of approval on the four year administration of president Wm. H. DePue and his fellow officers.

It did not, like so many other cities and villages take advantage of the new 100% assessed valuation to boost its tax levy and secure a lot more money for municipal spending at the expense of the taxpayers.

Aided by better times and higher tax collections the village, by continuing to keep expenses down, has been enabled to make a substantial reduction on some of the old obligations of the village and is fast getting back to a pay as you go basis.

The village administration has taken an active part in all war activities, civilian defense, war fund drives, victory bond drives, etc.

The ticket, which is running unopposed at Tuesday's election under the name of the Citizens Ticket, is composed of Wm. H. DePue for village president, E. P. Steinbrinck for village clerk, and George Voss, James O'Hara and Lisle McKown for members of the village board. Lola Miller and Richard Southerland for members of the library board complete the ticket.

Mr. DePue is finishing his first term as village president and has taken an active and agressive interest in municipal affairs.

During his administration some 1,000 lots on which no taxes had been paid for years have been foreclosed and are now back on the tax books and producing thousands of dollars of income for the village.

Mr. DePue has been an ardent worker in all war activities and has been ever ready to give of his time and energy in all affairs affecting the village.

E. P. Steinbrinck, village clerk, is a veteran of many years experience in that office, has a world of experience in municipal affairs and needs no introduction to the voters of Palatine.

Of the trustee candidates George Voss is the veteran of the group, having had a long experience as a village father.

James O'Hara, a recent appointee to fill a vacancy, has shown a liking for municipal problems and his business ability makes a valuable member of the board.

Lisle McKown is new to village affairs and is taking the place left by the retirement of Fred Oswald.

Mr. McKown has had experience as a school board member and is a cool, level headed citizen who should make good as a village trustee.

Mrs. Muller and Mr. Sutherland, newcomers to the library board, were chosen because of their interest in the library and should prove capable members of that body.

The Citizens Ticket has no candidate for police magistrate and Ralph Trenchard, an attorney with offices in Chicago and a Palatine resident, has filed as an independent candidate for that position.

Mr. Trenchard is well known to Palatine people and is an active worker in boy scout work.

All candidates have easy sailing with no opposition but they would like to see a representative number of voters take enough interest in the election to come out and vote.

Three more teachers are dismissed

On Thursday, April 5, three more high school teachers, John L. Grose, Earle L. Joyner and Miss Carey Clark, were handed notices of dismissal, to take effect June 7, 1945.

Miss Carey Clark has been associated with the school for a number of years as a teacher of Home Economics, English, and History. Many of the homes in Arlington Heights have benefitted by her suggestions in the household arts. Miss Clark is a well qualified teacher, having a Master of Arts degree in home economics from the University of Colorado.

John L. Grose has been with the local school for many years. He has served as coach and teacher in mathematics, and shop. He has served as assistant principal for the past six years. Mr. Grose holds a Masters degree from Northwestern University.

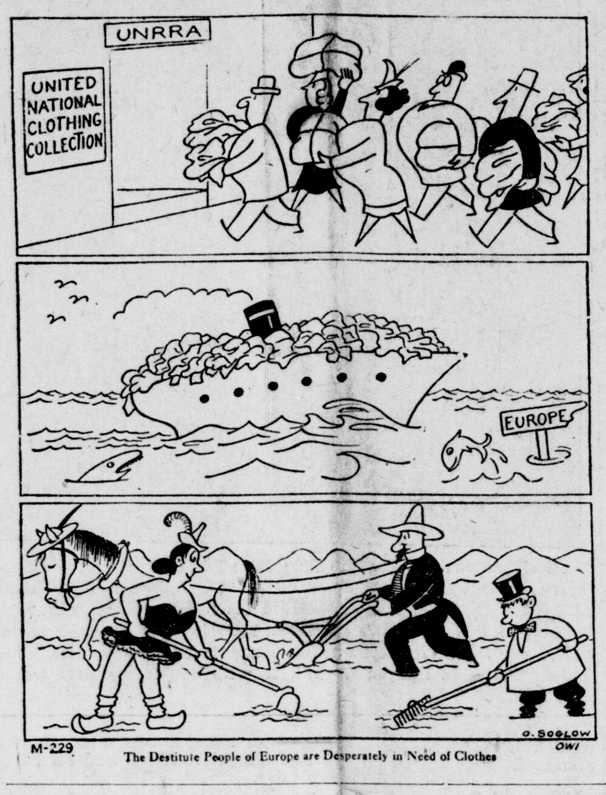

Earl L. Joyner became a member of the high school faculty four years ago. He has taught science and has been a very successful coach of basketball and baseball. Mr. Joyner also holds a Masters degree from Northwestern University.

With the dismissal of Mr. Grose and Mr. Joyner the entire coaching staff has been changed this year.

All of these teachers have had a sincere interest in the school and have helped materially in its development.

This makes a total of seven teachers who have been dismissed in the past four weeks.

Americanization of Europe

The Destitute People of Europe are Desperately in Need of Clothes

Church leadership trng. course opens April 16

20 suburban parishes at Arlington

Twenty Northwest Suburban Communities and their churches have been invited to participate in the Northwest Suburban Interdenominational Leadership Training School to be held at the Arlington Heights Methodist Meeting House, Arlington Heights. The school will be held on five consecutive Monday nights beginning April 16. The sessions begin at 7:30 p. m. and conclude at 9:30 p. m. The school is the outgrowth of the joint efforts of several churches of Barrington, Arlington Heights, Prospect Heights and Lake Zurich Palatine, Roselle and Itasca are working cooperatively.

The planning committee spent a great deal of time securing the best leadership possible and drawing up a practical, down to earth curriculum. The brouchure advertising the school describes it as ". . . a grass roots school originating and growing out of the needs of Superintendents and Church School leaders who wanted life-centered courses to meet the everyday teaching situations of the average teacher."

The courses consist of a general hour, which is to be attended by all persons enrolled in the school, entitled "Religion in the Bible". This course will develop some of the basic religious ideas found in the bible such as "relationship between God and Man"; "Jesus as Saviour". The second hour will be devoted to departmental work. The courses offered are "teaching small children", "teaching juniors", "teaching youth" and a course on "supervision".

Leaders well known

The teachers or leaders are recognized nationally for their outstanding work in the field of religious instruction. Dr. Vartan Melconian, of the Presbyterian College of Christian Education of Chicago is a dynamic, forceful and scintillating speaker. He will lead the general hour. Mrs. A. M. Nelson of the First Congregational Church, Oak Park, will lead the course on "teaching small children."

Mrs. Nelson comes highly recommended as one who has had exceptional success in leadership of this age group. Miss Geraldine Gregg, director of Christian Education of the first Methodist church, Evanston, has had the rich experience of translating the religious ideals of her world into the language of the junior child.

Miss Louise Drew, director of Christian Education at the First Methodist church, Oak Park, has had a wealth of experience and directs the religious program of one of Methodism's largest churches. She will share the responsibility with Miss Gregg of teaching the juniors.

The International Council of Religious Education has loaned the school two of its staff to lead in the important field of "teaching youth". Dr. Isaac K. Beckes and Miss Helen F. Spaulding will be the leaders for this course.

Five men who are actively engaged as Church School superintendents will lead the course on supervision. There will be a different leader each Monday evening who will share his experiences. Dr. Melconian will be the first to guide the thinking of these administrative officers. Blame wiring short in loss of car and garage at Palatine

H. A. Hoover, residing in Greater Palatine, a mile west of the village, blames a short in the wiring of his Plymouth coach for the loss of the car, his garage, and valuable tools that were destroyed by fire Saturday afternoon. The Palatine Rural Fire Department saved the house, which was only 35 feet distant.

The blaze was discovered by Albert DePue, a neighbor, who notified the Hoovers. The fire had gained such headway that the use of hand fire extinguishers was not sufficient. Included in the loss is an outboard motor, considerable fishing tackle, electric drill, spraying outfit, screens, etc. Fortunately, Mr. Hoover's truck was not in the garage at that time.

Honor roll is again landscaped

Through the interest of Frank F. Danielsen and Otto Gaare, two evergreens have again been placed at the honor roll. The trees were furnished and planted at no expense to the community.

One more week to pay taxes

The property owners of the country towns have one more full week to make their tax payments to their township collectors.

Saturday, April 21, is the dead line in the country towns. Penalty date at the county building is May 1.

With an acute shortage of help the last week's rush at the county building will be something that no one will want to get mixed up in if they can help it and the country town taxpayers can avoid all the commotion and long waiting in line by visiting their local collectors and making their payments promptly and in comfort.

The township collectors report that business has been brisk since their offices opened and that from all indications the taxpayers of the country towns are taking full advantage of the opportunity to make their payments to the town collectors.

Many Chicago people who own property in the suburbs are coming out and making their payments to the local collectors, rather than go through the jam at the down town office.

The township collectors appreciate your cooperation in making payments at home and they urge all who have not already made their payments to visit the local offices before the close of business Saturday, April 21.

The offices of the collectors of this area are located as follows:

Elk Grove, Mt. Prospect State Bank, Wheeling, Arlington Heights National Bank, Palatine, DePue Real Estate Office, State Bank building.

Office hours of the various collectors were given in the tax rate list enclosed with each tax bill.

The collector's offices are closed Wednesday afternoons.

Edwin H. Benhart, Chm.

Arlington high school board issues statement

The Board of Education of the Arlington Heights Township High School District sincerely believes, that as a general policy, it should not enter into a public debate, either through the press or otherwise, on certain problems which have recently confronted the Board in the High School.

However, the Board believes that the residents of the High School District, to whom the Board, as their duly elected representatives, are responsible, are entitled to a general report and statement by the Board because of the many rumors and recent publicity given by others to the present situation.

In selecting a new principal for the High School, the Board believed it had a positive duty to solicit the applications of all qualified educators who might be interested in the position, regardless of where they might live or whom they might be. The Board further believed it had a positive duty to select from these applicants the one they believed to be best qualified to assume the responsibility of educational leadership for the High School in the community. As a result of this policy the Board received and carefully examined and considered credentials from in excess of 100 applicants, and had personal interviews with 8 applicants. After further checking with educational institutions, and interviewing citizens and Board members from the applicant's community, as to the character, integrity and ability of the applicant, and visiting his former school, the Board of Education was unanimous in the selection of the present principal.

The Board expected any new principal to have new ideas that he might wish to put into effect. They further expected any new principal to cooperate with other schools in the community, make suggestions of possible educational advancements for the school, suggest possible curriculum changes wherever it might be for the best interest of the pupils and in general to assume leadership of the High School in the educational program of the community. The Board fully expected that any new principal coming into the school might make minor errors, due to his unfamiliarity with the school.

The Board believed that to have a successful school program, all of the staff members of the school would have to cooperate, and to that end, expected the faculty to welcome any new principal selected by the Board and join with him in studying, discussing, at proper times and places, and supporting, such new ideas for the improvement of the school as might be placed in effect. The Board further expected the faculty through frank and sincere discussions with the new principal of educational problems, to develop a program for the educational advancement of the school. They further expected, that if personal differences arose between the faculty members and the new principal, that they would be discussed at the proper times and places, and after a decision had been reached, all members of the school staff would support the decision even though it might be different than their personal desires or opinions. The Board further expected from all staff members a spirit of loyalty to each other, to the students, the community and to the Board and the centering of attention on an educational program for the school rather than upon personal grievances.

While no official request was ever made to the Board, because of rumors, gossip and mistaken impressions circulating through the community, the Board was required to call all faculty members to a meeting. Considerable time was spent in listening to, investigating and considering complaints of certain faculty members. It should be noted that the statement has been made in a meeting attended by all of the school staff and Board members, and has been unchallenged, that the Board had gone farther in listening to and considering complaints from the faculty than any other Board in Illinois in recent times.

After thoroughly studying the complaints as disclosed in these meetings, conferring at length with Educational Leaders, and after careful and impartial consideration of all matters raised, the Board, at a meeting of all members of the Board, faculty and administrator, reported to the faculty that by far the majority of the criticisms were trivial or personal matters and had no bearing on the educational welfare of the school; that the remainder of the criticisms, including those attacking the honesty and integrity of the principal, had been carefully investigated by the Board and found to have no basis in fact; that the principal had the complete faith and confidence of the Board; that the criticisms having been discussed, there was no reason why a good working spirit should not be developed; that if, after careful consideration, a member or members of the faculty could not be satisfied and cooperate in their present position as teachers, the Board would accept their resignation effective at the end of the school year; that in the future the Board expected grievances to be presented to the principal by the groups and presenting implied demands to the Board.

Since that report was made by the Board many rumors and statements have persisted. The Board believes that care should be taken teachers before organizing into in weighing these, to see that all facts are known, and then that they should be examined in the light of whether they are matters of importance to the educational welfare of the pupils and school or whether they are personal opinions or grievances.

In conclusion, the Board respectfully states:

(1) That it has conscientiously endeavored to be absolutely fair and impartial in this situation to all members of the school staff.

(2) That the sole desire of the Board, and the individual members is to create a proper educational atmosphere and develop the best educational program possible for the boys and girls of the student body.

(3) That the lack of improvement in the general situation required the Board to take definite action to eventually remedy the present condition.

(4) That the Board sincerely believes that any similiar group of citizens of this community, in possession of all of the facts which the Board has, would have arrived at similar conclusions and have taken substantially the same actions as taken by the Board.

School election Sat., April 14

Saturday, April 14, elections will be held in all school districts. Schools that operate under Boards of Education have designated polling hours, with printed ballots, nominations for which were filed two weeks ago. Rural schools will hold both their nomination caucus and elections Saturday evening.

Candidates for boards of education and polling hours are as follows:

The Palatine Township High School election Saturday, April 14, finds Charles Malody a candidate for re-election to a three year term as president of the board with Wilfred Muller and Dr. R. S. Williams candidates for re-election as board members. None of the candidates have opposition on the official ballot. The polls will be open in the high school cafeteria from 12:00 noon until 7:00 p. m.

Palatine Elementary School

The elementary school election will be held from 6:00 p. m. to 9 p. m. at the school house. The candidates are V. H. Meatheringham and Arthur C. Bergo for members for full term and John W. Morris for two year term.

Legion-auxiliary benefit dance a great success

Palatine high school gym probably never held a larger crowd at a dance than last Saturday night when Palatine Legion Post and Auxiliary sponsored their newspaper dance, the returns from which make possible the sending of the Palatine Enterprise to all Palatine boys and girls who are in the service of their country. The net returns are approximately $300. It is not unusual, says Mrs. Robert Mosser who is the "mother of the newspaper fund", to receive outright contributions, and I am always glad to get them, but the big success of last Saturday gives the project another lease on life. You know there are a lot of our boys in service and we try to send the paper to all of them."

Prizes especially donated were won as folows: permanent wave, donated by Mrs. Hampton, was won by Mrs. Vernon Drews; toilet articles, donated by Vesely's drug store, by Miss Betty Nehrbass. General prizes included a 16-lb. ham which went to Toddy M. Gaare, 5-lb. sausage to Gordon Sturm.

To the boys and girls in service, who could not be present, the Legion and Auxiliary sends their greetings. They hope that with the receipt of every issue of the Enterprise you will consider those greetings repeated.

Why taxes are higher

Many people are wondering this spring why their tax bills have taken such a jump.

Some seem to think they should protest their tax bills simply because they have gone up without looking carefully to see that their valuation is the same as last year.

The reason that taxes are higher this year is because the various taxing bodies needed more money to operate on than they have needed previously.

For instance, the county rate went up ten cents on each $100 of valuation.

This was caused by the larger budget passed by the county board in order to pay up a lot of debts accumulated back during the depression.

Likewise lots of school districts had to raise more money in order to hire extra teachers and to raise the salaries of those they did have if the schools weren't going to lose all their teachers to the high-salaried war plants.

As school officials point out, it costs more to run a school now than it did, the same as it costs more to eat, buy clothes and every other item of every day existence.

When it comes to protesting taxes simply because the rate has gone up, the proster has to prove that some part of the rate is illegal.

If a person desires to protest because of his valuation he should go to the county board of appeals.

The local collectors report many cases of people talking protest when they admit that the valuation set on their property is less than they paid for it or less than they would sell it for.

In such cases they are foolish to go before the board of appeals, and be forced to admit they paid more for the property than the assessor has it valued at and that they wouldn't take the assessor's figure for the property.

Such protests are a waste of time and when the protesters are shown the point they readily agree that they guess they have no protest coming.

Taxes are higher this year because the tax rates of some of the taxing bodies are higher.

If people want modern advantages of good schools and good municipal service, those things must be paid for the same as groceries and clothes.

In these days of high salaries and peak war production, everything is up and taxes are no exception to the general rule.

The great percentage of the tax money is raised by the local governments.

For instance, out of the Palatine combined rate in the village of $2.44 on each $100 of valuation, all of that is raised by the various home taxing bodies with the exception of 34 cents on each $100 valuation for the Cook county government and 4 cents for the county forest preserve district.

Out of Palatine's $2.44 rate, $2.06 goes entirely to the local taxing bodies and 38 cents goes to Cook county and the forest preserve district, so the great percentage of taxes is levied and used right at home.

Mrs. Upham had the major lesson on "Herb Cookery". She used herbs, making a brown savory stew, using thyme and basil — a vegetable salad using an herb French dressing with Tarragon vinegar and a potato salad mold with basil, summer savory, and maejoran. This was an unusual menu but an interesting one. These dishes were later used as refreshments with cake and coffee furnished by the hostess. The herb cookery is being used a great deal and the ladies found this an interesting object lesson.

Palatine hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Tistle, Des Plaines, are parents of a baby boy, Gerald Allen, born April 4.

Roger Niemeyer, Palatine, aged 10, underwent an appendix operation April 6.

Marie Schilling of Palatine is recuperating from a surgical operation.

Mrs. Fred Heimes, Palatine, is receiving medical treatment in the hospital.

Motion picture is next feature of Woman's club

The Woman's Club of Palatine is presenting an unusual, but interesting program on Tuesday, April 17. The movie to be presented was made in the Underwriters Laboratories, Inc., and shows the experts who labor there and set fire to things or try to make them burn, or break down, in order that the rest of us, who are careless, as we often are, may find it pretty hard to burn up ourselves or one's property.

Their goal is fires that never burn. Filling stations where you get gas is one of the most hazardous spots on earth for fire or explosives, but you seldom hear of one there because they are checked and approved by the Underwriters.

Every make and model passenger car has been checked and approved by the Underwriters laboratory, so look for the laboratories' label on all electric things that you buy and have the assurance that the danger of any fire or explosion is taken care of.

As an added attraction Frances Nicholas, well known pianist, will render several piano selections.

Hostesses are Mrs. Walter Chase and her committee.

The people of other centuries found their conceptions of immortality useful, in shaping the future of the social order on earth. The resurrection and eternal life was the central theme in the early preaching of the Christian era.

Although cash is still being received by Geo. L. Busse, Red Cross drive chairman for Mt. Prospect and Elk Grove, the $3,200 quota was passed last week. Actual cash to date is $3,329. That amount does not include any of the credits that may later be credited to the community.

Tates of the Street

STILL GROWING

Last Thursday morning with the ground frozen solid and plenty of ice on the water, where there was any water, made a lot of the early gardeners wonder just what the damage was going to be when their early crops thawed out.

But strange to say, the damage seems to have been very light in spite of the hard freeze.

Our peas, lettuce and spinach are still growing and are apparently none the worse for their chilly night.

And we have talked with several fellows who have examined the fruit buds pretty carefully and who report that there seems to be little if any damage.

But this is still early in April and we aren"t out of the woods yet, although from the way the trees are leaved out it should be time to plant corn, beans and the more tender crops. But we are not going to be fooled into doing any such stunt just yet, for despite the advanced foliage we can't help but believe that there is still something coming.

THAT CACTUS

And there is still the prediction of that Hackbarth cactus to make us cautious.

Of course maybe that cold wave and high wind and snow in states all around us will satisfy that blame plant and it will lapse into dormancy again, but we're still doubtful.

No one ever saw a spring like this in this locality and some of the old timers have been around here a long time.

"It's just too good to be true," is the universal opinion of the weather watchers and a sudden, blizzard, freeze, ice storm or something similar wouldn't surprise a lot of folks a bit.

Meanwhile the early gardens are still growing and here's hoping that this spring is real even though it seems impossible to believe it.

THE FROGS

There is an old saying that the frogs have to be frozen in three times after they make their first croak in wet swamps.

So far they have only been frozen in once, last Thursday morning so if they still have to be under the ice twice more it's still too early to count on that fruit crop or to set out any tomato or egg plant.

And speaking of the frogs they sure are making a merry racket these warm nights, and a person wonders where they find enough water to play around in.

It's certainly the driest spring in years.

And down in southern Illinois, where it was dry all last spring they are having regular deluges of rainfall.

ALMOST

We almost had Postmaster Bill Kehe thinking that we were some sort of a super gardener the other morning.

We took some lettuce and radishes big enough to eat into the post office and left them for Bill.

Not long afterwards Bill dashed into the office.

"Where in the dickens did you raise that stuff, in a hot bed," he demanded

"What do you think of that for an early victory garden?" we asked him.

Bill was still unconvinced that that produce had been raised outdoors.

"I've got some pretty well along, but it can't come up to that," said Bill.

And then came the real story.

Walter Schinkowsky, who had heard of some of Bill's advanced vegetables, figured out the bright idea of furnishing us some produce from the greenhouse to spring on Bill and make him think that his early garden was only a piker.

So we almost had Bill believing that we had some super garden but he just couldn't quite see how anything outdoors could get such a start even in this freak spring.

Walter, by the way, was asking us what sort of plants we were going to set out this year and we still insisted that we did not want any more of those nice looking "cabbage" plants that turn out to be brussels sprouts or some other blame thing.

But anyway that nice lettuce that Walter brought along surely tasted good and made a fellow anxious to be able to go out in the garden and gather a nice meal.

EARLY BLOOM

The fruit trees have burst out in all their glory.

Peach, pear, cherry and even here and there an early apple tree are bursting into bloom and we talked with a fellow Tuesday that had seen fifty acres already planted to corn.

The early tulips are in bloom and shrubs that usually blossom the middle of May are bursting forth.

And the question everyone is asking everyone else is "is this going to last?"

Well we sure hope so, but we've still got our doubts.

We can't get over the fact that this is northern Illinois, and not Alabama, and that it's still not the middle of April.

And thus in the back of our mind is still the memory of that blooming cactus plant of August Hackbarth.

Voters approve new building

Voters of Bensenville Tuesday approved the special proposition providing for the erection of a municipal building. The total vote cast was 389. The tally showed 211 approving the proposition and 172 voting against it. There were six spoiled ballots.

The proposal has been announced as a part of the village's post war planning program. It is expected that Government funds will be made available for projects of this kind. However, it was pointed out, that even without federal subsidy, the cost to the average taxpayer would be reasonable.

Blame wiring short in loss of car and garage at Palatine

H. A. Hoover, residing in Greater Palatine, a mile west of the village, blames a short in the wiring of his Plymouth coach for the loss of the car, his garage, and valuable tools that were destroyed by fire Saturday afternoon. The Palatine Rural Fire Department saved the house, which was only 35 feet distant.

The blaze was discovered by Albert DePue, a neighbor, who notified the Hoovers. The fire had gained such headway that the use of hand fire extinguishers was not sufficient. Included in the loss is an outboard motor, considerable fishing tackle, electric drill, spraying outfit, screens, etc. Fortunately, Mr. Hoover's truck was not in the garage at that time.

Church Leadership Course Opens April 16

20 suburban parishes at Arlington

Twenty Northwest Suburban Communities and their churches have been invited to participate in the Northwest Suburban Interdenominational Leadership Training School to be held at the Arlington Heights Methodist Meeting House, Arlington Heights. The school will be held on five consecutive Monday nights beginning April 16. The sessions begin at 7:30 p. m. and conclude at 9:30 p. m. The school is the outgrowth of the joint efforts of several churches of Barrington, Arlington Heights, Prospect Heights and Lake Zurich Palatine, Roselle and Itasca are working cooperatively.

The planning committee spent a great deal of time securing the best leadership possible and drawing up a practical, down to earth curriculum. The brouchure advertising the school describes it as ". . . a grass roots school originating and growing out of the needs of Superintendents and Church School leaders who wanted life-centered courses to meet the everyday teaching situations of the average teacher."

The courses consist of a general hour, which is to be attended by all persons enrolled in the school, entitled "Religion in the Bible". This course will develop some of the basic religious ideas found in the bible such as "relationship between God and Man"; "Jesus as Saviour". The second hour will be devoted to departmental work. The courses offered are "teaching small children", "teaching juniors", "teaching youth" and a course on "supervision".

Leaders well known

The teachers or leaders are recognized nationally for their outstanding work in the field of religious instruction. Dr. Vartan Melconian, of the Presbyterian College of Christian Education of Chicago is a dynamic, forceful and scintillating speaker. He will lead the general hour. Mrs. A. M. Nelson of the First Congregational Church, Oak Park, will lead the course on "teaching small children."

Mrs. Nelson comes highly recommended as one who has had exceptional success in leadership of this age group. Miss Geraldine Gregg, director of Christian Education of the first Methodist church, Evanston, has had the rich experience of translating the religious ideals of her world into the language of the junior child.

Miss Louise Drew, director of Christian Education at the First Methodist church, Oak Park, has had a wealth of experience and directs the religious program of one of Methodism's largest churches. She will share the responsibility with Miss Gregg of teaching the juniors.

The International Council of Religious Education has loaned the school two of its staff to lead in the important field of "teaching youth". Dr. Isaac K. Beckes and Miss Helen F. Spaulding will be the leaders for this course.

Five men who are actively engaged as Church School superintendents will lead the course on supervision. There will be a different leader each Monday evening who will share his experiences. Dr. Melconian will be the first to guide the thinking of these administrative officers. Mr. Thomas West, prominent international lawyer and superintendent of the Wilmette Methodist church school will lead April 23; Dr. Willard Jackman, superintendent of the Public Schools of Elmhurst, will lead the officers the third Monday, April 30; Mr. Fred Duerr of the

County delays vote on bonds for building

Postponement of the referendum on $300,000 worth of bonds for the erection of a building to provide additional space for the county offices was voted Tuesday at the county board meeting at Wheaton. The decision to postpone the court house election was decided at a meeting of the building committee with the other members of the board and county officials on Monday of this week.

At that meeting it was decided that the time was too short to properly bring the need of such a building to the public. It was the belief of Supervisor Seymour Waterfall, Jr., supervisor of Downers Grove township, that if the board hurried the election the proposal would be lost. Other members of the board expressed themselves of not being thoroughly acquainted with the plans.

It developed also that there was certain difference of opinion concerning the building. Incidentally, it was pointed out that the moving of offices when the proposed building is ready for occupancy would require considerable work.

On the request of County Clerk Clarence V. Wagemann, he was authorized to reduce the number of voting precincts for the judicial election, June 4, from 93 to a score or so. It was pointed out that not many votes would be cast, and the three Republican nominees, all incumbents, will be reelected. Maintaining a full complement of voting places with three judges and three clerks in each precinct is considered a waste of money. But Mr. Wagemann will seek legal advice before he acts.

Mrs. Davis will speak from her experience as educational director of the Illinois Society of Mental Hygiene, as lecturer for the Chicago Association for Child Study and Parent Education and as a teacher. She also will speak as a mother, having a son 16 and a daughter 15.

The aesthetic part of the program will contain the well known voices of Miss Martha Carter and C. T. Johnson. Bataan nurse tells of life in Jap hands

Public may hear Lt. Breese Friday

Lt. Minnie Breese of Arlington Heights has returned home after being released from Santo Thomas, Jap prison camp in Manila in the Philippines. In an interview this week, With Uncle Sam presents many of her experiences as told by her.

The story tells of the starvation diet supplied the prisoners, of the many indignities suffered by them, and of life in general in Jap hands. Lt. Breese emphatically states that her life among civilian internees was nothing compared to treatment accorded U. S. soldiers in other camps, but her story certainly will attract no one to Japan. It can be found on page one of the second section.

An opportunity to the general public to hear, first hand, of the experiences of Lt. Minnie Breese in the Jap prison camp in Manila this Friday is offered by Arlington Heights high school. A school assembly will be held at 2:30 p. m. in the high school auditorium where Lt. Breese will speak.

Kelly again gets board chairmanship

Gets 23 votes on first roll call

Reorganization meeting of the Du Page county board of supervisors on Tuesday resulted in the reelection of John J. Kelly, supervisors of Addison township, and the adjournment of the board until next Tuesday, April 17, when the committee personnel will be announced.

Mr. Kelly has served three one-year terms as chairman of the board. This election which was virtually unanimous, was for his fourth term. Chairmanship of the board of supervisors carried with it chairmanship of the board of review and chairmanship of the liquor control commission.

There were 23 members of the board of supervisors when the vote was taken. Later the two came in, leaving George C. Potts of Lombard the only member of the board who did not attend the meeting.

Seymour Waterfall was chosen chairman pro tem after Mr. Wagemann had called the meeting to order. Mr. Waterfall said that he believed the present board (five new members from York township) would act in harmony as the outgoing board had done. N. W. Lies, chairman of the board for 16 times, nominated Mr. Kelly. The nomination was seconded by Supervisor Charles Schatz of Wheaton. The nominations were closed on motion of Lloyd C. Harner of Hinsdale.

When the vote was taken Members Peterman and Germann had not arrived. Therefore, 23 votes were recorded for Mr. Kelly. Mr. Potts, who did not put in an appearance, was a tentative candidate for the chairmanship. At the March meeting he introduced a resolution limiting the term of office of the chairman of the board to two years. While Glenn Mount of Warrenville seconded Mr. Potts' motion for adoption of the resolution the Warrenville member voted against its adoption.

On Saturday of last week Mr. Potts announced his candidacy for the board. It is evident that he received no encouragement for he did not appear, nor was his name brought before the meeting.

Licenses due June 30

Opposition at Bloomingdale, Bensenville and Bartlett; 36 candidates on tickets

Five village presidents, 16 trustees, five village clerks, three police magistrates and two library board members will be elected Tuesday at the regular village elections in Bensenville, Itasca, Roselle, Bloomingdale and Bartlett. A total of 36 candidates are on the respective tickets.

There are contests at Bensenville, Bloomingdale and Bartlett. Elsewhere only one tickets has filed and the voting is expected to be extremely light.

In Bensenville both tickets are conducting organized campaigns and a heavy vote is expected. William B. Peck, incumbent village president, is seeking reelection on the Independent Party ticket. With him for trustees are William Bishop, George J. Hampton, R. W. Tonning, Sr., and to fill a vacancy, Harry J. Tendick, for police magistrate, John H. Mears and for village clerk, Lena G. Bachelor.

On the opposing Progressive Party ticket is Clarence M. Yarke for village president, for village trustees, George B. Boldebuck, Harold V. Cook, and Albert R. Kolze, and to fill the vacancy, George J. Grobe. There are no candidates on the ticket for police magistrate and village clerk.

Bloomingdale

At Bloomingdale where there is seldom an uncontested election, Fred E. Ehlers leads the United Party ticket in his bid for reelection as president of the village board. On the ticket with him are Walter H. Petersohn for village clerk and Fred W. Koehn, Clarence W. Fuller and Louis Luyten for trustees.

Leading the opposition Progressive Party ticket is John Evald Hjelte for village president and Chris Hoff, Jr., August Van Goethen and Onie Kuntz for trustees. The town's Gallup pollers declare this one is going to be pretty close to a dead heat. They figure that the side which can ferret out the few idle votes has the best chance of taking the election.

Bartlett

A. W. Sodman and H. C. Thurnau are seeking the village presidency at Bartlett. Three trustees will be elected from the four who have filed, H. C. Marxen, Harvey Schnadt, Lester Bull, Arthur H. Taylor. Walter H. Meyer is unopposed for village celrk.

Forum hears educator

A large crowd heard Dr. William Hudson of Blackburn College speak about the "Most Exclusive College in America."".

Its exclusiveness is based on the idea that students must work their way through to attain an education. It is a Junior college founded for students who are worthy and help to work their way.

This college located at Carlinville, spent its early life in Pullman cars. It then moved into buildings which were largely built and are wholly maintained by student help.

Dr. Hudson feels that the value of such an arrangement is that the students become self reliant. They become good homemakers, and the practical and religious ideals are brought into an orderly and disciplined arrangement of living. This idea of self-help is of great practical value to the college which does not have to search for outside help.

Versatile Organ

That the human eye is a highly versatile organ is demonstrated by its ability to function over a wide range of light intensities. At noon on a bright summer day the light is about one million times as bright as the illumination given by a full moon. Yet the average person can see fairly well under the two extremes of illumination.

You have read published reports and have listened to remarks by the candidates on the Independent Ticket — now let us, the candidates on the PROGRESSIVE TICKET tell you TRUTHFUL facts that should concern you - your children - and the community.

— Voters - Please Read the Truth —

1936: Commencing with the year 1936, the tax rate levied was $1.26 per $100.00 assessed valuation. This included the paying of one $5000.00 Water Works Bond.

1937: The tax rate was increased to $1.36, including payment of another $5000.00 Water Works Bond due at maturity.

1938: In reference to the Peerless turbine pump at a cost of $2500.00 for well No. 1, sufficient revenue in the General Fund should have provided for its payment. The $5000.00 Water Works Bonds paid are a result of the spreading of a Bond Issue over a period of years, a $5000.00 bond being due and payable each year. As to the widening, draining, restoring of Green Street, from Grace St. to East Village limits, this Street was improved with crushed stone the first time, at a cost of approximately $8800.00, this item was not mentioned by the Independent Party Candidates, was paid for out of Motor fuel tax.

1939: To clarify the purchase of the rebuilt Austin-Western 77-Grader, this grader cost the tax payers of our Village about $2500.00 and was mostly idle the first 3 years.

The tax rate from $1.38 to .67 was automatically reduced by the final payment of the $5000.00 Water Works Bond, which payment cancelled the entire Bonds issued.

1940: The Municipal Band was established, as a result of a referendum vote of the tax payers, and does not now exist.

1941: There being no water works bond to pay, the tax rate levied was 75 cents.

1942: There being no Water Works bond to pay, the tax rate remained the same as for the previous year.

1943: As to the Audit of 12-31-36, shortages existed as a result of depression years tax collections. Records indicate that only 49% of taxes were being collected, 51% of taxes being delinquent. Green St. was widened and drained from Grace St. to East Village limits at a cost of approximately $3000.00, paid for from Motor Fuel tax funds. Increased population, and income from taxes warranted collection of Garbage and Rubbish. Taxes increased 26 cents per $100.00 valuation, to $1.01.

1944: The resurfacing of Green St. from Grace St. to East Village limits with Black top. Paid for out of motor fuel tax funds. It is estimated that more than $15,000 was spent in improving this street of less than ½ mile in length.

It will be exciting!

"Oh the Circus Day parade! How the bugles played and played!" will not be a strictly James Whitcomb Riley thrill after "the children's hour" or hours at the Itasca Country Fair, April 28. "The rattle and the rhymn of the tenor drummer's time" will live again when the kindergarten Rhythm Rascals open the show at four o'clock in the afternoon.

With such an overture, you'll surely kick in with your two pins, "or what have you" to witness an array of youth performances that will "fill all the hungry hearts of us with melody sublime."

It will be "twinkle, twinkle, little star," as the curtain rises on a Marionette Show based on Dickens Christmas Carols; "Orsen Willsed" by the Girl Scouts—modernized and performed. A play "Goodbye Ghost" by the same talented young ladies will supply the 'suspense". Mrs. Arthur Schneider is their coach. The little sisters of this group, the "Brownies", will be the "confectioneers" for the afternoon. Who will be able to resist these "sweets" or their candy, peanuts and popcorn.

The Young Peoples Group of the Presbyterian church will have movies for both young and old.

"Oh, 'tis a lovely thing, this youth"—if you still have it, you'll surely enjoy these efforts of your contemporaries; if you haven't, a two hour visit at the Itasca Country Club, beginning at 4 o'clock on April 28, might help you temporarily to regain it.

A local lady spit up acid liquids for hours after eating

For hours after every meal, a Bensenville lady used to spit up a strong acidulous liquid mixed with pieces of half-digested food. She says it was awful. At times she would nearly strangle. She had stomach bloat, daily headaches and constant irregular bowel action. Today, this lady eats her meals and enjoys them. And she says the change is due to taking ERB-HELP. Her food agrees with her. No gas, bloat or spitting up after eating. She is also free of headaches now, and bowels are regular, thanks to this Remarkable New Compound.

ERB-HELP contains 12 Great Herbs; they cleanse bowels, clear gas from stomach, act on sluggish liver and kidneys. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering. Get ERB-HELP. Dahl Drug Store; also in Roselle at Knutzen Drug Store.

Ship Christenings

The honor of ship christenings was completely a masculine prerogative until the 19th century when an English prince conceived the idea of appointing charming ladies from court to act as sponsors, according to the editors of the Shipbuilders Council of America publication. Nearly a century passed, however, before the custom became general in this country but once it did it was almost universally followed.

Clean Up Week in Bensenville

April 15 to 21 is Clean Up Week in Bensenville, an event sponsored and promoted by the Civic Improvement association.

Every resident is urged to make their own grounds more attractive during this week, and business houses are asked to pay especial attention to their places of business.

Posters, made by the children of the schools, will be displayed throughout the village, publicising the program of clean-up. Prizes will be awarded to the three posters judged best of those turned in. Mr. Carl T. Linden is the judge appointed by the association.

Mr. Howard Hendricksen, president, will present the prizes to the winners Tuesday morning, April 17. The winning posters will be exhibited in the office window at 18 W. Green for the entire week.

Woman's club elect new officers Tuesday

Sponsor service men subscriptions

Mrs. Aubrey Voaden was elected pesident of the Itasca Woman's Club for the 1945-46 club year at the annual business meeting of the organization Tuesday, April 10. Mrs. Carmi Miller will be the new vice president, Mrs. H. A. Davenport, recording secretary, Mrs. W. E. Beier, treasurer and Mrs. M. G. Sleight will again assume the responsibility of corresponding secretary.

Some forty members were present to elect the new officers, to hear the annual reports and vote on revisions of the by-laws. Mrs. Chas. Landino was in charge of the annual election and Mrs. Sleight was chairman of the revision committee.

At the suggestion of a special committee, comprised of Mesdames Elliott, Fenstermaker and Wagner, it was voted to again pay for fifty six-month subscriptions to the DuPage County Register which are to be sent to service men from Itasca, also a bond is to be purchased during the seventh war bond drive.

Mrs. L. Stolley, in her report on the country fair to be held April 28, asked for donations of hot dishes and cakes to be served at this affair, also asked for volunteers to help serve.

Before the business meeting was called to order, Mrs. Hazel Turner of Roselle, well known as a dramatic reader and soloist, gave a variety of readings: "Lillium," "Ain't dat so," "Katie's answer," "When there ain't nobody home' and "I know a little pig" which were very amusing and charmingly rendered.

The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Frank Stewart, chairman, Mesdames L. W. Goebel, C A. Pickett, V. Thornton and F. A. Seebach.

AAA meeting at Schaumburg

A special sign up meeting of the soil conservation program will be held at Niemann's hall, Monday, April 16, 8 p. m. This meeting is for the purpose of those who, up to this time, have not signed up for the program. You too can take part in this program and earn your soil building allowance.

Please come in and talk it over with your committeeman as June 1 is the dead line, and this is the last meeting that will be held in this township.

Edwin H. Benhart, Chm.

Voters approve new building

Voters of Bensenville Tuesday approved the special proposition providing for the erection of a municipal building. The total vote cast was 389. The tally showed 211 approving the proposition and 172 voting against it. There were six spoiled ballots.

The proposal has been announced as a part of the village's post war planning program. It is expected that Government funds will be made available for projects of this kind. However, it was pointed out, that even without federal subsidy, the cost to the average taxpayer would be reasonable.

Blame wiring short in loss of car and garage at Palatine

H. A. Hoover, residing in Greater Palatine, a mile west of the village, blames a short in the wiring of his Plymouth coach for the loss of the car, his garage, and valuable tools that were destroyed by fire Saturday afternoon. The Palatine Rural Fire Department saved the house, which was only 35 feet distant.

The blaze was discovered by Albert DePue, a neighbor, who notified the Hoovers. The fire had gained such headway that the use of hand fire extinguishers was not sufficient. Included in the loss is an outboard motor, considerable fishing tackle, electric drill, spraying outfit, screens, etc. Fortunately, Mr. Hoover's truck was not in the garage at that time.

Church Leadership Course Opens April 16

20 suburban parishes at Arlington

Twenty Northwest Suburban Communities and their churches have been invited to participate in the Northwest Suburban Interdenominational Leadership Training School to be held at the Arlington Heights Methodist Meeting House, Arlington Heights. The school will be held on five consecutive Monday nights beginning April 16. The sessions begin at 7:30 p. m. and conclude at 9:30 p. m. The school is the outgrowth of the joint efforts of several churches of Barrington, Arlington Heights, Prospect Heights and Lake Zurich Palatine, Roselle and Itasca are working cooperatively.

The planning committee spent a great deal of time securing the best leadership possible and drawing up a practical, down to earth curriculum. The brouchure advertising the school describes it as ". . . a grass roots school originating and growing out of the needs of Superintendents and Church School leaders who wanted life-centered courses to meet the everyday teaching situations of the average teacher."

The courses consist of a general hour, which is to be attended by all persons enrolled in the school, entitled "Religion in the Bible". This course will develop some of the basic religious ideas found in the bible such as "relationship between God and Man"; "Jesus as Saviour". The second hour will be devoted to departmental work. The courses offered are "teaching small children", "teaching juniors", "teaching youth" and a course on "supervision".

Leaders well known

The teachers or leaders are recognized nationally for their outstanding work in the field of religious instruction. Dr. Vartan Melconian, of the Presbyterian College of Christian Education of Chicago is a dynamic, forceful and scintillating speaker. He will lead the general hour. Mrs. A. M. Nelson of the First Congregational Church, Oak Park, will lead the course on "teaching small children."

Mrs. Nelson comes highly recommended as one who has had exceptional success in leadership of this age group. Miss Geraldine Gregg, director of Christian Education of the first Methodist church, Evanston, has had the rich experience of translating the religious ideals of her world into the language of the junior child.

Miss Louise Drew, director of Christian Education at the First Methodist church, Oak Park, has had a wealth of experience and directs the religious program of one of Methodism's largest churches. She will share the responsibility with Miss Gregg of teaching the juniors.

The International Council of Religious Education has loaned the school two of its staff to lead in the important field of "teaching youth". Dr. Isaac K. Beckes and Miss Helen F. Spaulding will be the leaders for this course.

Five men who are actively engaged as Church School superintendents will lead the course on supervision. There will be a different leader each Monday evening who will share his experiences. Dr. Melconian will be the first to guide the thinking of these administrative officers. Mr. Thomas West, prominent international lawyer and superintendent of the Wilmette Methodist church school will lead April 23; Dr. Willard Jackman, superintendent of the Public Schools of Elmhurst, will lead the officers the third Monday, April 30; Mr. Fred Duerr of the

County delays vote on bonds for building

Postponement of the referendum on $300,000 worth of bonds for the erection of a building to provide additional space for the county offices was voted Tuesday at the county board meeting at Wheaton. The decision to postpone the court house election was decided at a meeting of the building committee with the other members of the board and county officials on Monday of this week.

At that meeting it was decided that the time was too short to properly bring the need of such a building to the public. It was the belief of Supervisor Seymour Waterfall, Jr., supervisor of Downers Grove township, that if the board hurried the election the proposal would be lost. Other members of the board expressed themselves of not being thoroughly acquainted with the plans.

It developed also that there was certain difference of opinion concerning the building. Incidentally, it was pointed out that the moving of offices when the proposed building is ready for occupancy would require considerable work.

On the request of County Clerk Clarence V. Wagemann, he was authorized to reduce the number of voting precincts for the judicial election, June 4, from 93 to a score or so. It was pointed out that not many votes would be cast, and the three Republican nominees, all incumbents, will be reelected. Maintaining a full complement of voting places with three judges and three clerks in each precinct is considered a waste of money. But Mr. Wagemann will seek legal advice before he acts.

Bataan nurse tells of life in Jap hands

Public may hear Lt. Breese Friday

Lt. Minnie Breese of Arlington Heights has returned home after being released from Santo Thomas, Jap prison camp in Manila in the Philippines. In an interview this week, With Uncle Sam presents many of her experiences as told by her.

The story tells of the starvation diet supplied the prisoners, of the many indignities suffered by them, and of life in general in Jap hands. Lt. Breese emphatically states that her life among civilian internees was nothing compared to treatment accorded U. S. soldiers in other camps, but her story certainly will attract no one to Japan. It can be found on page one of the second section.

An opportunity to the general public to hear, first hand, of the experiences of Lt. Minnie Breese in the Jap prison camp in Manila this Friday is offered by Arlington Heights high school. A school assembably will be held at 2:30 p. m. in the high school auditorium where Lt. Breese will speak.

Kelly again gets board chairmanship

Gets 23 votes on first roll call

Reorganization meeting of the Du Page county board of supervisors on Tuesday resulted in the reelection of John J. Kelly, supervisors of Addison township, and the adjournment of the board until next Tuesday, April 17, when the committee personnel will be announced.

Mr. Kelly has served three one-year terms as chairman of the board. This election which was virtually unanimous, was for his fourth term. Chairmanship of the board of supervisors carried with it chairmanship of the board of review and chairmanship of the liquor control commission.

There were 23 members of the board of supervisors when the vote was taken. Later the two came in, leaving George C. Potts of Lombard the only member of the board who did not attend the meeting.

Seymour Waterfall was chosen chairman pro tem after Mr. Wagemann had called the meeting to order. Mr. Waterfall said that he believed the present board (five new members from York township) would act in harmony as the outgoing board had done. N. W. Lies, chairman of the board for 16 times, nominated Mr. Kelly. The nomination was seconded by Supervisor Charles Schatz of Wheaton. The nominations were closed on motion of Lloyd C. Harner of Hinsdale.

When the vote was taken Members Peterman and Germann had not arrived. Therefore, 23 votes were recorded for Mr. Kelly. Mr. Potts, who did not put in an appearance, was a tentative candidate for the chairmanship. At the March meeting he introduced a resolution limiting the term of office of the chairman of the board to two years. While Glenn Mount of Warrenville seconded Mr. Potts' motion for adoption of the resolution the Warrenville member voted against its adoption.

On Saturday of last week Mr. Potts announced his candidacy for the board. It is evident that he received no encouragement for he did not appear, nor was his name brought before the meeting.

Opposition at Bloomingdale, Bensenville and Bartlett; 36 candidates on tickets

Five village presidents, 16 trustees, five village clerks, three police magistrates and two library board members will be elected Tuesday at the regular village elections in Bensenville, Itasca, Roselle, Bloomingdale and Bartlett. A total of 36 candidates are on the respective tickets.

There are contests at Bensenville, Bloomingdale and Bartlett. Elsewhere only one tickets has filed and the voting is expected to be extremely light.

In Bensenville both tickets are conducting organized campaigns and a heavy vote is expected. William B. Peck, incumbent village president, is seeking reelection on the Independent Party ticket. With him for trustees are William Bishop, George J. Hampton, R. W. Tonning, Sr., and to fill a vacancy, Harry J. Tendick, for police magistrate, John H. Mears and for village clerk, Lena G. Bachelor.

On the opposing Progressive Party ticket is Clarence M. Yarke for village president, for village trustees, George B. Boldebuck, Harold V. Cook, and Albert R. Kolze, and to fill the vacancy, George J. Grobe. There are no candidates on the ticket for police magistrate and village clerk.

Bloomingdale

At Bloomingdale where there is seldom an uncontested election, Fred E. Ehlers leads the United Party ticket in his bid for reelection as president of the village board. On the ticket with him are Walter H. Petersohn for village clerk and Fred W. Koehn, Clarence W. Fuller and Louis Luyten for trustees.

Leading the opposition Progressive Party ticket is John Evald Hjelte for village president and Chris Hoff, Jr., August Van Goethen and Onie Kuntz for trustees. The town's Gallup pollers declare this one is going to be pretty close to a dead heat. They figure that the side which can ferret out the few idle votes has the best chance of taking the election.

Bartlett

A. W. Sodman and H. C. Thurnau are seeking the village presidency at Bartlett. Three trustees will be elected from the four who have filed, H. C. Marxen, Harvey Schnadt, Lester Bull, Arthur H. Taylor. Walter H. Meyer is unopposed for village celrk.

Itasca

Candidates on the unopposed Independent Party ticket at Itasca are Jesse F. Beaver for village president, Carl A. Hanck for village clerk, Titus Medendorp, Lowell D. Rutherford and Thomas R. Schneider, for trustees and Reynold W. Lundholm for police magistrate.

Roselle

The Citizens Party Ticket is the only one to file at Roselle. For president is Wallace H. Womeldorf; for trustees, David L. Elam, Cedric C. Herrmann, and T. G. Lindstrom; for village clark, Martin A. Niemann, for police magistrate, Geo. A. Sim, Jr., and for the library board, M. J. Doran and Dr. O. T. Kirsch.
